WEPT ON MOUNTAIN TOP.

Duke of Abruzzi Describes Triumph of His Conquest of Ruwenzori. ROME, July 9.—The particulars of the ascent of Mount Ruwenzori by the Duke of Abruzzi, a cousin of King Victor Emmanuel, have reached here.

His majesty has been heard to remark that if he were not king he would be the duke's companion in his various dangerous expeditions. The king is especially proud that a prince of his house has for the first time penetrated where no human foot had ever trod before.

The king has received from his cousin telegrams giving details of the emotions upon reaching the summit. Tears filled the eyes of the leader and his companions as they unfurled the national flag on the highest peak, crying: "Long live Italy!"

They had surmounted one height after another of the glittering, snow-clad mountain. All was virgin white about them, and there was no sign of life. The stillness was intense and broken only by the cracking fall of ice from the glaciers.

Now that he has settled at Point Loma, Mr. Gage is taking a deep interest in the work of Mrs. Tingley and attending all the institute lectures. The only admission his friends will make is that the former cabinet member has given up all business and taken to spiritualism.

ST. LOUIS, July 9.—The midnight visit of a cat to her bed in a hospital in this city caused the death of Mrs. Mary Ziegler, according to physicians. The cat climbed upon the bed, clawed the woman's arm and was driven away by the nurses and doctors when aroused by the shrieks and screams of Mrs. Ziegler.

A VISION DID IT.

Ex-Secretary of Treasury Lyman J. Gage Joins Universal Brotherhood. LOS ANGELES, Cal., July 9.—Carrying out an oft-remembered intention, former Secretary of the Treasury Lyman J. Gage has cast his lot with Mrs. Katherine Tingley's Universal Brotherhood. His life and his fortune hereafter will be devoted to the spread of theosophy as taught at Point Loma.

Mr. Gage has paid $8000 for a plot of ground on the apex of Point Loma, just large enough to erect by himself a beautiful home from which he can get a perpetual view of the Pacific. Strangely enough, it is now freely stated that Mr. Gage has done all this in response to the dictates of a dream which left him no rest until he had consulted with Mrs. Tingley and sought instructions from her as to what the dream message signified.

Now that he has settled at Point Loma, Mr. Gage is taking a deep interest in the work of Mrs. Tingley and attending all the institute lectures. The only admission his friends will make is that the former cabinet member has given up all business and taken to spiritualism.

One in Every 1,200 Blind. WASHINGTON, July 9.—About one person in every 1,200 was blind and one in every 850 persons was deaf in the United States in 1900, according to a special census report on the blind and deaf in the United States in that year, just issued by the census office. The inquiry was conducted under the direction of Dr. Alexander Graham Bell.

No Yellow Jack at New Orleans. NEW ORLEANS, July 9.—Dr. J. H. White, surgeon in charge of the marine hospital service here, has issued a statement that there is no yellow fever in New Orleans and that neither he nor any of his assistants has any evidence that yellow fever now exists here.

Shot Himself on Church Steps. BIRMINGHAM, Ala., July 9.—David Simpson, secretary-treasurer of the Gregory Vinegar company of this city, shot and instantly killed himself on the church steps of St. Mary's on the Highlands. No motive has been assigned.

Weather Probabilities. Fair; southwest wind. And Yet. "Didn't that patient respond to your treatment?" asked the doctor's wife. "Not yet," replied the physician; "and I've sent him three bills!"—Casey's Journal.
