The daily budget of revolutionary outrages and agrarian disorders is larger than usual. In many places the peasants are wantonly applying the torch to estates belonging to the crown and to private forests.

At Natshatkino, in Simbirsk province, the town hall was set on fire, and the entire village, consisting of 800 uses, was consumed. Throughout Poland systematic pillag-

esident and Party In Camp Take

OYSTER BAY, N. Y., July 18.- Presi dent Roosevelt camped on the shores of Cold Spring harbor during the night With him were his sons Quentin and Archie, their cousins Philip and George, sons of W. Emien Roosevelt; Dr. Alexander Lambert of New York, the president's personal physician, and Lieuten-ant Bulmer, commander of the yacht Sylph.

The camp was pitched on Enton' Neck, which in the fall season during past years has always been the scene campfire stories.

Plenty of time was taken in locating and pitching camp. The beach was and sleep time came the party rolled up shore and overturned, sailor-like. When the rain came the boys were the first to wake. They burriedly beat a retreat to the overturued boats, where they remained during the storm. The president, Dr. Lambert and Lieutenant Bulmer had no shelter and simply rolled tighter in their blankets and took the wetting.

When the rain ceased sleep was again in order, and it was not until the morning sun was beginning its hottest rec-ord that Sagamore Hill was reached on the return.

President Roosevelt later did some good hard farming. He pitched and mowed a load of hay, just in time to save it from a terrific thunderstorm which swept Long island.

ACQUITTED OF MARCUM MURDER

Judge Hargis and Sheriff Callahan Not In Kentucky Murder Plot. BEATTYVILLE, Ky., July 17 .- The jury in the Hargis-Callahan trial returned a verdict of not guilty after being out twenty-two minutes. The case was one of the most stubbornly contest. ed a Kentucky court has had for years. The men were charged with the murder of James B. Marcum. Maroum was a Republican and was a lawyer of excellent standing. He was engaged three years ago as an attorney against James Hargis and Edward Callahan, respectively Democratc county judge and sheriff, to oust them from their offices on an allega-tion of corrupt election. Much bitterness was aroused, and frequent open ruptures occurred. In May, 1903, Marcum was shot in the back and killed in the Jackson courthouse. Curtis Jett and Tom White were convicted and given life terms for the murder. It was charged that they were the tools of Callahan, Hargis and others. Jett after his con-viction confessed that he shot Marcum and that his act was inspired by Callahan and Hargis. On the witness stand, however, he repudiated the confession and said he alone was respon-sible. The acquittal followed largely on this repudiation. A jury of Clark county citizens re urned a verdict for $8,000 damages a year ago against Hargis on the allegation that he had caused Marcum to be killed. The suit was filed by Mrs. Marcum. Hargis and Calishan are yet to be tried in the Lexington court for the killing of James Cockrill under similar circumstances.

What actually happened to them has never been definitely established, but the most credited story is that the three men were shooting at a deer when the members of a tribe of Es-kimos approached and, hearing the firing, mistook it for a hostile demonstration, shot Andree and his companions with arrows and, after felling them, cut them to pieces with axes. Liberal rewards offered by the king of Sweden for genuine relics of the explorers have not entirely solved the
