Real Estate Trust of Philadelphia Fails.

PRESIDENT THOUGHT A SUICIDE.

Frank K. Hipple Died Suddenly at Bryn Mawr Under Circumstances Which Lead to Suspicion That He Took His Own Life.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 29.-Unable to meet its obligations because of the large amount of money loaned on insufficient security by its president, now dead, the Real Estate Trust company of Philadelphia, which up to last Saturday was considered one of the strongest financial institutions in the city. has closed its doors. Soon after the doors closed George H. Earle, Jr., a. prominent financier, was appointed re-

The liabilities of the company are there are quick assets of about $3,500,which is not negotiable or readily conertible. This doubtful collateral is held mostly as security for loans of promoter of this city.

The man responsible for the failure was Frank K. Hipple, one of Philadelphia's best known citizens, who died suddenly last Friday morning in his country home at Bryn Mawr, near here, under circumstances which in the light of late developments lead to the suspicion that he may have committed Real Estate Trust company, made an

Mr. Hipple's death occurred suddenly last Friday morning at his summer home in Bryn Mawr, Pa. The cause of death was given as cerebral bemorrhage by his physician, Dr. William C. said that he did not perform an autopsy, but accepted the statement of Dr. Powell. In speaking of the death of his father F. Wharton Hipple said: 'My father came home in his usual health and spirits. He arose about 6 o'clock in the morning and appeared perfectly well. He had the bath filled as usual and went to the bathroom Se far as we can learn he must have died instantly, for no ontery of any kind was heard and he was dead when found by Mrs. Hipple." Rumors that Mr. Hipple had committed suicide were at the time quickly silenced by Dr. Powell and Coroner King who declared that death was due to natural causes.

Mr. Hipple in addition to being president of the Real Estate Trust company was treasurer of the board of trustees of the general assembly of the Presbyterian church in the United States and of several other church funds and was a director of the Franklin National bank. Recently Mr. Hipple's accounts of the Presbyterian church were examined by certified accountants and were found to be correct, but it cannot be stated positively the general assembly are intact, although it is hoped they are. Dr. W. H. Roberts, stated clerk of the general assembly of the Presbyterian church, who is at Mount Pocono said he was greatly shocked at the news of the failure. In addition to the deposits of the general assembly the real estate trust also had about $25,000 of funds placed there by Dr. Roberts as stated clerk.

The Presbyterian hospital of Philadelphia and the Presbyterian board of to the campaign of 1907." relief, he said, also had sums of money in the failed institution. Dr. Roberts was asked if he could say whether the securities of the general assembly, amounting to $963,896, in Hipple's custody were intact. He replied, "I have no reason to believe otherwise, but cannot say positively."

"Were those securities in such shape that they might have been hypothecated or transferred?"

"I do not know positively as to that, but I do not think that they were." As treasurer of the board of trus tees of the Presbyterian general assembly Mr. Hipple had on March 1. 1906, $5,900 in cash and $960,000 in se-

Samuel F. Houston, vice president of the trust company, said: "In round numbers the failure will amount to $7,000,000. At a meeting of the banks and trust companies of the Philadelphia clearing house an effort was made to raise money to tide the company over its difficulties, but all we could get was $3,500,000, or about one-half what was needed." In order to hide the true condition of the company and save himself Hipple resorted to the falsification of his reports, which were accepted as true by the directors. He used what the receiver termed a "double system" of making reports. When the state bank examiner called Hipple presented to him good securities to offset the loans made, and when the president made his reports to the directors he would show them a bundle of other securities and other paper, and along with these he would exhibit the certificate of the bank examiner, which showed that the accounts the examiner had investigated were correct. The directors, supposing the securities shown them were the same, approved the reports. Among these directors are Dr. S. Weir, R. Mitchell, the eminent auther; John R. Converse of the Baldwin part it has taken in these conferences. Locomotive works and one of the most prominent laymen in the Presbyterian hurch in the United States. John F. ets, the millionaire brewer; William A. Patton, assistant to President Cas-

they began an investigation of his affairs and were shocked when they learned the true condition of the company. This was after the close of busi ness on Friday, A meeting of the board was burriedly called, and it was decided to instruct the officers of the bank that all deposits received after the opening of business Saturday morning should be set aside and de posited with the Franklin National bank in the names of the individuals presenting the money. This was done to absolve the directors from criminal proceedings.

The directors made strenuous efforts to tide the institution over the difficulty. There were probably fifty bank presidents at the clearing house to meet the directors of the trust company. The latter stated that they needed $7,000,000, but the best the banks could do was to guarantee $3, placed at $10,000,000, against which 500,000. This was not enough, and as all other means for getting money had 000 and collateral of about $8,000,000, failed Vice President Houston tele phoned to the bank to suspend busi ness and send the receivership papers to court. In an incredibly short time about $5,300,000 made to Adolf Segal, the story was on the street and created great consternation, Hundreds of persons gathered about the building. clamoring for information, and the crowd grew so great that a detail of police was sent for to clear the street.

The board of publication of the Pres byterian church, which had between $18,000 and $20,000 on deposit with the effort to withdraw the money, but failed the unstable condition of the trust company, members of the board notified the officials of their intention to transfer the account to the Philadelphia Powell, whose statement was con-firmed by Coroner King. The latter latter institution made all haste to the National bank. A representative of the office of the trust company and arrived there three minutes after the doors had closed conducting an agitation against the Intelligensia and Jews.

The court at Peterhof apparently is divided as to how to meet the campaign of the terrorists. Premier Stolypin and his cabinet, however, have taken a stand against repression upon a scale which would drive the whole population into revolt. The premier's views are reflected by the Rossia. which declares the government must not be frightened into abandoning the reform programme. CAPTURES THE TOWN OF RODAS.

It Is Expected That the Insurgent Leaders, With Exception of Pine Guerra, Will Yow Lay Down Their Arms.

HAVANA, Aug. 29 .- General Rodriruez, commander of the rural guards has received a telegram from Colone Valle telling of the engagement be tween the government forces and the usurgents near Clenfuegos, province of Santa Clara. The dispatch reads: "Insurgent parties under Guzman and Portela, having camped near Abreus and commenced barassing the rural guards, we proceeded toward Abreus with a force of rural guards and volunteers and encountered the revolutionists, who were entrenched in the town of Abreus. "We routed the enemy, killed many revolutionists and captured a quantity of arms and ammunition and a number of horses. We continued our operations to Rodas, where our advance guard was charged by the revolutionists who were holding the town and a little fort called De Piedra fort, where A Number of Specials

"The enemy was persistent, but the revolutionists were finally dispersed and ran away in different directions leaving a large number of men killed in the streets. The full extent of the revolutionists' casualties is not yet got in touch with the detachment of rural guards commanded by Lieutenant Toro. Our forces fought valiantly throughout the engagements. Later the enemy returned and rushed the town, but the revoluti nists were again cattered by our machete charges." Colonel Valle expresses the opinio that the engagements in Santa Clara will prove to have been of great importance toward ending the insurretion in that province.

A band of insurgents fired a volley at a passenger train on the Western railway west of Alquizar, Havana province, thirty-three miles by rail southwest of the Cuban capital. Several bullets hit the cars, but nobody was wounded.

Investigation shows that the state ment made by Senator Dolz, a leader of the Moderate party, at the conclusion of a conference with President Palma at midnight, to the effect that practically all the insurgent leaders of consequence except Pino Guerra had signified their willingness to disband their men if all were positively guartheir men if all were positively guar auteed immunity for their insurrection.
