Keuka is justly entitled to the reputation it bears, that of being the most beautiful lake in New York state. Its shores are lined with countless cozy cottages. Those who are unable to see the lake, find excellent accommodations at the several large hotels at Grove Springs, Keuka and Gibsons. If you enjoy fishing, no other place offers greater attraction, the lake having been annually stocked for several years with various species of trout, black bass, pike and pickerel from the State Fish Hatchery, located but five miles from Hammondport at the head of the lake. The season is now open and excellent catches are daily reported. Keuka Lake is reached via Erie Railroad, whose agents will gladly furnish information regarding trains, rates, etc. A beautiful illustrated booklet will be mailed on application to J. H. Webster, Div. Pass. Agt., Elmira, N. Y. 33-4ly-3-1

COUNTY CONVENTION VERY HARMONIOUS

Byram L. Winters Nominated for Assembly—Dr. L. S. Betowski for Coroner

Waverly—The Waverly delegates to the Republican county convention at Owego yesterday were very much in it and returned last evening jubilant over the result.

Seward Baldwin was unanimously chosen chairman and accepted the honor with a brief speech, and presided over the deliberations in a thoroughly business like manner. G. D. Genung was one of the secretaries.

Attorney F. E. Hawkes made the nominating speech for Hon. Byram L. Winters for the Assembly, and Dr. William E. Johnson followed with a speech seconding the nomination, which was carried unanimously amid hearty applause from the delegates.

President of the Village Lawrence nominated Dr. Leon S. Betowski for coroner and the nomination was carried without opposition. The many friends of the hustling young doctor are extending congratulations today.

The Waverly men who were elected to the state convention are Hon. B. L. Winters and Seward Baldwin, with G. D. Genung alternate in case Senator T. C. Platt cannot go. To the congressional convention, O. H. Lawrence, B. L. Winters, C. O. Hoagland and F. E. Hawkes. Senatorial convention, W. C. Farley and B. L. Winters.

Mr. Winters introduced a resolution which provided that each election district should have a representative on the county committee to take effect at the next county convention. After some discussion, Mr. Winters withdrew his resolution as he merely wished to get it before the convention to think over until next year.

GOES TO TOWANDA

Waverly—George C. McKenzie, who has been representative of the Binghamton Press for the past two years, for Waverly, Sayre and Athens, concludes his labors here today. He has been elected secretary of the Towanda Printing company, and will assume his new duties on Monday. The company publishes the Towanda Daily Review and a weekly called the Reporter Journal, and his work will be along the same line as at present. Mr. McKenzie has made many friends during his stay here, both in a business and social way, who will regret his departure. He is a newspaper man of ability and will doubtless make a success in his new field of labors.
