VIBORG, Finland, July 24.-Follow ing after a fashlon the example of the members of the French states general who, after being barred out from their meeting place by Louis XVL, marched to the since famous tennis court and held a session there, 200 members of Russia's now outlawed parliament hurried in scattered groups to this city and held an extraordinary sesslop of parliament.

The Radicals carried the day, and in the last hours of the meeting a proclaing a protest against the illegal disso lution of the parliament and an appeal to the people to refuse to pay taxes or seruit the army or to recognize the issue of a government loan.

The fellowing is the text of the parliamentary manifesto issued by resolu-tion of the assembled body:

"Citizens of All Russia-Parliament has been dissolved by ukase of July 21. You elected us as your representatives and instructed us to fight for our country and freedom. In execution of your nstructions and our duty we drew up laws in order to insure freedom to the

"We demanded the removal of irre le ministers who were infringing the laws with impunity and op-pressing freedom. First of all, how-ever, we wanted to bring out a law respecting the distribution of land to working peasants and involving the as-signment to this end of erown ap-panages, monasteries and lands belonging to the clergy and compulsory ax-propriation of private estates. The government held such a law to be inadmissible, and upon parliament once more urgently putting forward its res-slution regarding compulsory exprepri-ation parliament was dissolved.

"The government promises to convoke a new parliament seven months sence. Russia must remain without popular representation for seven whole months at a time when the people are standing on the brink of ruin and industry and commerce are undermined, when the whole country is seething with unrest and when the ministry has definitely shown its incapacity to do justice to popular needs. For seven ionths the government will act arbitrarily and will fight against the popular movement in order to obtain a pliable, subservient parliament. Should it succeed, however, in completely suppressing the popular movement the

FEAR MASSACRES.

Provisional Government of Autocrata to Be Formed at St. Petersburg.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 24.-A few days may witness the constitution of a "provisional government," composed of an enlarged council of ministers, with the inclusion of conservative mem-bers of the dispersed lower house of parliament, councilors of the empire empire who can be induced to accept ministries without portfolios and contribute their authority and advice to the hard pressed government.

This is the solution to which Premier Stolypin and the members of his cabinet, who realize the enormous nature of the task of tiding over the country during the tempestuous era that is now dawning, are turning. Meanwhile the masses of the Russian people, slow of thought and action, have not yet roused themselves to the gigantic upheaval which is sure to follow the dissolution of their parliament. Minor disorders are reported from half a dozen cities. A Warsaw report says that a band of mutinous artillerymen from the fortress at Brest-Litovsk fired on the Officers' club, where there were many officers gathered. The officers exchanged shots with the mutineers, and two of the former were killed. The mutineers finally were surrounded by infantrymen and arrested.

A special from Odessa says that the Jews there are in a state of panic, fearing an anti-Jewish outbreak as the result of the killing of a drunken Cos sack who recently wandered through the Jewish quarter brandishing his saber and shouting, "Death to the Jews!" Governor General Kaulbars, address ng a deputation of Jews, said:

"I wouch for my soldiers, but I am unable to say what the Cossacks or Christian civilians might do." It is feared that Russia is on the eve of new massacres of Jews, which have been fixed for July 28, the anniversary of Russia's conversion to Christianity. St. Petersburg, Moscow and most of the other great centers are still calm on the surface, though boiling and seething beneath.
