necessary for him to remain at worked for the Valley Telephone Co. for some time past, has resigned and gone to Schnectady phone Co.

ARRESTED LAST NIGHT

was arrested last evening by Officer DeGross. He came into the station in an intoxicated condition and did not want to leave, and the officer solved the difficulty by locking him up.

HORSE INJURED BY TROLLEY CAR

Occupants of Wagon Escaped But It Was Necessary to Shoot the Horse

A trolley car in charge of John Snediker, motorman, and Charles Ward, conductor, struck a horse on North Elmer avenue last evening at about 9 o'clock and injured it so badly that it was necessary to shoot the animal to relieve it from its misery.

The horse was the property of Michael Boyle and he, together with Mortimer Moe, were driving west on Stevenson street. There is a slight grade in the street at this point and the horse was moving along at a fairly swift gait and ran out across the street car track just as the car which was running south crossed Stevenson street. Mr. Moe saw that they would be struck by the car and pulled the horse up sharply, so that the occupants of the wagon escaped, but not soon enough to save the horse, which was struck squarely. The right fore leg was twice broken and a deep gash was cut in the right hip.

Officer Vogel was sent for to shoot the horse but he did not appear, and Dr. H. S. Fish and Chas.
Haupt, hearing of the accident, went up and shot the animal.

Dr. Fish had a heavy revolver with only two loads in, but as they did not prove sufficient to give the horse its quietus, Mr. Haupt shot it a third time in the ear with a 22-calibre revolver. The light report of the small gun attracted the attention of a small boy who exclaimed "What yer doin', usin' a cap pistol?" Later when a strap was fastened to the dead animal's leg, and it broke in an attempt to drag the body out of the road, the same urchin said, "you can't pull that horse's leg." The wagon was undamaged, except for a broken thrill. Mr. Boyle stated that his back was severely injured by the impact. This is the second mixup that he has had with a street car.

Last year his wagon was struck on Chemung street and he was thrown out, injuring his spine and causing partial paralysis from which he recovered.

SEVENTH ANNIVERSARY

Last evening Mr. and Mrs.
George Loop went to Athens.
After they had been there some time they received a telephone message that there was a suspicious looking crowd about the house whose intention could not be definitely ascertained, and that they had better return home as speedily as possible and investigate. They acted on the advice and upon reaching the house found a large number of their friends there, and were informed that this was the seventh anniversary of their marriage, a fact that had not occurred to them. The guests had brought refreshments with them, and the evening was passed very pleasantly.

"DORA THORNE" TONIGHT

Bad weather could not keep people away from the park last evening where they turned out in large number to witness the second performance of "A Daughter of the People." Tonight the company will appear in a dramatization of Bertha M. Clay's popular book "Dora Thorne." Almost every woman has read this work and will desire to see it in dramatic form.
A matinee will be given for the children Saturday at 2:30.

GOODLY SUM BEING RAISED

D. Clary raised over $40 yesterday among the business men toward the sum which will be given to the firemen for the purpose of defraying the expenses of the convention to be held here by the valley firemen's association. Others have also raised various amounts, and it now looks as if the financial difficulty would be avoided.

DEMENTED MAN ARRESTED

Chief Walsh found a man up a pole at the corner of Lockhart street and Elmer avenue at three o'clock today. He was yelling at the wires and talking at a great rate. He had a double bitted axe and said he had been sent here by a man in Syracuse and that he was to mark all the cross arms on the poles up as far as the power house. He also wanted N. F.
Walker to help him count all the house-in town. He said his name was James McDonald and that he lived in New-found land. He said he had a friend named DeLaney who run a saloon in Athens. He was evidently demented.

VISITS SAYRE AFTER TWENTY-ONE YEARS

Dr. M. E. Anderson of Buffalo, the first practicing physician to locate in Sayre, is in town after an absence of twenty-one years. Dr.
Anderson came to Sayre in 1885, when there were only 400 people in this place, and practiced here until 1885, when he went to Buffalo. He has not been in Sayre since that time, and was surprised at the growth of the town. He is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hayden.

HURST---STEVENS

Joseph H. Hurst of Camptown, and Miss Ruic M. Stevens of Stevensville were married at the home of the bride's parents on Wednesday afternoon of this week. The ceremony was performed out of doors in a shady grove. The groom is very well known in this end of the county, having at one time been principal of the South Waverly borough schools. He has secured a similar position at Slatington.

TAX COLLECTOR IS AFTER DELINQUENTS

Went to Towanda Yesterday and Made One Settle

Tax Collector Plumstead is living up to his record as a gatherer of taxes and is still in pursuit of the delinquent, making him pay up or go to jail. One Sayre citizen named Wallace Sedden has failed to pay his taxes for two years and had disappeared from Sayre. Mr.
Plumstead heard that he was in Towanda, and yesterday he journeyed down to the county seat in search of him. Enlisting the services of Guy C. Hollon, they went to the place where Sedden worked, but he had not been on the job for a week. The delinquent was at last found at the house where he lived, and was sleeping. He was aroused and when informed of the mission of the collector he said that he had no money. His wife also claimed to be financially embarrassed, but when told that he would have to go to jail if he did not settle, he immediately produced a five dollar bill, out of which the tax, together with costs, amounting to $4.96, was taken.
Mr. Plumstead then returned home and is ready to go after the next delinquent who does not pay.

LEHIGH STATION MASTER RESIGNS

for the Past Five Years.

Robert E. DeGross, station master for the Lehigh, has resigned and the resignation goes into effect tomorrow.

Mr. DeGross has been employed about the station for nearly 14 years. He worked for 4 months as transfer clerk and was then made assistant baggage master.
Four months later he was given the position of baggage master, which place he held for over eight years, when he was made station master in 1901, and worked in that capacity until the present time.

He will go to work in the machine shop. His successor has not yet been appointed, but the work will be done temporarily by Raymond Wolcott.

MARY E. POLLEY

Mrs. Mary E. Polley died at 7:30 a. m. today at the Robert Packer hospital. She was operated on July 20 for appendicitis, and appeared to be recovering, but was attacked by incessant vomiting which resulted in her death. Deceased was born at Orwell, Pa., where her family still resides. She was 29 years of age and had been a nurse at the hospital for nearly two years, having only about five more months to serve in the training class. She had become very well known during her sojourn in Sayre, was very popular in social circles, and leaves many friends who sympathize with the bereaved family. A cousin, Mrs.
J. B. Kinney, resides at Sayre.
