EIGHT JUMPED INTO THE SEA.

Motor Boat Stranded and Took Fire Near Great Chebengue Island. PORTLAND, Me., July 31.-Definite formation of the narrow escape of drowning of three young men and five young women, residents of Great Che beague Island, and the destruction by fire of a motor boat from which they port today, were obliged to jump into the bay has been received here. The party, consisting of Cyrus Calder, owner of the launch; Augustus Ricker, George Anderson, Carrie E. Morse, Mary Ross and Ethel, Marie and Cyuthis Hattleld, became stranded late Saturday night on a submerged ledge, pensburg normal. A lantern on the boat was overturned and set fire to the gasotine which furnished the motive power. So quickly did the flames spread that all were forced to jump overboard. The morrow evening, consisting of men and three of the girls were able to swim. They assisted the other two girls, who sank beneath the surface once or twice, and all finally reached Rogue Island, about 300 feet distance an exhausted condition. Their shouts for help were heard at Great Chebeague, and they were soon taken
