DEMOCRATS CONPER AT NEW HAVEN

Splute of Twenty-one Guns

NEW MAVEN, Conn., Sept. 1 .- New ingland's greeting to William Jen nings Bryan was given cordial expres alon by an outpouring of men from Connecticut, Massachusetta Rhode Isand, Vermont and New Hampshire. They foregathered to the number of about 1,000 in Music hall. There were sands outside the hall not bidden o the reast, and the march from the allway station was through streets ined with cheering people.

The visit of Mr. Bryan to Connecticut must have strongly reminded him of the strenuous days he went through during his two presidential campaigns, or he did not have many moments of sure, delivering four addresses of siderable length, attending two reptions and was the center of handshaking bees whenever the opportunity

All this was crowded into the hours between noon, when he reached this city, and the hour of his retirement as the guest of ex-Senator Archibald Me-Neil at Bridgeport. I verywhere he was hearlis - his andiexces being of times with instantic, es-pecials) at the luncheon.

features of the lay were the on the conference of New England Democrate. At the former be Was welcomed to the city and state with a cordiality that for warmth has eldom been extended to a visitor within the gates of Connecticut, and at the latter he stood before a representative pody of New England Democrats and with great earnestness spoke of the reblems which the party must face in he coming campaigns.

Mr. Bryan, introduced by Mr. Hewitt during deafening applause, held the attention of his big audience for near-ly three-quarters of an hour. He spoke n part as follows:

Today the Democratic party has a policy. The Republican party does not outline its policy as the Democratic party does. The president today is embarrassed by the fact that you can search the platform upon which he was elected with a magnifying glass and you cannot find one single promise of reform on any subject. It has made the president's task difficult. The trouble with the president has been that when he tried to do anything he had is whip the Republicans in line with the Democratic platform instead of the Republican platform. And the trouble with the Republican party in this campaign is that its motto is, 'Stand pat, defend what you have and don't promse anything more." They say stand by RD AND SOFT WOOD the president. Well, my friends, the back him up instead of a Republican

"My friends, I believe that a private lopoly is an indefensible thing. You annot find a Republican platform that lenounces the principle of private monopoly. The line is going to be drawn. We are going to find out who is in favor of exterminating a trust and who is not in favor of it, and the line is going to be drawn on that principle. The man who is in favor of regulating it might just as well take off the mask and declare himself, for you cannot regulate a private monopoly; it regu-lates you.

"They tell you that arbitration is fanciful thing. I tell you that the president of the United States has to his redit a great schlevement. He settled the coal strike after a loss of $99,000,-000. I glory in the fact that he settled it. I think it is one of the proudest acts of his official capacity; but, my friends, I am not satisfied that we shall have one strike settled after a loss of $19,000,000. I want a system that will make it unnecessary for a man to start his wife in order to fix the price by which he can live.

"But to American can travel through other lands without feeling his heart glew with pride that his lot was cast in the United States. I have never felt so grafeful in my life as I have since I have seen the old world that a kind Providence cast my lot under the nce cast my lot under the stars

Many of the party lenders afterward expressed their opinion that the confernce was to them a very delightful ocsion. Mr. Bryan said in the course of his address that New England never had been a "good breeding place for Democracy, Jefferson had never considered it so, neither did Jackson."

The arrangements for Mr. Bryan's trip were carried out well, a delay at the start causing an overlapping of the three meetings here, to the disappointment of many. The mass meeting on the green had to be started before the on was actually over, and the ocratic conference was not comsted until it was about time for Mr. Sryan to deliver his third address of he day much later than planned. The thief change in the programme here was the inclusion of ex-Governor Gar-vin of Rhode Island as one of the open air speakers after the sidiress he had propared for the luncheon had been ruled out as being out of place at a strictly hospartians gathering, the diamete bying made at the last moment. Mr. Garvin spoke at the lanckson, how-

Today Mr. Bryan returned to New York en route to New Jersey. Mem bers of his party here were Senator Archibald McNell of Bridgeport, Archi-bald McNell, Jr., S. A. Huskins of Ohio. Mayor Fisher of Middletown, Conn. Senator William Kennedy of Naugatuck, Conn.; former Governor Lentz of Ohlo, John A. Kennedy of Naugatuck, J. J. of Willimantic. At Bridgeport Mr. Bryan received a salute of twenty-one guns in his honor as his train pulled into the station. Senator McNeil, with whom he spent the night, made elaborate preparations for his reception.

There was a tremendous crowd at he station and Mr. Bryan was enthusiastically cheered. He was continuous ly applauded when delivering his

WASHINGTON, Sept. 1.- The state Separtment received a dispatch from Mr. Sleeper at Havana, the United States charge in Cuba, saying that he had taken steps to have the Cuban government protect American interests against the raids of the rebels.

The situation in Cuba is far darker than at any previous time since the insurrection broke out. News of an uprising in Santiago province is spreading about Havana and causing the gravest concern. The extent of the rising in Santiago is not known, but it is the opinion here that the worst calamity of all to the Palma government is this insurrection in eastern

FILIBUSTER CAPTURED.

Vessel Carrying Arms and Ammuni-tion to Cuban Rebels Hold Up.

WILMINGTON, Del., Sept. 1 .- The crew of a vessel carrying arms and ammunition for the Cuban revolutionists has been captured by federal officials in Delaware bay. Fifteen thousand rifles were found on board. The seven members of the boat's crew, however, were released. The arrest of these men was kept quiet, so as not to interfere with the capture of the schooner Marietta or King Charles, the alleged filibuster which left Carney's point at midnight. This vessel has gone, however, and secrecy in the matter of the capture has availed little.

A sharp watch is being kept by Pink. erton detectives in the employ of the Cuban government in all ports from which it is likely that fillbustering expeditions might be fitted out. V. Barranco, representing the Cuban consul in New York, had a conference with United States District Attorney John P. Nields and United States Commissioner William G. Mahaffey. The former notified United States Marshal William R. Flinu to have himself and deputies ready to proceed to the vessel in the Delaware river of a minute's notice, confiscate her cargo and arrest the crew.

The boat left with all lights out and working slowly to avoid making too much noise. The vessel moved off so a specter craft as it proceeded down by two lengths. the river. The only living being seen on board was the solitary figure of a man standing at the wheel.

When they found they were baffled and nothing could be done the news teaked out. The Cuban representative returns to New York. He said the New Yor Cuban consulate is shipping rifles to
