TOWN HALL PICTURE CAME THIS MORNING

Shows up Very Well and Will Be a Great and Much Needed Improvement

The drawing of the proposed new town hall came today and will be examined this evening by the councilmen at the regular monthly meeting. It presents a very pleasing appearance. The west side of the building on the first floor has a place for storing fire apparatus, while the east side has three rooms. The front room is the police court room, next back is a larger room for the council meetings, and the borough clerk's room is back of that.

The second floor contains accommodations for the fire companies and an office for the burgess. The third floor will be fitted up as a hall for public meetings and other public purposes.

The basement will contain the steel cages and be used as a lock-up.

The building is 46 by 90 feet and has a French mansard roof. It will be nearly as high as the Wilbur House, and is equipped with a hose tower on the rear.

The plans and specifications have not yet arrived but are expected in a few days. So far as can be determined from the drawing the hall is very neat, shows up well, and will be a great improvement to the town. It is the wish of the committee in charge to have the building enclosed before the cold weather sets in.

OAK GROVE PARK

The Bennett-Moulton Company will bid good bye to park patrons this week with three excellent productions of three very good plays. "The Cowboy's Romance," to be produced tonight, tells a pretty story of life in the west, and instead of being full of "blood and thunder," as all western dramas are, will be found to be full of lovable character whose actions are bound only by the life they represent. The four acts of the play team with rattling good comedy situations, with touches of pathos throughout. "The Cowboy's Romance" will be followed by "Jekyll & Hyde" for two nights. Mr. Tidmarsh in the title role, has excited much favorable comment. The company's engagement will close with a fine scenic and electrical production of "Faust". The management has gone to much expense on this production and guarantee that it will merit the large attendance which should be bestowed.

VALIANT CREW RETURNS

The crew of the Admiral Togo returned to Sayre yesterday after a trip of two weeks down the river, and now peace again reigns along the banks and upon the placid bosom of the Susquehanna. Strange and weird stories keep coming back from the regions traversed by the house boat. It is said that the older inhabitants at times sprang out of their beds at midnight, thinking that the long dead warriors of the five nations had been resurrected and were again carrying on the work of slaughter and plunder that marked the days of Wyoming and made the North Branch a noted place historically.

COUNCIL MEETING

The borough council will meet tonight. It is expected that a new sewer ordinance will be passed, changing the denomination of the bonds and making a different provision for payment than was provided in the first ordinance.

REPAIR CONTRACT AWARDED

The contract for fixing the bridge over the Chemung river has been awarded to Louis Pjollot. The last abutment has crowded in, causing the stays on the bridge to buckle somewhat.

THIS TEAM TRIED TO CLIMB CHERRY TREE

Bent It Down and Drew Wagon Over It, Elevating and Upsetting the Wagon

M. W. Taylor has a fine team and on last Saturday afternoon he started out for a drive. In driving down Desmond street the team became frightened and ran down the road for a short distance, turned into a yard. They encountered a cherry tree, bending it down, and before they were stopped had drawn the wagon over the tree. The wagon was not heavy enough to bend the tree down as the horses had done, and it began to slowly spring back to an upright position, carrying the wagon with it. After the wagon had been lifted for some distance it began to gradually turn over, finally upsetting. Mr. Taylor was thrown out but not seriously injured. He got up immediately and the team was taken back and placed in the barn. The cherry tree was badly barked and scratched, but has been bandaged very thoroughly in the hope of saving it. It seems that the tree was the only thing that was damaged to any appreciable extent.

TOWANDA REVIEW CHANGES HANDS

E. B. McKee Has Sold His Interest—Published the Daily Review Since 1885—Will Go to a Larger Field

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Towanda Printing company was held Saturday afternoon, at which time this board of directors was chosen: D. M. Turner, Jos. A. Doane, William Little, S. F. Robinson, J. C. Ingham, C. H. Turner, H. M. Turner. The board organized by the election of these officers: President, D. M. Turner; vice-president, S. F. Robinson; secretary, William Little; treasurer, Jos. A. Doane; business manager, E. B. McKee.

Elmer B. McKee, since 1885 the publisher of The Daily Review, and since the organization of the Towanda Printing company three years ago its treasurer and business manager, has sold his interest in the company with the expectation of continuing the newspaper business in a larger field his stock being transferred to D. Turner, William Little, S. F. Robinson and others. He will remain, however, with the company as its business manager for some time yet.—Towanda Daily Review.

Just Think Of It

We have the reputation of sending the LARGEST PLUMBING BILLS of any firm in the valley. Awful, isn't it?

A number of our all-well-pleased customers have explained it this way: "We gave you a small job that required immediate attention and you attended to that so promptly, and did your work so well that we decided to have a lot of other work attended to at the same time."

We please others, and we know that we can please you if you'll give us a chance.
