SATURDAY, JUNE 30, 1906.

Modest Chief.

When Lord Selborne, high commissioner of South Africa, appointed a new paramount chief of the Basuto tribe the other day, and admonished him to walk in the ways of his fathers, the new chief replied: "I am strong, yet I am frightened of the blanket that has descended upon me, and I do not know how I shall carry it."

Exciting Sport.

Last winter the Norwegians yielded the excitement of ski running by yoking the runner to a motor cycle by a long leather strap, which he grasped with his left hand. The speed attained is enormous, and great skill is required to avoid being pulled over, as the body is apt to outrun the feet. The pastime is growing very popular.

What He Wanted.

"Ah," said the fortune-teller, sighing deeply and letting a mystic expression into his eyes, "you wish to learn what the future will hold for you?" "Not exactly," replied the patron, passing over his dollar, "I want to find out what the future will be for me." "Judge."

A crowd came to Waverly from Towanda last evening and expressed surprise at the metropolitan appearance of the village. They have been buried so long among the accumulated cobwebs of Bradford's county seat that when they see a real live town it sets them wondering.

BUSINESS MAN LEAVES

Waverly—J. S. Westcott and family left Waverly today for Mahopac where they will reside in the future. Mr. Westcott who was junior member in the hardware firm of Bouton and Westcott, has been in Waverly for the past 11 years, and his departure is a decided loss to this village. The firm with which he severs his connection will be known as Bouton & Son. Mr. Westcott will conduct a general store at Mahopac.

TO CLOSE EVENINGS

Waverly—All clothing dealers of Waverly have agreed to close all day July 4. They have also decided to close at 7:30 o'clock in the evening during the months of July and August, with the exception of Saturday nights and Lehigh pay day nights and two days thereafter. This is a good move for all concerned, and gives the evenings to those engaged in that business, and might be advantageously followed by those in other lines.

GAVE MUSICAL RECITAL

Waverly—The pupils of Mrs. Louise Lane Blackmore gave a musical recital at the Presbyterian church last evening. The recital showed that all those participating had received excellent training. Those taking part were: Mrs. George A. Briggs, Miss Verna Gere, Miss Mabel Rose, Miss Florence Knapp, Miss Grace Westcott, Miss Elizabeth Mathews and Robert Fish.

FOUND NOT GUILTY

Waverly—W. L. Watrous returned from Owego this morning where he acted as foreman of the jury in the Taylor case. Taylor was accused of killing a man in 1903. He was convicted on the first trial and sentenced to 10 years at Auburn, but obtained this new trial and was acquitted.

WILL TAKE VACATION

Waverly—On Monday next the Rev. P. R. Ross will leave for his vacation which will extend until Sept 1. He will conduct the service at the church tomorrow morning, which will be his last appearance at his church until the vacation terminates.

Beautiful Lake Keuka Keuka is justly entitled to the reputation it bears, that of being the most beautiful lake in New York state. Its shores are lined with countless cozy cottages. Those who are unable to cure cottages, find excellent accommodations at the several large hotels at Grove Springs, Keuka and Gibsons. If you enjoy fishing, no other place offers greater attraction, the lake having been annually stocked for several years with various species of trout, black bass, pike and pickerel from the State Fish Hatchery, located but five miles from Hammondport at the head of the lake. The season is now open and excellent catches are daily reported. Keuka Lake is reached via Erie Railroad, whose agents will gladly furnish information regarding trains, rates, etc. A beautiful illustrated booklet will be mailed on application to J. H. Webster, Div. Pass. Agent, Elmira, N. Y. 35-dly-8-1
