WEDNESDAY, JULY 18, 1906.

FOR ONE OF THE MAIDS.

Mrs. Hartje's Sister Lets In Some Light on Mating Letters.

PITTSBURGH, July 18.—Not the least important development in the Hartje divorce case was the outline of the defense that was disclosed by the testimony of Miss Ida Scott, the sixteen-year-old sister of Mrs. Mary Scott Hartje, who was put on the stand a few minutes before adjournment.

From her testimony was gathered for the first time what plan for accounting for the disputed love letters will be followed by Mrs. Hartje's attorneys.

That she had written two or three envelopes addressed to Tom Madine, the coachman correspondent, at the request of Annie Letz, one of the maids, and that she also had given Annie sheets of her paper were among the significant statements she made.

Thus the presence of the single envelope among all the love letters presented by counsel for the libellant will be explained. The charge of forgery made by counsel for the respondent will be re-enforced by accounting for the presence in the disputed letters of the paper used by the Scott girls in the manner indicated by Ida's testimony that she gave it to the maid.

Her sister Helen also often gave sheets of her paper to the servants, she testified.

Counsel for the respondent thus think they have accounted for the only envelope submitted by the other side.

Mrs. Hartje's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John F. Scott, were witnesses during the day. Mrs. Scott testified that it would have been impossible for her daughter to have done the things with which she has been accused by Augustus Hartje since their separation because she watched the daughter too closely. She declares the forty famous love letters in the case are not in her daughter's handwriting.

The mother's testimony concerning the Susie Wagner letter, known as exhibit No. 6, was sensational. Mrs. Scott declared that she had seen the Susie Wagner letter before it was mailed and that there were statements in the original letter that were not in the alleged Wagner letter that was exhibited in court and that the letter produced in court contained some statements that were not in the original and real Wagner letter. This letter was one of the "standards" in the case until Mrs. Hartje denied writing the copy that had been shown her and declared she had been deceived.

TO BE MARRIED. Perhaps men are as deceitful as women in some things, but they never attempt to transform a yawn into a smile.
