BRYAN'S TOUR SOUTH

Nebraska at Atlanta, Great City of Georgia. A DEMOCRATIC DOLLAR BANQUET. Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 21.—For one hour and fifteen minutes W. J. Bryan addressed about 7,000 people gathered at the skating rink of the Ponce de Leon park. His reception was cordial and hearty.

Mr. Bryan touched upon Secretary Shaw's speeches and the tariff question and what he regarded as President Roosevelt's borrowings from the Democratic platform, socialism and the independence of the Philippines. He told several stories to illustrate his arguments.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan on arrival here were escorted to the Piedmont hotel, where Mr. Bryan had a private interview with Hoke Smith, Georgia's next governor, and held a general reception to the public, attended by about 1,000 citizens of Atlanta and other Georgians.

The principal events of the day were the address by Mr. Bryan and a "Democratic dollar dinner," attended by 400 citizens. Mrs. Bryan was the guest of the society women of Atlanta at several functions more or less formal.

Mr. Bryan began his address after an introduction by President Lamar Hill of the Young Men's Democratic League and by Judge Hubert Arnold, both of whom referred to Mr. Bryan as the next president. He said he wished he could enter into the appreciation of the prophecy with which he had been introduced, but the experience of past years, he said, took away something of the warmth of such appreciation.

He answered Secretary Shaw's recent southern speeches on the tariff question and reviewed the last ten years of Republican administration, declaring them to have been unparalleled in prosperity. The bounty of God had brought circumstances for which Republicans had claimed credit.

Mr. Bryan discussed the things for which he asserted President Roosevelt had drawn his inspiration from Democratic principles. His attack on trusts, undertaken but not carried far enough, said Mr. Bryan, the settling of a great strike, the passage of the railroad rate law by Democratic aid in congress were the matters for which he claimed Democratic inspiration.

The independence of the Philippines, Mr. Bryan said, had been impressed on him by his recent travels as most desirable and wise, as the fitness of the islands for self government had already been indicated.

BELLE OF PEQUEST AT 20 TO 1

Oceanview Handicap Won by Outsider at Gravesend Track. NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—Belle of Pequest, a 20 to 1 shot, was the surprise at Gravesend when she won the Oceanview handicap, one mile and a sixteenth, where she met and defeated some fair handicap horses. Hot Toddy was second and Nealon, second choice, third.

Liquorier, the favorite, performed very badly, snubbing away back in the rack. Belle of Pequest took the lead soon after the start, followed by Nealon and Hot Toddy. Belle of Pequest continued to show the way to the stretch. Hot Toddy began to close up in the stretch, but was never able to catch Belle of Pequest, who won handily by one length. Two favorites won summaries:

First Race—Brookdale Nymph, first; Bohemia, second; Oriole, third. Second Race—Ace High, first; Rappahannock, second; Yorklet, third.

Third Race—Samuel H. Harris, first; John Lyle, second; Tartan, third. Fourth Race—Belle of Pequest, first; Hot Toddy, second; Nealon, third.

Fifth Race—The Wrestler, first; Frank Gill, second; Eddie Ware, third. Sixth Race—Flyback, first; Bragg, second; Luckert, third.

FUNSTON FOR CUBA

Taft Orders General to Havana at Once. PREPARATION IS THE WATCHWORD. Activity in Army and Navy—More Outrages by Rebels—Plantations Ask Aid—Guerra Marching With 5,000 Men.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—General Frederick Funston, in obedience to orders from Secretary Taft, goes to Cuba at once. He will proceed to Havana with as much expedition as possible. General Funston states that further than his orders from the secretary he knows nothing of the duty for which he is destined on the island.

General Funston is particularly acquainted with the conditions existing before the Spanish war, and it is pointed out at the department that he is prepared to give the secretary more information than any other man in the army on that subject.

General Funston, asked in regard to his having command in Cuba in case the United States intervenes and sends an army there, refused to say anything on that matter.

Before leaving General Funston was in consultation with General Bell, chief of staff, and other officers, preparatory to departing for Havana.

Preparation is the watchword of the army and navy regarding Cuba. Not only have complete plans been prepared, but every department was made arrangements to meet the emergency of intervention if it should occur.

WOODRUFF NAMED

Republican State Convention at New Haven. E. J. LAKE VICTOR OVER WEEKS. Platform Adopted—Indorses Policy of Roosevelt and Deals Largely With State Needs—All Young Men on Committee.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 21.—The Republican state ticket for the biennial election in Connecticut, this fall was chosen at the party's state convention here, the proceedings being marked by harmony in transacting routing affairs and dignity in the making of nominating speeches. The ticket was as previously arranged with a contest for lieutenant governor, which required a ballot.

The complete ticket follows: For Governor—Rollin S. Woodruff of New Haven. Lieutenant Governor—Everett J. Lake of Hartford.

Secretary of State—Theodore S. Bodewein of New London. Treasurer—Freeman F. Patten of Stafford Springs.

Comptroller—Thomas D. Braffstreet of Thomaston. Attorney General—Marcus H. Holcomb of Southington.

Congressman at Large—George L. Lilley of Waterbury. Mr. Lake was opposed by F. B. Weeks of Middletown, and the ballotting represented the respective strength of the adherents of United States Senator Bulkeley of Hartford and State Senator Allen W. Paige of Bridgeport for the party leadership, the latter having stood behind Mr. Lake in his canvass.

The strength of Mr. Weeks' proved to be greater than predicted, and it is believed that the oratory of his friends who took the floor to urge his nomination had much to do with rolling up the votes, he having 231 to 240 for Mr. Lake. The other officers were named by acclamation save Mr. Bodewein for secretary of state, but in this instance an opponent had his name withdrawn while a rising vote was being counted.

The other officers were named by acclamation save Mr. Bodewein for secretary of state, but in this instance an opponent had his name withdrawn while a rising vote was being counted.

The platform, which was adopted with enthusiasm after endorsing President Roosevelt and the Republican party, gives attention to state needs, more particularly the right of trial by jury and substitution of a salary for a fee system in county administrations, which are two of the planks of the Democratic platform.

An interesting feature of the convention is found in the fact that the nominees and the members of the new state central committee which will direct the campaign are nearly all young men who have come to the front in the last two campaigns.

DOCTORS APPEAL FOR PATRICK.

Governor Higgins Receives Unusual Petition to Aid Convict. ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 21.—Nearly 3,500 physicians of the state, representing 531 cities and towns and including some of the best known in the profession, are signers of a petition presented to Governor Higgins in behalf of Albert T. Patrick, the New York lawyer convicted and under sentence of death since 1901 for the alleged murder of the aged millionaire, William Marsh Rice, in September, 1900.

The petition is as follows: "We, the undersigned physicians of New York state, have read the medical testimony presented on a motion for a new trial to Recorder Goff in the case of Albert T. Patrick, charged with the murder of William Marsh Rice.

"The conclusions of the experts who testified on the motion are quite at variance, and the questions are novel as well as grave and important to the members of society and especially to the defendant and therefore should be justly solved. To this end we petition your excellency to appoint a commission composed of disinterested experts selected from the medical profession to examine impartially into the questions at issue."

The petition was presented by F. G. Logan, a prominent Chicago business man, partner of John T. Milliken, whose wife is Patrick's sister, and Samuel B. Thomas of New York, of counsel for Patrick. Governor Higgins received Messrs. Logan and Thomas in his private office behind closed doors, and afterward neither of them would discuss their conversation with the governor, leaving it to him to make the matter public. After they had gone the governor explained the nature of their application and said: "I told these gentlemen that I knew of no authority vested in me by which I could appoint the commission for which they asked nor of any jurisdiction on my part over the case in the absence of a definite application for a pardon or executive clemency. They are to file with me references to the law upon which they rely in asking for this medical commission and I intimated that they might make application for a pardon or other form of clemency in case of the failure of the pending application for admission of the case to the United States supreme court.

PURE FOOD CONFERENCE.

New York State a Dumping Ground For Inferior Foodstuffs. NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—This state is the dumping ground for all sorts of food products that are barred from other states.

This statement was made at the pure food conference in the Federal building by G. L. Flanders, assistant commissioner of agriculture for this state. He added: "The law has been practically a dead letter in New York, and no such regulations obtain here as in Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and even South Dakota. The state of New York is a good market for honest food products, but it is the best market in the world for inferior products."

Henry A. Johnson of Boston interrupted Mr. Flanders to ask if his remarks were pertinent to the hearing. Chairman Wiley ruled that the remarks were out of order, and Mr. Flanders withdrew.

Mr. Johnson spoke in favor of permitting the use of preservatives in foods on the ground that a great industry would be completely destroyed, for there would be no way of manufacturing their product without using preservatives.

ROSEBEN AND LADY AMELIA TO RACE.

It is to be for three-year-olds and upward, $500 to enter and $50 forfeit, weight for age and add $2,500, fast track and no race, distance about three-fourths of a mile and the race to be run next Thursday.

Formerly he was a merchant. He is survived by three sons—E. Rollins Morse, a New York banker; Charles Torrey Morse of Beverly and John Torrey Morse, Jr., the biographer and historian.

LIFE SENTENCE FOR BRUTAL MURDER.

GLOVERSVILLE, N. Y., Sept. 21.—At the case of Henry Hartman, who has been on trial for ten days past on the charge of having murdered Willard Letson, an Adirondack guide, rendered a verdict convicting the accused of murder in the second degree. Justice Spencer immediately sentenced Hartman to Dannemora prison for life. The defense was insanity caused by the use of alcoholic stimulants, although the defense did not deny that Hartman murdered Letson and that the crime was one of the most brutal ever committed in the Adirondack region.
