William Jennings Bryan at New York

CREAT DELEGATIONS WELCOME HIM

rica's Greatest City Sives No braska Statesman a Royal Re-ception Today-Nobbed by Him "Home Folks."

NEW YORK, Aug. 30.-Under gray kies, but in exuberant spirits and brenzed by the suns of many climes during a year of travel completely fround the world, William Jennings Bryan of Nebraska, twice the nominee of the Democratic party for president of the United States and already inlorsed as the candidate of 1908, steamed up New York bay on the steamer Prinzess frene and received an ovation from large welcoming parties which went down to Quarantine to neet and cheer the incoming vessel and its distinguished passenger.

"Bryan'a Nebraska home folks" were he most enthusiastic of all in his weltome to America. On two big tugoats which journeyed down the bay ide by side they went to welcome beir distinguished neighbor. With tusultuous cheers they pulled up alongside the after gapgway of the big steamer and called out their greetings to Mr. Bryan, who stood on the deck just above them and smiled and wavd his hat. Big boxes of flowers were essed on board for Mrs. Bryan. Then the Nebraska state flag was flung to wed. . Bongs were sung and the taken up time and again falle Mr. Bryan was going through the secessary formalities of the customs spection laws.

There had also gone on board the Prinzess Irene Lewis Nixon, Mayor Frank W. Brown of Lincoln, Neb.; Mr. Neb. The three former had gone down on the Illini, while Mayor Dahlman was in charge of the "home folks."

When the baggage had all been passd and Mr. Bryan was ready to descend to the Nebraskane' tug there ras another outburst of enthusiasia. raich was taken up with a will.

As he set foot upon the tug Mr. Bry-an was fairly mebbed by the Nebrastans, who had as guests many Demo-grats from other sections of the state. Such was anxious to be the first to shake hands with the homecomer, who warmly returned every word of greeting. All seemed to be old friends, and many were called by their first names or some given name the memory of which had lasted from boyhood days. All this time the whistles on the craft which swarmed about the Prinsess Irene were tooting madly. Flags were dipping everywhere, and from the shores small craft put out is multiply-

Mr. Bryan did not enjoy his usual bealth during the voyage, but he was much better and said that he felt sure he would be able to earry out the plane which have been made for him during the next few days.

Mr. Boyan will not lasd in New York city proper until this afternoon, when he will be received at the Battery by delegations of prominent Demorate from all parts of the country and scorted to the hotel where he will make his headquarters while here. He and Mrs. Bryan were taken off the Prinzess Irene by special permis-sion of Frealdent Roosevelt shortly aft-er the vessel had anchored at Quaran-tine. First he went about two tugs which had been chartered by "Bryan's ebrasks home folks," where he was xultacily greeted and halled as the

He then went aboard the trim little yacht Illini, owned by his long time triend and schoolmate, Edward F. Gol-tra of St. Louis, and where such well known Democrats as Norman E. Mack, national committeeman for New York, and Daniel J. Campau, national com-mitteeman for Michigan, were await-ing him. On the Illini Mr. Bryan was taken to the landing of the Ocean Facht club at Stapleton, N. Y., where is landed, and was whirled away in bile to the home of Lewis lixan, Ben Braw, on the beights of nsville and overlooking the har-with the drift of affairs at home. Mr. Bryan was accompanied by his wife and daughter, Miss Grace Bryan. Mrs. Bryan went with him on the Illiai and to Mr. Nixon's home. Mass Bryan continued on the steamer and spont the night with friends in the city. Colonel Moses C. Wetmore of St. Louis, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Dunlop and Miss Dunlop of Chicago, who had been traveling companions of the Bry-aus during the latter part of their tour of Europe, also arrived on the Prin Mr. Bryan could not be drawn into a liscussion of political questions.

"What I have to say of politics at this time, with my incomplete knowledge of affairs at house, will be said tonight at the Madison Square Garden reception under the auspices of the Commercial Travelers' Antitrust league. Probably then you will find that I shall discuss subjects I have spoken of before," Mr. Bryan added, with twinkling eye. It was said that the conference might have some weight regarding the features of to-night's speech, which will be in the nature of a response by Mr. Bryan to the indorsements which recently have been accorded him by various state conventions as the next Democratic presidential candidate.

Asked pointedly regarding the prob-ability of his candidature, Mr. Bryan said he had nothing to add to the letter be wrote former Senator J. K. Jones of Arkansas, in which he said he might accept a third nomination under conditions which he named. At the conference at the home of Mr.

Nixon were Mayor Tom L. Johnson of Cleveland, O.; National Committeemen Campau of Michigan, Mack of New York and Baughman of Maryland, William Hoge, president of the Commercial Travelers' Antitrust league, who discussed the plans for the public rereption; Alexander Troup of Connecticut, who explained the details of the programme arranged for Mr. Bryan's welcome to New Haven tomorrow; Robert Davis of Jersey City, who explained the arrangement for the Jersey City welcome next Saturday even-ing; Harry W. Walker of the recep-tion committee for New York, Augus-tus Thomas and Edward F. Goltra. All of these, together with Mrs. Bryan and Mrs. Goltra, were guests of Mr. Nixon at dinner.

Mr. Bryan spent the morning open ing a vast quantity of mail which was handed to him on board the steamer. He worked all morning with his secretary answering such of the commuications as were urgent.

Packers Ready to Make Reforms. WASHINGTON, Aug. 80.-Secretary Vilson of the department of agriculture has returned from an extended trip through the west and northwest. He inspected personally many meat packing plants in the various cities he visited, making it a point always to call at the plants of a given city without previous notice. In a majority of instances the secretary found the plants in good sanitary condition. The packers everywhere, he learned, were disposed to meet the requirements of changing camps every eight hours." he law without quibble or protest, their desire being simply to learn definitely what was expected of them by the government.

Mrs. Dixon Takes It All Back. NEW YORK, Aug. 30.-Mrs. Mary L. Dixon, who recently sued Senstor Patrick Henry McCarren, the Brooklyn statesman, for $200,000, has backed down. She will withdraw her suit and take back everything mean she ever said about McCarren, including the charge that be is the father of her one-year-old child, P. H. McCarren, Jr. Mrs. Dixon's husband was to have testitled before a referee today in Mrs. Dixon's suit against the senator. His same is Dr. William A. Dixon, and until Senator McCarren dug him up a few days ago Mrs. Dixon insisted that he was dead.

CUBAN RAID

Insurgente Would Welcome American Intervention.

ESTATE NEAR CABANAS LOOTED.

Artillery Corps Formed Under Yan kee Officers-Porce Under Avalos Mas Left Pinar del Rio to Attack Guerra.

HAVANA, Aug. 30 .- The surrender of some of the more vigorous insurgent enders in the provinces of Matanzas and Santa Clara and the coming in of scattering few insurgents in response to the government's proffer of anmesty is vastly more than offset by the insurgent sentiment looming stronger daily in the country districts of the provinces of Havana, Pinar del Rio and Sauta Clara and which now is reported to be gaining headway in Santiago, but more especially in the districts where the insurgents are operating.

The fact is that not only the employces of the big plantations, but hundreds of small farmers, tenants and workmen on shares, are with Guerra's force, and many others are frequenting the towns instead of preparing for planting. The sugar situation, generally speaking, is much easier than the tobacco situation because the cane, growing from old stalks, has up to now been progressing fairly.

Mr. Sleeper, the American charge here, reports that a band of Cuban insurgents, led by Campos Marquetti, a negro member of the Cuban congress, has made a raid on the Mercedita sugar estate, near Cabanas, and taken way horses, saddles and other property of the sugar company.

Considerable surprise is expressed at the fact that Orencio Nodarse has joined the anti-government forces. He was director of posts and telegraphs up to the present month and president of the Moderate assembly and was highly complimented by President Palma when he resigned the postmaster generalship on account of differences between the administration and himself over his candidacy for mayor of Havana.

Captain Pepy Cardenas, President Palma's personal military aid-de-camp. started with 200 mounted men in the direction of Guines, Havana province, with the object of encountering the insurgent force commanded by Colonel Asbert, who is the leader of the in surgents in Havana province, in an interview said that he has superior orders to the effect that if the government does not accede to the insurgents' demands by Sept. 15 he is to begin an active campaign, destroying trains and burning property without respect to fereign ownership. He added; "We prefer another American intervention, which would guarantee legal elections, for which we are contending. In order to avoid contact with the troops and therefore bloodshed we are Many Cubans feel that patriotism de mands that some united effort be made to end the war and avoid the possibility of intervention by the United

There is no question that foreigners would welcome intervention to restore peace, and many Cubans would do likewise were it not for the sentiment of pride in making it appear that Cuba is able to maintain order within her own boundaries and an unwillingness to have the world regard her as the ward of the United States.

Meanwhile a rapid fire artillery corps is being organized under American officers, ammunition and guns are being unpacked, and the historic Castillo de la Punta, fronting on the harbor entrance, is the scene of the greatest activity.

The insurrection in the province Pinar del Rio has spread across the mountains to the north coast, and the town of Cabanas is now in the hands of the insurgents, who are reported also to have gone in the direction of Babla Honda.

Colonel Avalos' command has left the city of Pinar del Rio for Guanes, but no news has been received yet from him. The government telegraph liues are interrupted.

Pino Guerra again is threatening the ratiroad officials. The latter have begun the construction of an armored train to precede troops and other trains in the threatened region.

NEWPORT, R. L. Aug. 80. - The sase with which William J. Clothier of Philadelphia won the national lawn tennis championship from Beals C. Wright of Boston, last year's title holder on the Casino courts, was one of the surprises of the tennis year. A victory for Wright or at least a hard fought contest was anticipated, but that Clo-thier should win in straight sets, 6-3, 6-0. 6-4, was beyond the calculations of even the closest followers of the sport. Wright's playing was 50 per cent below the form showed on the same court last year, when he won the title from Holcombe Ward

EVERYONE TRUSTED LATE PRESIDENT

Thought to Be Safe-Dead Chief. Had Control of Millions of Trust Funds.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 30.—So great Dress Goods was the confidence reposed in Frank K. Hippic, tate president of the Real Estate Trust company, which was forced to the wall because of the secret business transactions of Mr. Hipple, that the institution was virtually the bank of the Presbyterian church. Not only the general assembly, which was a More New Ones Added large depositor, but even the smallest Sunday school organizations and hundreds of individuals, with abiding faith in the integrity of the late presi dent, had intrusted their funds and savings to the institution.

private secretary to Dr. Alexander Henry, secretary of the board of publication and Sabbath school work of the Presbyterian church. "As treasurer of the trustees of the general assembly Mr. Hipple had control of over $1,000,000, and as treasurer of the permanent committee on home missions and sustentation in the synod of Pennsylvania and the Pres'yterian hospital of this city other large amounts were at his command." Since the failure of the trust compa ny it has been learned that only a few months ago the institution was under consideration as a possible depositor; for the foreign missionary funds of the Presbyterian church. The influence of Mr. Hipple, it is said, might have eventually prevailed. The annual contributions to foreign missions amount to over $1,200,000, and its surplus on fland dways equals half that

F. Wharton Hipple, son of the dead president, had a rough experience as MISINS od from the bank building. man in the crowd saw him and shouted, "There goes the sou of the rogue who said he had no faith in men who smoke cigars and chew tobacco!"

Immediately the mob took up the cry and made a rush for young Hipple. For a few moments it looked as though be would be roughly handled, but the police succeeded in beating the mob back and rescuing the frightened man. He was hustled into a carriage and taken away.

John H. Converse, a director of the company and one of the foremost Pres-byterian laymen in the country, upon whose petition the receiver was appointed, says he is satisfied that the securities of the various Presbyterian church boards are safe. The Presbyterian hospital, of which Mr. Hipple was treasurer, has elected the Fidelity Trust company as his successor and through that concern learned that the institution's securities, amounting to $1.500,000, are intact.
