A little ray of light from the street lamp touched the face of the pretty girl in white, but the young man sat In utter darkness. So far as he was concerned it was an outer darkness also. Still, he had made up his mind for the dozenth time to speak up and end his suspense. The previous 11 times his courage had failed at the critical moments.

"It's mighty comfortable here the porch," he began. "Do you think so?" asked the girl vaguely. "It certainly is," said the young man, leaning forward. "I-I don't suppose it's just the porch and the flowers, either, that makes it so nice. The Valley Record I know I shouldn't enjoy it is the least if some one clsq-if you-if you veren't sitting opposite me!"

The girl laughed protestingly. You just imagine that," she said. 'Are you entered in the golf tournament Saturday?"

"No yes that is I didn't know there was to be a golf tournament, said the young man, determinedly brushing the information aside as not bearing on the subject. "Say, Eliz-

VIOLATED EXCISE LAW

Waverly-District Attorney Steohen S. Wallis, of Owego, came to Waverly Saturday and accompanied by Chief of Police Brooks went to the Loder street saloon and arrested the proprietor, Walter Bishop, on the charge of violating the excise law. Mr. Bishop was arrested early last week on the charge of keeping a disorderly house, plead guilty and paid a fine of $25. He was arraigned at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon and Justice Hoagland placed him under $500 bond pending a hearing Tuesday at 10 a.m. Eugene Thompson and his wife, Mary Thompson, qualified as his bondsmen, and Edward Bogner, agent for Briggs' Brewing Company, deposited a check for $500 with the justice as surety for his appearance.

Waverly-When Charles Quick of this place, was released from the Owego jail Saturday, having just completed a sentence of ten days for intoxication, he was immediately rearrested by Officer McHenry on the serious charge of grand larceny. He was brought Henry T. Laine and wife are vis- to Waverly and arraigned before Justice Hoagland. He waived examination and was taken to Dr. and Mrs. Charles Annabel Owego to await the action of the grand jury. Previous to his arrest he spent money freely and the police were suspicious, as he was known to be out of work During his enforced visit to Owego, Officers Gridley and Corcoran were not idle and finally discovered that the Central House bar room in the east ward had been robbed of about $40 July 24th, and a man W. H. Freedman, Esq, of New was found who alleged that he had seen Quick behind the bar counting money on that day, and Mr. and Mrs. Eighmey of Sayre later saw him hurrying out of the took an Erie train for Bradford, Pa, rear door. HOUSEBOAT TRIP

Athens-Mr. and Mrs James Herbert of Sayre, and Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Salus started down the river in a houseboat from Athens yesterday. The boat was built by Eugene McDaniels and named 'Marietta" of Athens in honor of Mrs. Joseph McDaniels. It was equipped with all of the conveniences of housekeeping and presented a very neat appearance. The party will make a stop at Tunkhannock where they will visit triends a short time and then they will resume their voyage as far as Wilkes-Barre. Joseph McDaniels went as far as Milan to pilot them through the dangerous rapids, and states that they are having a pleasant voyage.
