GOTHAM FOOD SHORT

Strike of Tugboat Men Threatens City's Supply. DEMAND FOR MORE PAY THE CAUSE

Workers Want Increase Watch Employees Declare Unreasonable. Employees of Six Railroads Are Involved.

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—A famine of milk, vegetables and other food products is threatened in New York and Brooklyn by the strike of the tugboat crews of six great railroads that bring these edibles to the city every morning. A large majority of the tug are tied up because the firemen, oilers, deck hands and mates walked out. The general freight business will suffer as a result.

A final effort to effect a reconciliation failed. The strike went on. The railroads will not grant the advance in wages demanded, and the men abruptly refused to go to work. The test of strength has come, and while it goes on New York will have to curtail its thirst for milk and its taste for fresh vegetables.

The strikers said that they had information that the crews employed by many of the private companies, which employ hundreds of men, would follow them out on a sympathetic strike. Should that occur all the towing business of the port will be tied up.

The crews of boats run by the New York Central, the Jersey Central, the Lackawanna, the Lehigh Valley, the Erie and the Baltimore and Ohio demanded that they be paid from $5 to $10 per month more. They declared that they have to work twelve hours a day and in the winter get no Sundays off. At a conference between the managers and the representatives of the strikers Walter B. Follock, the marine manager of the New York Central, offered to pay $5 per month more. It was rejected. Later he held a conference with the marine managers of the other roads, and they agreed with him.

When word was sent to the striking workmen they declared that they would never give in. At this time there is therefore no hope of settling the conflict beyond the statement of Superintendent Eisman of the marine department of the New York Central that he is getting all the men that he wants and will be able to man his boats in a few days.

"We are willing to give them an increase of $5 a month and think they should be satisfied," said Mr. Follock. "We are also willing to take into consideration the demands for a further increase on the part of the first class deck hands. A 10 per cent increase we consider a reasonable demand, but a 20 per cent increase we regard as out of the question just now."

"I want to make it plain that there will be no delay in delivering such freight as foodstuffs. There are plenty of men to be had to make a prompt handling of this class of merchandise possible."

A move was made by the New York Central which the men interpret as an evidence of weakness. An order was sent out increasing the wages of all the captains of the big boats that carry the great freight trains to the city from various freight terminals by $5 per month. The strikers declared that this was done for fear that the men on the boats were about to join the strike. The feeling along the water front is that the strike will be of short duration. The railroad people will not be able to get the assistance of the private towing companies to do their lighterage towing, as the private companies are overcrowded with work.

CZAR TO CELEBRATE

Improvement in Situation to Be Marked by Visit to Guards.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 10.—In view of the improvement in the situation a number of the guard regiments have returned to their summer camp at Tsarskoe Selo. The emperor has arranged to go there and spend five days.

These imperial visits to the guards' camp are gala occasions and are always marked by festivities, theatricals, banqueting and toasting among the various regiments.

The empress' yacht Alexandra steamed to Peterhof, leading to the belief that the imperial family will soon make its postponed visit to Finland waters.

Court circles are greatly relieved by the prospect of a period of calm, which will give the government an opportunity to begin its programme.

The following appointments to the cabinet have been officially confirmed: Prince Vassitchikoff, minister of agriculture; M. Filossoff, minister of commerce; M. Iavolsky, procurator general of the holy synod.

The Rosels says it is the intention of the government to fight a counter revolution with the same energy it has been waging war against the "enemies of society" and expresses the hope that moderate public opinion equally hostile to both extremes will grow rapidly.

The Novoc Vremya, taking as its text the failure to employ summary execution as a deterrent to mutinies, complains that for years it has been felt that the government has not understood how to employ firmness, adding that instead of the "iron hand in the velvet glove" there has been a "putty hand clothed in an iron glove."

The court of inquiry into the recent mutiny at Cronstadt advises the replacement of Admiral Birloff, minister of marine, by some other officer as the head of the Russian navy.

It is said that the prize has been offered to Vice Admiral Dubosoff, who was governor general of Moscow up to July 18, when he resigned on account of the condition of his health. He is still suffering from the effects of wounds he received in Moscow on May 6, when a bomb was thrown at him in the street as he was returning from a service in the cathedral.

BANK'S HEAD BLAMED

Arrested Chicago Cashier Accuses President Stensland.

DOES NOT KNOW WHERE LATTER IS Depositors to Receive 25 Per Cent Soon—May Be Paid in Full—Examination of Institution's Affairs Begun.

CHICAGO, Aug. 10.—Henry W. Hering, cashier of the Milwaukee Avenue State bank, which closed its doors three days ago, was arrested in Chicago. He will be refused bail until his connection with the disappearance of nearly $1,000,000 of the bank's funds is cleared up. Paul O. Stensland, president of the defunct institution, is still a fugitive and, although nearly 100 detectives are searching for the missing president, his whereabouts is a mystery.

Hering was taken to the office of Chief of Police Collins and put through a thorough examination as to his knowledge of President Stensland's alleged mismanagement of the institution. Hering declared he did not know where President Stensland was and that he had had no communication with Stensland for more than a week.

Hering strenuously denied any responsibility for the failure of the bank. He maintained that if he was guilty of breaking the banking laws of Illinois, President Stensland was responsible. Hering declared he never had benefited a single dollar by President Stensland's system of banking.

State Bank Examiner Jones and Assistant State's Attorney Olson were present during the examination of Hering. Neither they nor the police were satisfied with the explanation given by him of his connection with the collapse of the bank, and it was decided to refuse bail until the failure had been further investigated.

Receiver Fetzler reported to the superior court that a dividend of at least 25 per cent would probably be declared to depositors in the bank within the next two weeks. This, it is said, will be followed by a second dividend, although the receiver said he was not in a position to say how much of their savings the 22,000 depositors would recover from the institution.

At a meeting of the board of directors of the bank a resolution was adopted appointing a committee to devise ways and means to apprehend President Stensland and to straighten out the affairs of the bank. The directors declare that there will be found a sufficient revenue from the assets to pay all depositors in full.

At the conclusion of the examination of Hering at police headquarters he was taken to the bank, where, with Bank Examiner Jones and Assistant State Attorneys Foke and Olson, a thorough investigation of the bank's affairs was started. Hering promised to show all records of notes and transactions whereby the bank was defrauded.
