KEYSTONE CAPITOL ACCEPTED.

Famous Bronze Doors With Statemen's Heads Stay in It.
HARRISBURG, Pa., Aug. 16.—The new state capitol was accepted by the capitol building commission from the contractors and turned over to the board of public grounds and buildings, of which Governor Pennypacker is president. The commission announced at the close of its meeting that it would turn into the state treasury between $30,000 and $40,000 out of the $4,000,000 appropriated for the building after its accounts have been closed. After accepting the building the commission made the final payment to the contractors, an aggregate of $3,500,000. The commission will have to settle with Edwin A. Abbey and other artists for the decorations before closing its accounts. The building is practically finished and is now being made ready for the decoration ceremonies on Oct. 1.
The present capitol takes the place of the old statehouse, which was destroyed by fire February, 1897. The bronze doors containing the heads of the members of the commission and other distinguished Pennsylvanians, over which there had been some controversy, were not rejected.

W. E. Scudder and wife went to Canton this morning to witness the firemen's parade.

Mrs. James McCue of Waverly, and Mrs. J. Bixby of Sayre, attended a porch party given by Mrs. Seth Hawkins yesterday afternoon.

Clayton Berghaus of Harrisburg was visiting Archibald Maurice yesterday. He is here on a business trip in the Sayre sewer project.

Mrs. A. Moon and children Ethel and Frances went to Rummerville this morning where they will be guests of John Moon and family.

There will be some good matinee races at the park Saturday. There will be three races and some of the best horses in the valley will compete.

That trombone book belonging to Hosmer's band has not yet been found. It is of no use to anyone but the owner, and ought to be returned.

Mrs. Anna Kinney of New York, Mrs. W. H. Shores of Towanda, and Miss Laura Shores of Black, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Fuller today.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Gamble returned to Olean this morning after visiting in Athens and attending the Gamble family reunion in Franklin yesterday.

Miss Addie Gleason of New York, came to Athens today for a week's visit with her parents, J. C. Flood and wife. Miss Helen has been here some time.

Mrs. H. E. Walker went to Wyandoming this morning to visit her former home and friends. She will extend her journey to Wilkes-Barre before she returns.

The special train for Canton left the station this morning at 5:30. Protection hose company had 44 men and Hosmer's band had 28 men. The return train will leave Canton at 10:30 tonight and the boys will reach home about 1:30 in the morning.

The Inauguration of
An Entirely New Bookselling System
Saving Immense Profits to Book Buyers.

50c
Instead of $1.50

By placing an order with the Authors and Newspapers association of New York for a very large edition of each of twelve famous works, we control the sale in this valley and vicinity, and we will sell a new novel every month by a world-famous author at only 50c a copy for the regular $1.50 style. The bargain is where it ought to be—with our customers. The reader benefits by this extraordinary purchasing arrangement, and the quality of the book in no way suffers.
