"For the reason," she said, "that he is not a proper person for his son to associate with. He has no home, and his associates are not fit companions for a young man of Allan's age. I do not think any New York man is fit to have charge of a boy of his age." "Do you mean all New York men, Miss Corey ?' continued the attorney. "I mean wealthy New York men."

Allan Corey, the young son, stated that at the time of the parting his father called him to his office and told him that he had decided to part from his mother. "He said I was too young to understand the reasons. He then said that my mother was a good woman and that my place was at her alde."

At the conclusion of the trial Attor ney Bardis Summerfield of Reno stated his client, William E. Corey, who was not present, was as anxious for the-decree of divorce as his wife. "If the decree is granted," he said, "Mr. Corey will be entirely satisfied. He has consented to this divorce."

Not a Chicago Pork Packer,

BERLIN, July $1.-Allison V. Armour, N. Y. Y. C., has authorized a denial of the oft repeated report that Emperor William has purchased his auxillary schooner yacht Utowana. Mr. Armour is usually described in Ger-many as a milliousire pork packer. He cated. has been written up a good deal re-cently in connection with the anti-American meat agitation here, in spite of the fact that he is not related to the Chicago family of Armours.
