THIEVES SECURE VALUABLE TRUNK

It Contained Nearly $500 in Money and Was Stolen From a Boarding House Last Night

This morning Joe Benint, a Hungarian, who conducts a boarding house for his countrymen at No 116 East street, had occasion to use a small amount of money. Joe has been in the habit of keeping his money in a trunk, and when he retired last night the trunk contained between $400 and $500 in greenback, besides clothing which belonged to his wife and child. This morning, however, shortly after he had eaten his breakfast Joe went to the room where he left the trunk in apparent security last night, but to his consternation and dismay, it was missing. He searched the house from top to bottom but no trace of it could be found.

Joe accommodates eight boarders at his house, and his trunk is used by them as sort of a bank, the men giving their money to Joe for safe keeping and he in turn placing it in the trunk.

This morning Mrs. Benint arose first, but says that she did not notice anything unusual about the appearance of the house. The back door had been left open during the night, and in this manner the thieves are presumed to have gained entrance.

The robbery was at once reported to Chief of Police Walsh this morning and that official went to work. He telephoned to the officers in Sayre and Athens, and also visited the various railroad stations in the three towns, but no trace of the trunk or contents could be found. He procured search warrants with which to search several houses in the neighborhood of the Benint house that are under suspicion.

The robbery was a bold one and is evidently the work of parties who had knowledge of the trunk and its contents. Benint is a poor man and can ill afford the loss.

AT THE LOOMIS

The New York Standard Stock company closes a week's engagement at this place, but was recently transferred to Buffalo. The gift which he received today is but a slight token of the esteem in which he is held by the men who were formerly employed under him. Mr. Hammond, of the committee, acted as spokesman, and in a neat speech he presented the gift to Mr. Kells. The latter responded feelingly, and assured the men of his interest in their future welfare.

"THE CHOIR SINGER"

It is not often that any play meets with such instant success as did "The Choir Singer" on its recent presentation in New York city. Large audiences greeted the play at its every performance and it has already become firmly established as one of the real hits of the current season. "The Choir Singer" beautifully and elaborately staged and with a large company of unusual excellence will be the attraction at the Loomis on Friday evening, Sept. 28.

STONE BALLASTING NEARLY COMPLETED

Lehigh Valley Will Soon Have One of the Finest Roadbeds in America

The work along the line of the Lehigh Valley, which requires the services of over 400 Italians, has progressed to a point where the company will soon have one of the finest roadbeds of any trunkline in America. When the stone ballast work is completed from Tunkhannock to Wyalusing the entire roadbed, with the exception of a small piece near Towanda, will be in excellent condition. It requires about 125 carloads of crushed stone to the mile.

The bartenders of Sayre, Athens and Waverly will hold their annual outing on Sept. 23. Their Owego brethren will join them and a fine time is anticipated. Sayre members of the profession are requested to take the 8:07 trolley car at the Wilbur house in the morning.

MR. KELLS SURPRISED

Today noon M. H. Farrell, John Hammond, James Damon, and H. R. Allen, a committee representing the employes of the round house and some of the road men, waited upon Willard R. Kells and presented that gentleman an elegant pair of field glasses. Mr. Kells was formerly master mechanic at this place, but was recently transferred to Buffalo. The gift which he received today is but a slight token of the esteem in which he is held by the men who were formerly employed under him. Mr. Hammond, of the committee, acted as spokesman, and in a neat speech he presented the gift to Mr. Kells. The latter responded feelingly, and assured the men of his interest in their future welfare.

WERE TAKING A BATH

Yesterday afternoon Special Officer John Hummell brought several young men to police headquarters whom he had discovered taking a bath in the Susquehanna river just above the new bridge. They had divested themselves of their garments on this side the river and were having a high old time in the vicinity of one of the eel racks. They said that they belonged to the carnival company and had been told that so harm could come from swimming at the point mentioned. On account of their being strangers they were not placed under arrest.

FUND DID NOT MEET EXPENSES

Fire Department Committee Lacked Twelve Dollars and Forty Two Cents When They Paid Their Bills

When the officials of the Sayre fire department settled up the expenses of the parade held on Thursday it was discovered that the treasury lacked just $12.42 of having enough money to pay the bills. The entire expense of conducting the convention and parade was $428.90. From different sources the department received $407.48. The receipts from the carnival held in July amounted to $178.00; the council appropriated $100.00 and the Business Men's Association also gave the department $128. Other smaller amounts brought the total up to $407.48. The difference between the amount expended and the amount received left a deficiency of $21.42, but today M. H. Sawtelle subscribed $5 and the Business Men's Association gave $4, which was not collected in time to turn with the original amount, thus reducing the shortage to $12.42.

The major part of the money was paid out for meals furnished the visiting firemen. The local department had calculated upon feeding about 350 people, but instead 457 meals were provided and paid for. The Wilbur house furnished 201 meals, the King's Daughters 150, and the Park hotel 106. None of the Sayre firemen were furnished meals by the department.

The committee having charge of the financial part of the affair are entitled to great credit for the economical manner in which the funds in their hands have been expended.

D. A. R. MEETING

A book case has been purchased and will very soon be placed in the library. This will contain the books of the chapter. Mrs. Bishop gave a short report of the meeting of the Tunkhannock chapter, which Mrs. Maurice and she attended two weeks ago. The State conference will be held in Clearfield November 13, 14 and 15, and some members of Tioga Chapter expect to attend. Mrs. West spoke of the ruins of Fort Genge, Fort William Henry and Fort Ticonderoga, which she recently visited. At the close of the business meeting, a picnic supper was served. The next meeting of the chapter will be the annual meeting, and will be held Oct. 17, in the Spalding library.
