CHARGED WITH STEALING WATCH

Waverly—A young man named Floyd Haverly came to the police yesterday and stated that his watch had been stolen. The officers later found Wm. Dunn in an intoxicated condition, and suspecting that he had the watch, he was placed under arrest by Officer Gridley. On being searched the watch was not found, and he protested his innocence, but later told whom he thought had the watch. He was again searched and the watch was found in his stocking. He still claimed that he was innocent and was held under $300 bonds to appear for a hearing tomorrow at 4 p. m.

THREW CUCUMBERS

Waverly—There was a commotion at the Loomis last night due to the fact that some one amused himself by throwing cucumbers at the gallery. A young fellow named Gleason was spotted as being the guilty party and he was forcibly ejected. This morning a complaint was sworn out and a warrant issued for his arrest. He plead not guilty and will be given a hearing tomorrow at 9 a. m. During the confusion incident to ejecting Gleason from the house some one shouted fire, and a panic was narrowly averted.

HURT AT POWER HOUSE

Waverly—John Donnelly, an employe of the Traction Company, was seriously hurt at the power house yesterday afternoon. Two cars were standing about 3 feet apart at the power house and he was between them. The controller on one of them was open but no one had discovered it. The trolley on one of the cars was placed on the wire and the car sprang forward suddenly pinching him between them and causing bad contusions of the legs. He is confined to his home on Howard street.

JASON B. BLOSSOM

Waverly—Jason B. Blossom, an old and well known resident of Waverly, died at his home on Chemung street at 4 o'clock this morning aged 85 years. He was attacked some months ago with paralysis of the throat and had not been able to talk for some time previous to his death. He is survived by his wife, one son Eugene and three daughters, Mrs. F. E. Bechman, Mrs. J. O. Robinson, Mrs. P. S. Miller of Ithaca, and Mrs. J. W. Wright of Corning. The funeral will be held on Saturday next at 3 p. m. from the house.

IN POLICE COURT

Waverly—Three men with jugs of greater or less proportions were creating a disturbance last evening and were all arrested. They said they were from Sayre and at first rather discredited the idea that they were guilty, but later concluded that they had been unduly hilarious. Every one was dead broke and they were discharged. A man drove into town yesterday with a load of lumber and telephoned to his people, who reside somewhere near Litchfield, that he was then coming home. As he had not arrived at midnight a brother drove to Waverly and found him in the lockup. He paid $3 fine and was released.

GET A SAMPLE BALLOT

Waverly—The sample ballots, containing the full text of the provisions that will be submitted to the taxpayers on August 27 with regard to the paving of Chemung street, have been printed and can be secured from the village clerk. All persons interested should procure a copy and inform themselves on this matter upon which they are called to vote.

MRS. HANNAH CLARK

Waverly—Mrs. Hannah Clark died last night at her home at Wyankoop creek, where she has resided for the past 50 years. She was born in Tyrone county, Ireland in 1810, and her death resulted from infirmities due to old age. She is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Margaret Kent, and three sons, Thomas, Robert and George, all of Chemung county. The funeral will be held from her late home on Saturday next at 2 p. m.

We have the reputation of sending the LARGEST PLUMBING BILLS of any firm in the valley. Awful, isn't it?

A number of our all-well-pleased customers have explained it this way: "We gave you a small job that required immediate attention and you attended to that so promptly, and did your work so well that we decided to have a lot of other work attended to at the same time."

We please others, and we know that we can please you if you'll give us a chance.
