

A Suit Is Right

Or it isn't right. There is no half way about tailoring. These Rochester Clothes will fit right, and they'll wear right, because they are made right.

The beauty of it all is that they're as well tailored beneath the surface as they look on the surface.

Our $10 special is a wonder, a dozen styles to choose from, a dozen patterns of a style, a dozen reasons why you should look through our line before you buy a suit.

NET DEATH IN A MYSTERIOUS MANNER

Dead Body of an Unknown Man Found in the Lehigh Yards at This Place Last Night

Shortly before two o'clock this morning a Hungarian in the employ of the Lehigh Valley was walking along the tracks just below the freight transfer platform when he stumbled upon the body of a man lying between the tracks. The upper part of the body was saturated with blood, and the frightened Hungarian ran to the station and notified the night employees. T. B. Shaffer, the company's detective, was notified and the remains were taken to the baggage room and later to J. W. Grumme's undertaking establishment.

The body is that of a man apparently fifty years old, and it is presumed that he fell from a freight car. There is a hole in the forehead immediately above the right eye and the upper part of the face is somewhat bruised and scratched, but the remainder of the body does not show any injuries whatever. It is thought that the man was injured some time before he was found and that he bled to death. It is believed that he was injured in the early part of the evening.

The deceased was five feet, nine inches in height, wore a cropped sandy moustache, dark brown hair, and was evidently a laborer. The body weighs about 150 pounds and was dressed in corduroy pants, black coat with white, small stripe, and over the coat was a blue blouse, with a blue handkerchief tied about the neck. In the pockets of the clothing were found a lather brush, tooth brush, teaspoon, a dollar bill, and a white horn handled knife with two blades. On the handle of the knife the letters "H. F. R." had been cut, and they may lead to the man's identification.

It was at first thought that the man may have been attached to the street carnival which has been exhibiting on the Desmond street grounds for the past week. Employees of the show, however, viewed the body this forenoon but say that they do not know him.

While there is no suspicion of unlawful violence the cause of death is not easily determined. Two physicians examined the remains this morning. One of them declared that the man may have been attacked by heart disease and falling forward was bruised about the face in the manner above described. Another doctor, however, says the man might have fallen from a freight car and sustained a fracture at the base of the skull. The probabilities are, however, that the manner in which he met his death will never be known.

Undertaker Drake, who took charge of the remains, says that he has never before removed a dead body from the railroad tracks that was less bruised. There were no marks or bruises on the body whatever below the face. The clean condition of the body and clothing would indicate that the man was not a tramp.

Justice Carey was called as acting coroner and will conduct an investigation.

Today Chief Walsh telegraphed to surrounding towns but up to the hour of going to press the body has not been identified.

BUTLER'S LUNCH ROOM

Mr. and Mrs. S. Butler, who recently opened a lunch room and billiard parlor at 134 Lockhart street, are enjoying a liberal patronage. Both are thoroughly experienced restaurateurs, widely known and well liked. The front of the building is fitted as a lunch and dining room, and in the rear is the billiard room. There are two brand new Brunswick-Balke-Collender pool tables and a billiard table of the same make, and the remainder of the equipment is up to the same high standard. Gentlemen who delight in a quiet game of billiards and a good lunch will no doubt enjoy the Butler place immensely.

PERSONAL MENTION

The Rev. E. C. Petrie returned from a visit at Pompey, N. Y.

Miss Mabel Daniels of Scranton is the guest of friends and relatives in this place.

Miss Emma Haas left this noon for Allentown where she will visit friends for a time.

Charles Post of this place has been appointed Lehigh Valley station agent at Valois, N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. William Seigfried went to Easton today for a short visit with friends and relatives.

Fred Mather of Ulster was transacting business in town this forenoon, leaving for his home on No. 4.

Miss Crete Wheatley, who has been spending several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Druckenmiller, has returned to her home at Lehighton.

Mrs. E. J. Connelly left this morning for a short visit in Geneva and Seneca Falls. Mr. Connelly will join her tomorrow, returning Monday.

VALLEY CHANGES

It was announced yesterday that several changes had been ordered among the clerks and road men of the Lehigh Valley. Most of the changes are in the nature of promotions and as far as can be learned they are as follows:

Joseph Loftus of Wilkes-Barre is promoted to the position of engineer on the Black Diamond, made vacant by the death of Martin Gavin.

Wm. Baker, a veteran fireman in the Coxton yard, has been promoted to fireman on the Black Diamond, his run being between Sayre and Easton.

Eugene Smith, an engineer, has been changed to trains 21 and 38, known as the milk trains. His run will be between Wilkes Barre and Easton.

Leslie Herbert is transferred to a day position at Austin Junction. Charles Rogers, formerly night billing clerk, has been transferred to day work, billing coal exclusively.

WILD AND RICH'S PLAYERS

Monday evening, July 16, is the opening night of "Billy" Wild and his excellent company of players in Sayre. The organization will play a repertoire of high class dramas all next week, under one of the best equipped canvas theatres in the country. Performances will be given on Desmond street. The opening play is an intensely interesting comedy drama in four acts, entitled "A Runaway Tramp," in which Mr. Wild plays one of the funniest of his many funny parts. A long list of excellent specialties will be presented during the intervals between acts, including the "Marvelous Renos" in a comedy acrobatic specialty. Plays and specialties changed nightly. Prices will be 10 and 20 cents. Ladies will be admitted the first night only for 10 cents.

ENOUGH FOR EVERYONE

There will be amusement enough for everybody in Sayre the first three nights of next week. The street fair will continue the exhibitions up to and including Wednesday evening; "Billy" Wild and his repertoire company will appear all the week, and the performances at the park will take place as usual. This amount of amusement ought to be sufficient to satisfy everyone.

SOCIALIST NOMINATIONS

The Socialists held their convention at the Howard Elmer hose house last evening. They nominated Hugh McDuffee and Henry Springer for members of the legislature and H. A. Griswold for jury commissioner. Several lively discussions took place arising from an article on the proper distribution of wealth.

CUT DEEP GASH IN RIGHT FOREARM

While Repairing a Belt Fred House Suffers a Painful Injury

Fred House an employe of the new shops, met with a severe and painful accident shortly after noon today, when he cut a long, deep gash in his right arm, between the wrist and the elbow.

House repairs belts about the shops and while engaged in this occupation this afternoon he had occasion to use a sharp knife. The knife slipped and the keen blade entered the forearm, cutting a gash several inches in length and barely missing an artery. The wound bled profusely and House was hurried to the hospital. Several stitches were required to close the wound. He will be laid up for some time.

THE LAST WEEK

Commencing Monday night there will be a change of play each night at Oak Grove park. The play for Monday night will be "Master and Man" and for this night ladies' tickets have been issued for which any lady can get a regular 30c seat for 15c. Remember this: you do not have to pay a cent more after you get in to get a seat; the 15 cents paid at the door entitles any lady to the best seat in the house. The plays for the balance of the week are: Tuesday, Eagle's night, "The Gambler's Wife;" Wednesday, "Lynwood;" Thursday, "A Young Wife;" Friday, "East Lynn;" Saturday, "The Moonshiners." The usual matinee on Saturday afternoon. The great Williams Duo, who pleased the largest audiences of the season two weeks ago, have been engaged for another week.

KEEPING UP THE RECORD

Fourteen-year-old Loretta Rosengrant was married at Tunkhannock recently to Claude Ross, a lumberman, after first having obtained her father's consent. In 1900 her father sold her mother to Raymond Palmer for three dollars, and the paper which was drawn to record the transaction was the statement, "and to throw in the little girl." Loretta was the little girl. She met Rosengrant in the lumbering district of Wyoming.

ROBBED FREIGHT CAR

Bert Serfass, William Serfass, Claude Flick and John Ersang were arrested yesterday by Officers Haines and Kannapel of the Lehigh detective force. The prisoners were taken before a justice of the peace at Mauch Chunk and held for a hearing on the charge of robbing a freight car. The robbery is alleged to have been committed at Lehighton where a car was broken open and a quantity of tobacco was taken.

TENDER'S RESIGNATION

Charles E. Courtney has tendered his resignation as coach of the Cornell crews. Mr. Courtney has been the coach at Cornell for twenty-five years, and he desires to be released on account of the continual annoyance to which the Cornell athletic management has subjected him. He has been receiving recently a yearly salary of $2,500 and thinks he is underpaid. Courtney is now 56 years old, but says that he still has before him many years of usefulness.

HOSPITAL NOTES

W. E. Keeney, of Waverly, and Mrs. James G. McCleary, of Hallstead, were discharged this afternoon.

Miss Mary Hamilton, of Sayre, underwent an operation.

Mrs. William A. Herrington, of Laquin, was admitted today.
