HOWLING MOB VISITED SAYRE

Stoned Italian Quarters, Damaged Property, but Were Quickly Dispersed by Chief Walsh

Gloating over the success with which they had met in driving the Italian colony out of Athens in the early part of last night, remnants of the mob which had terrorized that burg for several hours, later in the evening came to Sayre determined to rid this town of its foreign element which at this season of the year is present in considerable numbers. The mob, however, which by this time had dwindled from thousands to about 250 members, had reckoned without host. Big Jim Walsh, Sayre's Herculean chief of police, was on deck shortly after the mob had reached East Packer avenue and had begun stoning houses in which Italians were quartered. The big chief waded into the mob with both arms swinging right and left, declaring that no gang of hoodlums or anyone else could run this town in that manner. Foaming with rage the big form of the chief went through the howling, irresponsible mob, and they dispersed without delay. Two men, Pearl Yontz and Rudolph Fleischutt were placed under arrest and taken before Justice Carey charged with rioting. They were released on their own recognizance for a hearing this afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Early in the evening Julius Vogel of the night police force received a telephone message from the District Attorney Mills. Mr. Mills stated that a mob numbering in the neighborhood of four thousand people had gathered in that place, and as they had driven all the Italians out of that place, they intended to come to Sayre for a similar purpose. Officer Vogel immediately called up Chief Walsh, but before the chief could get busy the mob arrived and proceeded to East Packer avenue. On the north side of the street are a number of wooden buildings owned by John Brundage and the majority of them are occupied by Italians, many of them refugees from Athens. The mob immediately began stoning these houses. Window lights were broken out, siding was torn from some of the houses and for a time it looked as if they might succeed in getting inside and routing out the inmates. The Italians, however, evidently resolved to defend themselves, and several shots from revolvers were fired from one of the houses. Members of the mob returned the fire and in all some 25 or 30 shots were fired. No one was hit, however, and then the members of the mob turned their attention to the house owned by Rudolph Fleischutt on East street. Part of the house is occupied by a large number of Italians and the mob proceeded to bombard it with stones, bricks or any sort of missiles that could be found. Windows were broken out and an attempt was made to get inside. They were foiled in this however, and before any further damage could be done, Chief Walsh appeared on the scene and dispersed the mob. It was neatly and quickly done and the big chief is deserving of all kinds of credit for the vigorous manner in which he did it.

A stone which was thrown through a window of one of the buildings struck an infant on the head, inflicting a severe wound.

MORE TRAIN RIDERS

Yesterday afternoon Special Officer Shaffer arrested two hoboes, charging them with illegal train-riding. The men gave their names as James Kenyon of Syracuse and Fred Powers of Steubenville, O. The men were found on a freight train which was pulling through the Sayre yards and were taken before Justice Cary, where they pleaded guilty. They were committed to the borough lockup for a time but were later released on a suspended sentence.

HOWLING MACHINE NEARLY SEVERS LEG

Both Bones Were Cut in Two but Were Wired Together at the Hospital

William Drake, a little boy not yet three years old, had his leg nearly severed by a mowing machine at Wysox yesterday afternoon.

The little fellow's grandfather, Edward Drake, was driving the machine, and the boy, together with a sister about a year older were supposedly at the house. It was on the first trip around the field when the little girl was espied in the grass some distance ahead, but the boy was not in sight. As the knife of the machine was passing through some thick weeds a sharp cry was heard and the boy fell over the cutterbar.

He was brought to the Sayre hospital, where it was found that both bones of the lower leg had been severed just above the ankle, but there was enough circulation so that the foot was warm. The smaller bone was badly splintered but the larger one was cut very cleanly, and Dr. Ott decided to wire the bone together and save the leg if possible. This difficult operation was performed successfully and it is hoped that the bone will knit.

A similar operation upon the arms of a boy who lives at South Waverly terminated successfully, and the wires were removed yesterday, leaving the bones in fairly good condition. The success of that case encourages the belief that this one may be equally successful.

OAK GROVE PARK

The Salisbury Murray Stock Co. played to one of the best houses the park has had this season. The truth of the matter is the patrons of the park know a good thing when they see it, and when on Wednesday evening the company presented "The Creole's Revenge," the audience went wild, and the big, happy audience last night was the result of their enthusiasm. Everybody happy again last night. The company is a good one. The specialty artists, Marcus & Rosa, completed the evening's already splendid entertainment. The bill for tonight is "A Secret Marriage," and if good seats are what you want you will need to go early. At the matinee tomorrow "The Lighthouse Robbery" will be presented and the ladies gold watch will be given away.

HE WAS DEMENTED

This morning a man about 35 years old and of fair appearance was taken into custody by Chief Walsh who later bought him a ticket for Towanda. The man said that his name was John Carey and that he came from Old Forge, this state. He declared that the chief of police at that place was trying to kill him. He labored under the delusion that the chief was in Sayre accompanied by three or four men, and that if they caught him his life wouldn't be worth a picayune. As the fellow appeared to be harmless it was thought best to pass him along, accordingly a ticket was purchased and he was placed on board No. 8.

HEARING TODAY

The hearing in the case of Mac S. Sickler, charged by the Lehigh Valley railroad company with illegal train riding, is having refused to pay his fare between East Towanda and Towanda station, is taking place before Justice Carey this afternoon. Henry F. Streeter, Esq., is appearing for the Railroad Company while attorneys I. N. Evans and Yocum are representing Sickler. When the Record went to press the case had not been finished.

MOB MAY ASSEMBLE AGAIN TONIGHT

Reported That Another Attempt Will Be Made to Drive the Italians Out of Sayre

A persistent rumor has been afloat today that a mob will gather this evening for the purpose of completing the work begun last night in the Italian quarters. Whether there is any foundation to the rumor is not positively known, but judging from the events of the past two days, there is excellent reason for resorting to strenuous measures to protect the life and property of the citizens of this borough. As to the merits or demerits of the position taken by the mob, The Record does not, at this time care to discuss; but one thing is certain, this town must not be given into the hands of an irresponsible, unreasonable and unlawful assembly, which knows no law, no reason, nor has any respect for the rights of others. Should the rumor prove correct and a mob assemble it is up to all good citizens of this borough to unite and vigorously oppose, and if possible, prevent any unlawful or violent acts. Sayre had a taste of this wantonness last night. Then only short notice was given to the officers. Today, however, the officials have been made acquainted with the rumor and the probabilities are that should a mob assemble for the purpose of committing unlawful acts, it will find the law-abiding residents of this place fully prepared to adopt strenuous measures.
