PIANOS, ORGANS, SEWING MACHINES BARGAINS

Cannot be secured from house to house canvassers, or from any store which employs them, as their salaries and commissions will add from fifty to one hundred dollars to the cost of the piano, and not one cent to its actual value. See how much better Piano we can sell you for $200 up than you can buy from any canvasser for one hundred dollars more. We have no canvassers and no commissions to pay, and save our customers these unnecessary expenses. Compare our pianos and prices when some commission agent wants to put a piano in your house on trial.

HAD A BIG ROLL OF GREENBACKS

Farmer From Smithfield had Lots of Money and Was Gloriously Drunk

Saturday afternoon a man whose appearance indicated that he had reached the age of 70, and whose attire was that of a tiller of the soil, approached a well known lawyer on Lockhart street and stated that he had seven hundred dollars which he desired to deposit in one of the banks. It was after banking hours, and the employees of the two banking institutions had gone to their homes. Efforts were made to communicate with them but they were unsuccessful. Later in the evening the old man was found on Lockhart street in a highly inebriated condition. Special Officer Stevens was called and took the man to the borough lock-up. Later in the evening the officers ascertained that the old man had a roll of money when he came to Sayre, and they went to the lockup and searched his clothing. Save a couple of bottles, which had contained the liquid that cheers, his pockets were empty. Yesterday morning, however, it was ascertained that he had succeeded in reaching a bank official, who placed the money safely in the vaults. The old man came from Smithfield, and was released yesterday on suspended sentence. He made a beeline for the town pump, quenched his exceeding thirst, and then headed for Smithfield.

MITCHELL'S ALL STAR PLAYERS

Presenting a production of mystery, "Fabio Romani," comes to the Oak Grove Park theatre on Monday evening, Sept. 10. "Fabio Romani" is a thrilling play of startling realism abounding in novel climaxes and vivid situations of intense dramatic power and is produced by a selected company of twenty metropolitan players. Under the management of B. F. Mitchell, who has spared neither time or expense in procuring everything necessary to make this one of the greatest organizations of its kind kind on the road, and managers Salisbury & Murray are to be congratulated on having secured this gorgeous scenery production, and it is to be hoped that the people will turn out en masse to show their appreciation of their efforts in securing this great play. Monday will be ladies night, when a few of the choicest seats will be sold for the small sum of 15 cents.

FREIGHT WRECK

Saturday morning a freight wreck blocked the Lehigh tracks at Hazleton for a short time. One car was demolished and nine others were badly damaged. The cause of the wreck was due to the spreading of newly placed rails. A train of loaded coal cars was going down the line when one car became derailed, and before the train could be stopped nine more followed.

CARNIVAL NEXT WEEK

The Thornton Carnival will appear here all next week under the auspices of the R. A. Packer hose company. The entertainment will be located on the Desmond street grounds, and is said to be one of the best of its kind on the road. There are many free attractions and a large number of paid shows. The show is clean throughout and has given excellent satisfaction wherever it has appeared.

HOSPITAL NOTES

Martin McMahon suffered the amputation of the little finger of the right hand at the hospital this morning. An ulcer which had reached a chronic condition necessitated the amputation of the member.

LOCAL NEWS

An important meeting of the Sayre Baptist Mission is called for tomorrow, Tuesday evening, at 8 o'clock, at the Sayre Baptist church. All members are urged to be present.

Harry E. Dixey and his company are billed to appear at the Loomis on the evening of October 3, in "The Man on the Box." This will be one of the star attractions of the season.

The hearing in the case of Wm. Croll, charged by Marto Piagiario with aggravated assault, came up this afternoon before Justice Carey. The case was not finished when The Record went to press.

There will be amusement galore in the valley next week. A carnival company is to appear in Sayre, a repertoire company at the Loomis, and the park theatre will also furnish a fine attraction. Amusement lovers can take their choice.

Illegal train riders are making life burdensome for railroad men. The Lehigh Valley and other roads throughout the east swarm with tramps and hoboos of all descriptions, and the trainmen in most instances are powerless to prevent their securing free transportation.

The great pastoral drama, "An Orphan's Prayer," will be presented by the New York Standard Stock on Monday, Sept. 17. It is positively one of the best New England plays ever written. The New York Standard Stock will be at the Loomis for one week commencing Monday, Sept. 17.

Press reports speak in the most flattering terms of Howe's moving pictures which come to the Loomis on Saturday next. Howe has always stood in the front ranks in the moving picture business and the entertainment which will be given to the patrons of the Loomis on Saturday will be finished in every detail.

ITALIAN COLONY WANT PROTECTION

And the Italian Ambassador at Washington Promises That It Will Be Furnished

Shortly after the attempt was made to drive the Italian residents out of Sayre the foreigners communicated with the Italian consul, who is located at Philadelphia. The situation was laid before the consul and he took the matter up with the Italian ambassador at Washington, and the latter in turn called it to the attention of the United States authorities. This morning the Italians in Sayre received a reply from the ambassador in which he goes over the situation and gives them assurance that they will be protected in the future. The ambassador says that if the local authorities are unable to provide protection the United States will, even if it is necessary to call out the troops. There is no likelihood, however, of the trouble here reaching a point where it will be necessary to call upon the federal authorities. Thus far Sayre has been able to control those who are desirous of driving the foreigners out, and it is not thought that there will be another outbreak. Should there be another attempt at mob violence those who participate in it will find the local police authorities amply prepared, and it is up to the law abiding citizens to give the officers all the support that they need.

LOOMIS OPERA HOUSE

Next week's attraction at the Loomis Opera House will be the New York Standard Stock in a repertoire of new plays never before seen in Waverly. Each play is beautiful in sentiment and magnificently ornamented with special scenery. No scenic effect is lacking. Some of the plays presented are: "An Orphan's Prayer," "White Slaves of Egypt," "Queen of the Service," "White Frisco Was Burning," "Young King Brady Detective," "A Woman's Worst Enemy," "For His Daughter's Honor" and "Drunkard's Daughter." There is a vaudeville bill of unusual brilliance headed by the world's greatest originators—Gaspard Bros. in their scenic novelty transformation act. Matinee Wednesday and Saturday; Ladies Monday night 15c.

LEHIGH STATIONS ROBBED

The building which the Lehigh has been using for a station at East Waverly since the old depot burned was broken open some time during Saturday night or yesterday morning by unknown parties. Entrance was gained by breaking open a window in the south end. A number of round trip tickets between East Waverly and North Spencer and a few one way tickets to Lockwood was the only plunder secured by the thieves. Last night the Lehigh station at Mehoopany was also broken open but nothing was stolen except a pair of shoes.

INJURY WAS TRIFLING

When Timothy Sweeney showed up at the hospital last Saturday night, with his face and head soaked in blood, the surgeons, at that institution, on first glance, thought that Mr. Sweeney had been run over by a train of cars. An examination, however, disclosed the fact that he had sustained an abrasion of the scalp from which the blood flowed freely, but which was of a trifling nature. Mr. Sweeney could not give a coherent statement as to the manner in which he met with the accident.
