even was his tail, it having been amputated years ago. This fortune makes Bill a prisoner for life. It struck him much the same as wealth is dealing with John D. Rockefeller at present.

Blanche's Love Affair

Seymour Chaplain was the son of one of the wealthiest and aristocratic merchants of Philadelphia. He was not particularly bright, so his father determined to send him to college.

'Don't despair,' he said. 'The course of true love never did run smooth. As soon as we are married we will surprise the old gentleman and ask his forgiveness.'

'Yes, sir,' replied Blanche, demurely. 'I will probably have something to say about that. I will be candid with you, Seymour will never marry you.'

'I have my son's diamond ring on your finger now. It is an heirloom. I will give you $10,000 for it. It is only worth $2,000, but I'll give you five times its worth, provided you relinquish your rights on my son.'

'I have my son's diamond ring on your finger now. It is an heirloom. I will give you $10,000 for it. It is only worth $2,000, but I'll give you five times its worth, provided you relinquish your rights on my son.'

LOOMIS TO OPEN AUGUST 11

Waverly—The Loomis opera house will be opened Saturday evening, August 11, with the Kirk Brown repertoire company. This company which delighted a large audience here last year in "Shannon of the Ninth," will remain all the following week.

ITALIAN ASSAULTED

Waverly—An inoffensive Italian was assaulted Saturday night just across the tracks and if his assailants are captured they will be given a severe sentence. The police cared for the man. His face was badly mutilated and it is said he was hit with a paving brick.

TIOGAS WON PRIZE

Waverly—The members of Tioga hose company and their friends are delighted at the announcement that they were awarded the handsome mirror presented by the Eureka hose company of Ithaca to the best marching company in the parade last Thursday. The boys all give the credit to W. H. Jones, who drilled them for the occasion.

HARDING REUNION

Waverly—The second reunion of Harding families was held Saturday on the Amos Harding farm about four miles north of Ellistown. By reason of early associations and intermarriages at the time this section was developed the Brink and Sliter families were represented. Though the second meeting this was the first time the gathering took on the form of organization, and regular officers were elected as follows: President, Rev. S. T. Harding; Vice President, H. T. Harding; Secretary, W. A. Brink; Treasurer, G. A. Harding; Annalist, Mrs. U. E. Harding. This family came to this county in the early part of the 18th century. Only two of the five branches of the family were in attendance. Field sports were indulged in and everybody took part in the fun. The success of the reunion and its permanent organization is due to the efforts of the Rev. S. Harding of Whitney's Point. Several impromptu speeches were made, after which the Rev. Harding gave an interesting talk along historical lines, and he showed that he had been successful in tracing the "family tree" back to the middle of the 17th century. The next reunion will be held at Swartwood on the Susquehanna.

OAK GROVE AMUSEMENT

The first week's engagement of the Bennett Moulton company came successfully to a close Saturday night with one of the largest audiences of the season. The play, "The Outcasts of Society," proved a popular one, and everybody returned home thoroughly satisfied. This company numbers some very clever people among its members, and the class of plays given thus far has been above the average and has required ability and knowledge of stagecraft to produce them.

The dramatic bill of fare for this week promises much. The week will open tonight with a production of the four act melodrama "Shipwrecked," a dramatization of Chas. Reade's famous novel "Foul Play."

Beautiful Lake Keuka

Keuka is justly entitled to the reputation it bears, that of being the most beautiful lake in New York state. Its shores are lined with countless cozy cottages. Those who are unable to secure cottages, find excellent accommodations at the general large hotels at Grove Springs, Keuka and Otsego. If you enjoy fishing, no other place offers greater attraction, the lake having been annually stocked for several years with various species of trout, black bass, pike and pickerel from the State Fish Hatchery located but five miles from Hammondport at the head of the lake. The season is now open and excellent catches are daily reported. Keuka Lake is reached via Erie Railroad, whose agents will gladly furnish information regarding fares, rates, etc. A beautiful illustrated booklet will be mailed on application to J. H. Webster, Div. Pass. Agt., Elmira, N. Y. 35-dly-8-1
