O. E. S. INITIATED EIGHT CANDIDATES

State Officers Were Present and Also a Large Number of Out of Town Guests

West Sayre Chapter, No. 43, Order of the Eastern Star, held an interesting meeting in Trainmen's hall last night, at which time eight candidates were initiated into the mysteries of the order. The initiatory work was in the hands of the following officers: T. Wilbur Kyte, worthy grand patron of Pennsylvania; Mrs. Mary A. Strachen, past worthy grandmatron of Pennsylvania; Mrs. Prudence B. Lyon, most worthy past grand matron of New York state; John W. Clarke, past right worthy assistant grand lecturer of New York state; Mrs. Mary L. Clarke, past right worthy district deputy grand matron of New York state; Mrs. Alice Gillan, worthy matron of Waverly Star No. 9; Mrs. Lydia Smith and Mrs. Emma Tozer, past matrons of Waverly Star No. 9.

After the ceremonies refreshments were served and a most pleasant time was enjoyed by all. The following guests were present: J.W. Clarke, Mrs. Hattie Grumme, Mary I. Vail, Laura Wiltse, Clara E. Miller, Amanda A. Beebe, Minnie Osborn, Annie Brown, Electa A. Slawson, Marie Woodward, Mary M. Rogers, Francis Harris, Clara Bell Webber, Alice Ellis, Emma Tozer, Alice Smith, Nancy Lockerby, Lida Barton, Alice Gillan, Adeline Murray, Prudence B. Lyon, Isabel Ellis, Mary L. Clarke, Ida Groat, Emma Morton, Josephine Brown, Laura Gray, Eliza Terry, Ada Soverhill, Lydia Smith, Gertie Gillan, and Mrs. A. T. Merrill, all of Waverly; Eva Sackett, Rome, and Mrs. J. W. Grumme of Sayre.

HOSPITAL NOTES

Mrs. Fred Hoover of Homet's Ferry was discharged this forenoon.

Charles Cones, a laborer employed at the shops was treated at the hospital this forenoon for an extensive laceration of the left middle finger.

The handle of a drill struck Lewis Benjamin a severe blow on the left wrist causing a severe strain and contusion.

John Becraft, a switchman, went to the hospital last night where a wound 2 1/2 inches long in the scalp was closed by the surgeons at that institution. Becraft was walking along side the tank of an engine when a rake fell from the top striking him on the head.

THE STORY OF A BROKEN BOTTLE

A broken bottle of ketchup lying on the stone pavement on Desmond street tells the story of a bloody scrap which occurred last night between 11 and 12 o'clock. The combatants had indulged freely in liquid refreshments and then engaged in an argument which was followed by blows. One of the men in some manner secured a bottle of ketchup, with which he struck his antagonist over the head.

The fellow who received the blow went to the hospital where several stitches were required to sew up an ugly looking wound in his head.

TOOK SULPHATE OF ZINC FOR SALTS

Lloyd, the 16-year-old son of George Armstrong, went to the pantry at the family home this morning to secure a dose of salts. The salts had heretofore been kept in a can, but recently it appears the young man's mother had changed the salts to a paper sack, and had filled the can with sulphate of zinc. Unaware of the change young Armstrong took a teaspoonful of the sulphate and shortly afterward the services of a physician were needed. Antidotes were given and he is recovering.

MOVING PICTURES

The ablest exponent today of all that pertains to moving pictures is unquestionably Lyman H. Howe. His name stands for all that is progressive, original, legitimate, successful. The quality, tone and beauty of the new program is uplifting. Its humor is wholesome. It repels dull care and supplants it with the brightness of life and laughter. It will be seen this afternoon and evening at the Loomis Opera House.

PERSONAL MENTION

W. F. Barnum was in Troy yesterday.

Horace Rouse, a machinist, left this morning for Allentown.

H. H. Mercereau, Esq., will spend Sunday in Wilkesbarre.

Miss Jessie Warner of Ithaca, is the guest of Miss Ethel Wood.

Mrs. Edward Heckle went to Patterson, N. J., this morning where she will join her husband.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Reinhold left this morning for New York city where they will spend several days as the guest of friends.

Mrs. Grace, who has been the guest of her sister, Mrs. B. L. Lewis, for several days, returned to her home at Jersey City this morning.

Ed. Welch and wife of Geneva are guests at the home of Humphrey Rounds of Center street. "Shanty" and Mrs. Welch formerly lived here.

Calvin S. Gay, Esq., left this morning for Annetam, Md., where he will be the guest of the state of Pennsylvania at the unveiling of a soldiers' monument.

C. S. Mann and wife of North Wilbur avenue went to Niagara Falls this morning. Mr. Mann goes as delegate from the local carpenter's and joiner's union.

Claude Thompson Esq., of New York city, who has been spending several days in Sayre visiting with friends and relatives, returned to his former home at Towanda this morning. Later he will return to New York.

PLEASANTLY SURPRISED

About forty members of the L. A. of the O. R. C. gathered at the home of Mrs. William McDonald, 315 North Lehigh avenue, last night, and gave that lady a most pleasant surprise. During the evening she was presented a handsome rocker as a slight token of the esteem in which she is held by the organization of which she is a member. Ackley's orchestra furnished music for dancing which was enjoyed until a late hour. Refreshments were served and every body conceded that the evening had been most pleasantly spent.

"JESSE JAMES"

It is without doubt that there never was a more exciting history of the life of any man than that of Jesse James of Missouri. Press and public alike discussed his exploits. The dramatization of the life of this famous man from boyhood to his untimely end has been accomplished and will be presented by Mitchell's All Star Players this evening. Although the exciting incidents predominate there is plenty of good, refreshing comedy, and just enough pathos to make the play one of great interest.

CHURCH OF THE REDEEMER

At the Church of the Redeemer tomorrow evening Horace Kinney will give an organ prelude, including the following selections: Prelude: Lohengrin . . . Wagner
Fantasia; A Minor . . . Semmes
Sonata, No. 3 Guilmot
Capriccio E. Lemaigre
Pastorale A Foote
Festival March A Foote
Miss Grace Stimson of Athens will sing the offertory solo, "Out of the Deep."

BROKE HER ARM

Mary Drislane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Drislane, fell on the porch of the family home and broke her right arm. The fracture was reduced at the hospital.

THE FIFTH ANNUAL FIREMEN'S PARADE

The Big Event Will Be Pulled Off in Sayre on Thursday Next

The fifth annual parade of the Valley Firemen's Association will be held in Sayre on Thursday next. The local firemen have completed the arrangements with the exception of a few of the minor details and these will be attended to without delay. The various committees have worked hard to make the affair a success and from present indications it will be the largest yet held by the association.

In order, however, that the event shall turn out as the committee of arrangements have planned, it will be necessary for each and every citizen of the borough to lend a helping hand. Citizens along the line of march are requested to decorate their homes. The business places should also decorate, and in fact every one should do all that they can to contribute to the success of the event.

The program for the day, including the line of march, which will form at 2:30 o'clock, and move promptly at 3:00 o'clock, follows:

- FIRST DIVISION. Form on Lockhart street. Grand Marshal, Elmer A. Wilber. Marshalls, Robt. Wass, M. F. Meo. Chief Engineer and visiting Chiefs. Northern Central Band, Elmira. Elmira Exempt. Franklin Steamer Co., Towanda. Mantua H. & L. Co., Towanda. Good Will Hose, Laceyville.
- SECOND DIVISION. Form on Packer avenue. Marshalls, John Hill, S. A. Bish. Nichols band. Tioga Hose, Waverly. Waverly Hook and Ladder Co. Spaulding Hose, Waverly. Boys band, Waverly. Cayuta Hose, Waverly.
- THIRD DIVISION. Form on Packer avenue. Marshalls, John Laux, Walter Brooks. Hosmer's band, Athens. Wilbur Hook and Ladder Co. Packer Hose. Drum Corps. R. H. Sayre Hose. Howard Elmer Hose. J. E. Wheelock Hose. Lehigh Fire Brigade. Thornton's band. Rescue Hose. Erie Hose. Dorktown Fire Brigade. Veteran firemen. Borough council. Guests in carriages. Floats.

- COMMITTEE IN CHARGE. John Hammond, chief engineer; Jas. E. Lyon, first assistant; C. A. Beibach, second assistant; George Rounds, third assistant; George Case, fourth assistant; F. Wass, secretary; M. J. Farrell, treasurer; Elmer A. Wilber, chief marshal; Robert Wass, M. F. Meo, S. A. Bish, John Laux, assistants to chief marshal.
- LINE OF MARCH. Desmond to Lincoln, to Keystone, to Maple, to Wilbur, to Lockhart, to Hopkins, to Stevenson, to Elmer, to Seneca, to Lehigh, to Allison, to Elmer, to Packer, to Thomas, to East Packer, to East street, to Holly, to Thomas, to Packer, to Elmer, to Hayden and counter-march on Elmer.

SYRIAN LEPER IS AGAIN AT LARGE

Man Who Has Caused Consternation in This Section Escapes From Custody

George Rossetti, the Syrian leper, who occupied the Lehigh Valley freight car, of which so much has been written recently, and who caused consternation in Maryland and West Virginia, is again at large. Last night he was headed for Richmond on a Baltimore & Ohio gondola car. A cordon of police was ordered to detain him at Westchester, but he was master of the situation as the police on railroad men did not dare go near enough to him to put him off the train.
