C., Aug. 21 .- The sixen-year-old daughter of George Waddell, a farmer near Fremont, was musdered Sunday afternoon and her body thrown in a marl pit, where it was found. An examination of the body showed numerous bruises and scratches, and the condition of her neck made it clear that she had been strangled. The circumstances indicated hat the girl had been outraged. Het umbrella lay near the pit, and the ground showed that a struggle had taken place. There is intense excitement in the surrounding country, but there is no clew to the murderer.
