"YOU HAVE BROKEN MY HEART."

Mother of Harry K. Thaw Visits Her Son in the Tombs.

NEW YORK, July 17.—"Harry, Harry, you have broken my heart!" Uttering these words of convulsive sobs shook her frame. Mrs. Mary Thaw, mother of Harry Kendall Thaw, at first sight of her son wrapped her arms around his neck in one quick gesture and covered his face with kisses. Young Thaw, with his arms around his mother, began to weep, and Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw, who was standing a few feet away, also began to cry hysterically.

The prison keepers who witnessed the meeting turned brusquely away and with trembling lips and dimpled eyes walked to the end of the corridor, where after a few moments of mastery they returned.

Evelyn Nesbit Thaw was conversing with her husband when Mrs. Thaw, accompanied by her son, Josiah C., reached the second tier of the prison where the young Pittsburgher is confined. Smith, the keeper, when he reached the cell, opened the door for the purpose of getting a bench for the aged woman to sit upon outside the cell while talking to her son behind the bars.

But as soon as the door was opened young Thaw as quick as a flash stepped into the corridor, and mother and son were soon locked in each other's embrace. Smith gently but firmly separated the prisoner from his mother and Thaw stepped back into the cell. The door closed shut and, drawing the bench up as close to the bars as she could, Mrs. Thaw sat down and began to talk to Harry.

She fondled his hands as she spoke, and every now and then her lips touched him through the iron grating. Tears streamed from her eyes, but no sound of crying came from her lips.

"Immediately following her first interview with her son, Harry K. Thaw, in the Tombs since her return from Europe on Saturday, Mrs. William Thaw assumed full charge of the defense and arranged to retain the services as counsel of the firm of Black, Oloft, Gruber & Bonynge, who were dismissed by young Thaw a few days ago. This action is taken to mean that Harry Thaw's desires and opinions regarding the defense will be ignored and that reliance will be placed on the plea of insanity.

Salisbury Jury Blamed Railroad.

SALISBURY, England, July 17.—The coroner's inquest into the cause of the wreck of the Plymouth steamer express July 1, whereby twenty-seven lives were lost, resulted in a verdict that the derailment of the train was due to the high speed at which it was running and which was contrary to the company's orders. In a rider to the verdict it is declared that drivers of trains not stopping at Salisbury should have their attention drawn to the regulations, which was not done in this case. The jury declined to allow the verdict to be recorded as one of accidental death, saying they considered that a certain amount of blame attached to the company as well as to the engine driver.

Looking Too Respectful.

"Here, my good man," said the kind-hearted woman, "is my husband's old overcoat. You will find it good and warm." "Thank you, ma'am, very much, but I couldn't think of it," replied the wary wayfarer. "I'd sook so comfortable in it that it would ruin me business."—Philadelphia Record.

LOEB IS POSITIVE.

Roosevelt's Secretary Says He Will Not Run Again.

NEW YORK, July 16.—John Sharp Williams, minority leader of the House, and Congressman T. E. Burton stated on the American line steamship St. Paul. They are going abroad to attend the interparliamentary congress, which will open in London on July 23.

Mr. Williams said he thought President Roosevelt would consent to run again and pointed out some of the shortcomings of the Republican party.

"I rather think that President Roosevelt will be forced to run again," said Mr. Williams. "I think the president is planning it so that he will be forced to make the running. The president rather reminds me of the old lady of Saratoga, who hung about asking when the gentlemen were going to begin the kissing, as she wanted to be there."

Some one told Mr. Williams that there had been a report in circulation that he had refused to serve on the Bryan reception committee. On hearing this he became indignant.

"I never refused to go on the reception committee," he said. Then he added, "Bryan is the logical candidate of the Democratic party."

Concerning the Republican party Mr. Williams said:

"The Republican party has fallen behind the mark. Profuse in promises, it has not lived up to what it promised. For one thing the party refused to go into the question of tariff revision, as was promised. There is a feeling of unrest throughout this country, and it is growing. Now, a feeling of unrest always acts to the disadvantage of the party in power."

A dispatch from Oyster Bay says that when the interview with John Sharp Williams was shown to Mr. Loeb, secretary to the president, Mr. Loeb said:

"The president meant exactly what he said on the night of his election—that he would not be a candidate again for the office. That statement is irrevocable."

Beautiful Lake Keuka

Keuka is justly entitled to the reputation it bears, that of being the most beautiful lake in New York state. Its shores are lined with countless cozy cottages. Those who are unable to secure cottages, find excellent accommodations at the several large hotels at Groves Springs, Keuka and Gibbasco. If you enjoy fishing, no other place offers greater attraction, the lake having been annually stocked for several years with various species of trout, black bass, pike and pickerel from the State Fish Hatchery, located but five miles from Hammondsport at the head of the lake. The season is now open and excellent catches are daily reported. Keuka Lake is reached via Erie Railroad, whose agents will gladly furnish information regarding trains, rates, etc. A beautiful illustrated booklet will be mailed on application to L. H. Webster, Div. Pass. Agt., Elmira, N. Y. 38-dly-8-1
