HIS MIND UNBALANCED

Athens—Ed. McAsey, about eight years ago, became insane and was sent to the asylum for a time, until he became rational, when he returned to his home in Ridgebury, where he has resided since. His old malady has been troubling him recently and he now has become violent and has disturbed the whole neighborhood and threatened to murder some of his own family. He has pursued his mother and brother several times with an axe and everybody has become afraid of him. Yesterday he went to the Ridgebury church, and as the people were coming in he began to break up the seats and pews and throw them all around. He got his pockets filled with stones which he threw at different persons. Jim Bustin came to Athens and got Chief Mulligan, who went over there and arrested him and he was brought to Athens and locked up in the borough cages. He raised a great noise and tore his clothes nearly all off from him. Some measures will be taken today to have him sent to the asylum.

Permanent Dentistry Bring Your Job Printing to
A quarter of a century ago we placed some gold fillings in the teeth of a well known gentleman at present a resident of Sayre. These fillings today are just as bright, firm and useful as the day they were made. We will tell you the name of the party, if you wish to see him yourself.
There are variations in dental workmanship, just as there are differences in the various brands of flour. If you desire the highest degree of proficiency—the skill and knowledge that will make YOUR fillings serviceable twenty-five years from today—come in or phone for an appointment. On the other hand, if you take pleasure in having your teeth filled over and over again every year or two, you should go elsewhere—we do not do that kind of work.

WASHINGTON DAY IN HUNGARY.

Budapest Celebrates Unveiling of Statue of Our First President.

BUDAPEST, Sept. 17.—George Washington day was celebrated in Hungary's capital, and the entire population from morning until night gave itself up to enthusiasm over the unveiling on monarchical territory of a monument to the first president of the United States. The stars and stripes and the Hungarian colors intertwined were to be seen everywhere. In the morning there were special sermons in many of the churches, the preachers calling attention to the importance of the event. Thousands of persons lined the streets through which passed an imposing parade to the city park, in which the monument stands. Thirty thousand persons were in the park, which was surrounded by many thousands more. Francis Kossuth, Hungarian minister of commerce, who unveiled the statue, and Count Albert Apponyi, minister of worship, represented the Independent party at the ceremonies, but were not present in their capacities as government officials. The attendance included numerous members of the diet, the various municipal officials, Mr. Chester, the American consul general; 500 Hungarian-Americans headed by E. T. Kohany of Cleveland, O., and delegates from patriotic societies in all parts of Hungary. Prior to the unveiling united choirs sang the Hungarian and then the American national anthem and other hymns. The monument was unveiled amid scenes of great enthusiasm. Herr Rakovsk, vice president of the chamber of deputies, was the orator of the day. He dwelt at length on Washington's great work for the cause of civilization, not only for the United States, but for all the world. At a banquet at night Herr Baury toasted President Roosevelt and Count General Chester proposed the health of the king of Hungary.

General Action For Two Cent Fare.

Mr. Williams recently communicated with the governors of all the states with a view of obtaining their sentiments on this question. A number of the governors are personally favorable to a two cent fare, and some tell of movements in their states to obtain it.

ST. JOHN'S, N. In all eleven fishing vessels returning here from Labrador with the season's catch were driven ashore, and the 140 men, women and children aboard barely escaped with their lives. The snacks with their cargoes are total losses. The Flona will bring the fishermen here.

LAKE PLACID, N. Y., Sept. 17.—"Trade Schools and Their Relation to General Education" was discussed by Mrs. Mary Schenck Woolman, director of the Manhattan Trade School For Girls, before the Lake Placid conference on home economics, which has opened here. Continental Europe, Mrs. Woolman said, was far ahead of English speaking nations in the matter of trade schools, affording foreign manufacturers an advantage over American competitors.

Texas Mob Hanged a Negro.

ROSEBUD, Tex., Sept. 17.—A mob of 100 farmers hanged Mitchell Frazier, a negro, here last night because he pushed Frank Hess, a white farmer, from a walk. They pushed him aside and breaking in the door, took the negro to a scaffolding supporting a tank and hanged him.
