FIREMEN PARADE DESPITE THE RAIN

Terrific Downpour Mars But Does Not Prevent Yesterday's Big Event

Despite a terrific downpour of rain the Valley Firemen's Association and their invited guests paraded the streets of Sayre yesterday afternoon, and when ranks were broken those who had participated were drenched to the skin. Jupiter Pluvius began to do business in the early hours of the morning, and a half hour after it began raining the thick dust in the streets of Sayre had been changed into mud. With the exception of two or three brief intervals rain fell until the early hours of the evening, and at times it looked as if the big parade might be abandoned. Shortly before the hour of four, however, the rain ceased falling and it was decided to form the line and move over the principal thoroughfares on the sidewalks. Within five minutes after the start was made rain began falling in torrents. The firemen braved the elements, however, and covered several of the principal streets, without regard to the program which had been previously arranged. When they returned to their various headquarters they were wet through and through.

Although the rain was badly needed it spoiled what would have been the greatest firemanic event ever seen in Sayre. The local firemen for weeks have worked almost night and day to make the fifth annual parade of the association a success. The details had been carefully arranged, the business places and many private residences had been handsomely and appropriately decorated, but the fates in the shape of an unlooked for storm, or a distinctly local nature, marred the pleasures of the day.

The firemen, however, are deserving of unlimited praise for what they did under the circumstances, and although there was no attempt to carry out the regular program, so far as the line of march was concerned, the big crowd which had gathered from far and near, were apparently satisfied and lavished unstinted praise upon the firemen for doing the best they could.

All of the out-of-town companies that had accepted invitations, responded, in spite of the disagreeable weather. The famous Exempt of Elmira, accompanied by the Northern Central band, arrived here early in the forenoon. This organization is composed of men well along in years, and they made a fine appearance.

Towanda and Laceyville organizations arrived later in the day, and at noontime all of the visitors were being well cared for by the local firemen.

The parade was scheduled to take place at three o'clock, but it was the hour of four when the Exempt took their places at the head of the line. The rain then had ceased falling, but almost at the instant the signal was given to start the skies poured forth another deluge.

The following was the order of the parade:

FIRST DIVISION.
Grand Marshal, Elmer A. Wilber.
Marshals, Robt. Wass, M. P. Mee,
Chief Engineer and visiting Chiefs,
Northern Central Band, Elmira,

DECKER ARRESTED ON TWO CHARGES

His Sister-in-law Secures One and His Mother-in-law the Other

Fred Decker was arraigned before Justice Nelson this morning on a charge of making threats. The complainant in the case is Mrs. Louise Thompson, the mother of Decker's wife. She alleges that her son-in-law threatened her with personal violence.

Last night Decker's sister-in-law, Miss Caroline Thompson, secured a warrant for his arrest, charging him with choking his wife, but when he was arrested his better half did not wish to prosecute. Her mother thought differently, hence the second warrant for surety of the peace.

Decker, it is alleged, filled up with booze yesterday, and then went to his home and proceeded to play rough house. He is said to have taken his wife by the neck and choked her good and hard.

The charges against Decker were withdrawn this morning.

KIPP NOMINATED BY THE DEMOCRATS

Congressional Conference Was Held at Tunkhannock Yesterday Afternoon

At the Democratic Congressional conference held at Tunkhannock yesterday George W. Kipp, of Towanda, was nominated as candidate for congress from this district. Yesterday's Record exclusively foretold Mr Kipp's nomination.

Immediately after the conference the Lincoln Republicans met in convention and endorsed the Hon. Mial E. Lilley, the present congressman. The Bradford delegation, however, refused to abide by the decision of the convention and endorsed Mr. Kipp.

BUYS THE HOYT FARM

Yesterday afternoon Paul E. Maynard, the well known attorney purchased from L. T. Hoyt the latter's farm situated just across the river east of Athens.

The farm implements, stock, etc., are also included in the purchase and Mr. Maynard will take possession as soon as Mr. Hoyt can vacate. The latter will move his family to the Owenshire house on Main street, Athens. The farm which he has sold to Mr. Maynard is one of the most attractive country places in this section. It consists of about 38 acres of land under a fine state of cultivation, which has recently been used for truck gardening. The house, while of an old fashioned type, has been extensively altered by Mr. Hoyt and is regarded by those who are acquainted with its interior as being one of the finest country seats in this section.

"KING KELLEY"

"King Kelley," once a noble Thespian, but whose time is now occupied in putting down whiskey, made a pilgrimage to Sayre yesterday, but before the hours of evening grew late the king of all the tramps found himself an inmate of the borough bug house. The "king" had become helplessly drunk and was placed in durance vile for sale keeping. This morning he was released and told to hie himself to Ithaca, where he claims a voting residence.

MORE BLOODSHED FEARED

As a result of the Italian disturbances which occurred at Wysox on Wednesday a number of the foreigners went to Towanda yesterday and purchased firearms and weapons of all sorts. The Lehigh Valley officers at this place were notified of the purchases and went to Wysox, where further trouble is feared.

LOCAL ODD FELLOWS NOMINATE OFFICERS

Winter Season Promises to Be a Busy One for This Excellent Organization

Although there were many outside attractions last night there was a large turnout at the meeting of Sayre Lodge, No. 1090, I. O. O. F. The most important business of the session last night was the placing in nomination officers for the ensuing year. The result follows: Noble grand, William R. Conine; vice grand, Miles K. Hudson; financial secretary, Willis P. Weeks; recording secretary, Clarence C. Walker; treasurer, B. L. Lewis; trustee for eighteen months, Ed. Peters; representative to grand lodge, James Adam.

Word was received from District Deputy Grand Master Molyneaux of New Albany that he will be in Sayre on October 4 to install the regularly elected officers. On that date the initiatory degree will be worked, and the regular degree team is requested to note this fact and prepare for drill.

The regular season opens auspiciously for the Odd Fellows and great things are expected during the winter months.

ITALIAN LABORER'S BACK BROKEN

He Was Struck by One of the Big Concrete Buckets at Towanda this Morning

Suffering from a fracture of the spinal column and a frightful laceration of the scalp, an Italian whose name could not be learned was brought here this forenoon and operated upon at the hospital. The Italian had been employed for some time on the construction work at Towanda. This morning he was engaged in emptying one of the big buckets which carry concrete to the piers of the new bridge. After the bucket was emptied it swung to and fro, and before the Italian could get out of the way it struck him on the head, knocking him down.

He fell against a pile of timbers and it is presumed that in the fall his back was broken. Surgeons at the hospital express but slight hope for his recovery.

ATTEMPT AT BURGLARY

About 8 o'clock last night Mrs. Ella Williams, who lives with her brother, E. M. Thompson, at the corner of Spring and Bradford streets, became alarmed at a noise she heard in the rear of the house. The noise sounded as if a man was walking on the roof of the summer kitchen. She informed Mr. Thompson, who made an investigation. He went to the rear of the house, but in the darkness could see nothing. This morning Mr. Thompson investigated again. This time he discovered that several pickets had been broken from the fence back of the house, and the tracks of a man were also found in the mud. A window in the main part of the house was open and from tracks found on the roof it is believed that a man had entered the window, but had become frightened and ran away.

LEHIGH'S ANNUAL REPORT

The annual report of the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company for the fiscal year, ending June 30, 1906, was made public after the adjournment of the regular meeting of the board of directors held at Philadelphia yesterday. The report shows that in spite of the great reduction of freight carried in April and May, because of the anthracite strike, the gross earnings over 1905 increased $1,514,013 91. The loss during the past year in income has, however, been over a quarter million of dollars.
