TO FIGHT SAGE WILL

Nophew of Late Financier to Contest

Estate Settlement. TROY, N. Y. Aug 1 - James H. Sage. a nephew of the late Russell Sage, is contested. He made the following Baptist parsonage. statement:

"I have made up my mind to get that to which, as a blood relative of Russell Sage, I am entitled, and if I don't get it it will be because there is no legal way of doing so. There is no truth in the report that a test case will be instituted by one of the heirs and August 25. that in case of failure the remaining beirs will make up the loss which would necessarily ensue in accordance

MRS. RUSSELL SAGE with that clause of the will which directs that in case of contest the party concerned shall forfeit his or her bequest. Such a course would be illegal, and there is no desire on the part of any of the heirs to gain anything by

"I am of the opinion that during Rus sell Sage's last few years there was undue influence brought to bear upon him, which caused him to leave the bulk of his fortune to his wife. If Russell had left any children and the money had been bequeathed to them none of the heirs would have even thought of getting more than the $25,000, but as it is I for one shall make an attempt to get what I ought to have, and I den't intend to be beaten out of it either. I do not know what the other heirs intend doing nor do I care." That Mrs, Russell Sage has $10,000, 000 at her command now and that she will distribute it to charity in the near future, as soon as Miss Helen Gould, her friend and co-worker in many benevolent enterprises, returns from Europe, was announced by a friend of
