A REMARKABLE REMEDY

Turner's Inflammacin Efecting Cures That Are Little Short of Miraculous

Turner's Inflammacin, the new remedy that has been introduced in this valley within the last few months by E. LeRoy Burg Dorf, seems to have gained a strong hold on the popular favor as evidenced by the testimonials that follow. The remedy has been used by some of the employees of The Record, and gave good results. Inflammacin is a certain cure for piles, and Mr. Burg Dorf will be pleased to refer sufferers from piles to persons who have been cured by Inflammacin after years of doctoring in the usual way. Mrs. George Luther, 143 First street, Sayre, will be the local agent and will make a canvass of Sayre every two months. Mrs. Eliza Hoagland, 302 Desmond street, Sayre, is agent for Bradford county. The remedy can be obtained from either of these ladies at any time. It is made by the E. B. Turner Company, Bergen, N. Y. Read these testimonials:

Sayre, Pa., Sept. 6, 1906. Mr. E. B. Turner, Bergen, N. Y.

Dear Sir:—I am 78 years old and I have had the hay fever for the last 35 or 40 years, every year. I have tried many doctors and remedies and found only temporary relief. Your agent left a box of Turner's Inflammacin on trial at my house and the first application had the most soothing effect. From the second or third application it retarded the sneezing and discharge from my nose and eyes completely. After one week's treatment it did me more good than any remedy I ever tried. I now realize that I am perfectly free from hay fever. If I could not get another box of it, I would not take ten times the cost of the box for it. I would cheerfully recommend it to all sufferers with hay fever. J. H. Post, 114 Plummer St., Sayre, Pa.

I commenced using Inflammacin for goitre and in less than a month I could see a great change in my neck. I will gladly recommend Inflammacin to all that are afflicted with goitre. Mrs. E. A. Boggs, 469 Cayuta Ave., Waverly, N. Y.

So, Waverly, Sept. 4, 1906. Mr. E. B. Turner.

About 28 years ago, after giving birth to my oldest girl, I had a Milk Leg, was sick at that time for about 6 months. Then after 11 years ulcers broke out on both limbs and I have suffered from them ever since without finding any remedy to heal them. Your agent left a box of Turner's Inflammacin at my house on trial. I used it, found immediate relief, and bought up what of the remedy I could get of my neighbors. I have now used three boxes which have completely healed the ulcers and sores which I have been unable to heal for 19 years. I can cheerfully recommend your remedy to all women who are suffering from milk leg, and will be glad to answer any correspondence from anyone in regard to my miraculous cure. Mrs. Maggie Billing, 139 Pitney St., So. Waverly, Pa.

CROWD MUCH LARGER

Waverly—The crowd that attended the I. O. O. F. fair last night was even larger than that of the night before, and a larger sum was also realized. The fair, is a success so far in every particular. All the booths were well patronized, but the fish pond proved to be especially attractive. The Boys band gave one of its usual popular concerts, which pleased everybody. The indications are that the crowd tonight will even prove larger than that of last evening.

TRUSTEES MEET TONIGHT

Waverly—The trustees of the village will meet tonight for the purpose of passing a number of ordinances that will come up at that time. This is the result of a movement that was started some time ago to have all the old ordinances gone over, the dead ones repealed, and to pass any new ones that were needed.

BURIED TODAY

Waverly—The funeral of Mrs. Charles Mills, who died last Monday evening, was held this afternoon from her late home on Chemung street at 4 o'clock. The Rev. H. B. Cook conducted the funeral of Mrs. Charles Mills this afternoon.

A Refugee From Devastated Town Tells His Story.

BRUTALITY OF RUSSIAN SOLDIERY.

Fleeing From Massacre Unfortunates Make Their Way Through Wrecked Streets Where Dead and Dying Lay Uncared For.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 12.—A refugee from Siedlice, interviewed here, tells the following story: "I was staying Saturday at the Kupiecki hotel in Siedlice. Suddenly, at 9 o'clock in the evening, I heard two shots which were at once followed by a volley. In a few moments a number of Jewish women and children rushed into the hotel, pursued by soldiers. The shooting continued for an hour and then came to an end. Then the only noise from the streets was the crying and moaning of the wounded. At midnight several soldiers passed the house singing martial songs. I learned that troops had been searching houses in an effort to discover two members of the terrorist band.

"To this end they went through the Wiktorja hotel and pillaged the wine-room. They got drunk rapidly and, coming out on to the streets, began wholesale murder and plunder.

"At 2 o'clock Sunday morning terrorists who were defending a house on Pienka street threw a bomb at the soldiers. Batteries were at once brought into play and bombarded houses on Pienka and Warsaw streets. The Kupiecki hotel, where I was staying, was destroyed. Refugees were being through the streets, and as they ran the soldiers were constantly firing volleys at them.

"I ran with the others and managed to reach a church in safety. Here 300 fugitives, most of them wounded, already had congregated. I had passed down Sokolowka and Polwa streets and found that the market place had been burned.

"At the end of two days lack of food and water forced the refugees in this church to leave it. We made our way through streets covered with debris. There were many dead bodies and wounded persons lying about. We finally reached the village of Roskosz."

This refugee would not give his name, as he feared persecution at the hands of the police.

AT THE LOOMIS

The now historic wedding of King Alfonso and Princess Ena of Battenberg—especially historic because of the attempt at assassination—is one of the most notable of many great features to be reproduced by Lyman H. Howe in Loomis Opera House on Saturday, Sept. 15. The day was a beautiful one and therefore the pictures are of the finest photographic quality. Not the least interesting part of them are those parts showing the vast throngs of spectators, provincials, citizens, foreigners, the display of troops and body guards in historic uniforms. The streets are shown in their most gorgeous decorations. Heading the procession are the nineteen curious gala coaches of the lords and ladies of the court, each drawn by eight white horses gaily caparisoned. Next in order the pictures reveal the twenty-two state coaches containing the time-honored grandees of Spain. Then comes the crown coach occupied by King Alfonso and their to the throne. Closely following this is the dainty coach bearing Princess Ena. At the cathedral, the historic attendants of the Spanish kings and ecclesiastics add not only a splendor, but a brilliancy and interest to these great scenes that cannot possibly be imagined. Senators, deputies and the diplomatic corps still heighten the effect.
