BANK IN BAD SHAPE

Chicago Failure Follows Irregularities of Years.

SAFETY VAULTS TAMPERED WITH

Depositors Say Funds Have Been Taken From Deposit Boxes-Vice President Arrested-Hope of Settlement.

CHICAGO, Aug. 8.—Theodore Stens-land, vice president of the Milwaukee Avenue State bank, was arrested on a charge of violating the banking laws of the state. Earlier in the day the inreceiver, and Paul O. Stensland, president of the bank and father of the vice president, together with Cashler Hering, were officially declared fugitives from justice and their personal descriptions placed in the hands of the police throughout the country. This action was taken by the authorities after developments bad shown that the Annes of the failed institution were in a deplorable condition and had been for a number of years. Besides the discovery of many irregularities in the management of the bank it was also found that even the safety deposit boxes owned and reuted by the bank had been tampered with and rifled.

The specific charge on which Theodore Stensland was arrested was that of having accepted deposits at the bank when he knew the institution to be insolvent. The arrest was made in the office of Chief of Police Collins. where Stensland had gone to confer with the head of the police depart-

The warrant for the arrest of the vice president was sworn by J. P. Straub, a liquor dealer, who declared that last Saturday be deposited $350 in the bank and that Theodore Stensland as one of the officers of the institution had knowledge then that the bank was insolvent. Straub contends that the vice president should have notified the acting officers of the bank not to receive any deposits, but that this had net been done, and his money was taken in violation of the banking laws. Jacob J. Kern, a former state atterney, signed bonds for $5,000 for the release of Theodore Steusland. The promises that the elder Stensland would appear in Chicago were not fulfilled, and it is the belief of the police, based upon dispatches from several northern cities, that he has fled into Canada. Cashler Hering, sought on a similar warrant, is thought to have reached the Dominion by another route.

The day's developments were productive of the first ray of hope for the depositors, who had believed their savings of years swept away in the wreck. David R. Fergan, vice presi-dent of the First National bank, and he final adjustment.

be in an almost hopeless tangle, and more irregularities are being disclosed as the examiners go deeper into the books. President Stensland leaned money to himself, it is alleged, by the subterfuge of having employees sign notes. Specific instances came to light during the day of the lecting of the safety deposit boxes. One in particular to which the attention of the police was called was that of Mrs. Lydia Herman, who declared that $150 of her funds had been taken.

The clearing house committee sparing no effort to bring the missing president to justice. Handwriting experts, it is said, will be put to work at once upon the case to establish the evidence of forgery.

Family after family could be seen at all hours of the night wending their way to the nearest park or pier, the elders among them earrying the camp-ing out requisites and the little ones following, their wondering faces abowing that the proceeding was one that filled them with bewilderment.

BIG GAME FORFEITED

Barring of Umpire Gives Baseball Contest to Chicago.

NEW YORK TEAM PUTS IN A CLAIM

Police Shut Out Official - Mon From Western City Refused to Play.

NEW YORK, Aug. 8. - Something unique in baseball occurred here when the game which was to have been played as the third of the present series between the New York and Chicago National league clubs did not take place on the Polo grounds. Each club claims that the other forfetted, so it is up to the national directors to straighten out matters, and a lengthy wrangle is bound to ensue. So far as the National league can chronicle the unplayed game at present, Chicago has been officially declared the winner, 9 to 0, by forfeit.

At the preceding game, the second of the series, there was a good deal of ill feeling shown on both sides on account of decisions rendered by Umpire Johnstone. When Johnstone and Einsite, the umpires assigned by President Pulliam, arrived at the entrance to the Polo grounds Johnstone was refused admittance by the police, and Emalie, who accompanied him, declined to officiate so long as his associate was not allowed to perform his official function. Johnstone then declared the game ferfeited by New York to Chica-go, basing his decision on the local club's refusal to admit him to the

The crowd, which numbered about 11,000, wondered at the delay and yelled "Play ball!" repeatedly while Man-agers McGraw and Chance held a con-sultation. McGraw called upon his utility man, Strang, to officiate as umptre. Chance refused to appoint a man frem his team to set in conjunction with Strang, saying that the game had been forfeited under the rules. Presi-Chance refused to appoint a man deat Charles Murphy of the Chicago club then took a band in the much mixed proceedings, and after he had spoken a few words to Chance the Chicago players left the grounds.

A few minutes later an announces umped from the grand stand and said that he had been requested by the New York club to make the following state-

Later on the announcer again ad-dressed the crowd, which by this time was scattered over the diamond and outfield, saying, "I am instructed by auch of those to whom the status of the defunct bank's affairs has been laid bare, declared that probably 70 cents on the dollar would be paid in Uliman & Mackin's Bridge Whist club, ing sent Strang out as an umpire and the Chicago team having ignored his to New York, 9 to 0, and the New York club will protect the claim of the visiting club. Rain checks had been insued prior to the game, and the patrons of the club were informed that these checks would be good for any other game on these grounds during the present season,

Police Inspector Sweeney, when seen later on, said that he had not taken the initiative in preventing Umpire Johnstone from entering the grounds and added that it was at the reques of the management of the New York club that he had acted as he did.

NEW YORK, Asg. 8.-The folio ing statement from President Harry Pulliam of the National League of Baseball Clube regarding the forfeited game at the Polo grounds has been received from Saratoga: "Press reports here say that Johnstone, a National league umpire, was refused admission by the New York club and that there upon the Chicago club rightfully and in strict accordance with the National league constitution declined to play The game was therefore legally, for feited to the Chicago club."
