Ladies' toilet room fitted out complete. Ladies' rest and waiting room, where you can enjoy a rest on a couch or a large rocker. Where you can meet a friend.

Where both 'phones are at your service. Where you can write a letter and mail it in Where every article is sold for just what it is, and we stand ready to make good every representation whether spoken or written.

Where one price governs (the lowest) so your neighbor buys for no less than you do. That's unusual, perhaps, but a fact.

Where, if goods are not exactly what you thought, if your taste changes, if you find you can buy the same article somewhere else for less money, if you conclude you don't need it when you get home, bring it back uninjured and the full amount of money paid by you will be returned on the spot.

Where you get a service equal to city stores and where if you ask us for a piece of merchandise which is not in stock we can accomplish its delivery to you in a few days time.

Where you get direct New York representation and a service through our New York offices,

No. 491 Broadway, one flight up. Where you pay cash for the goods you buy and not for what others have bought and did not pay for. That's why you get it here for less. These advantages appeal to thrifty buyers. That's why we are growing. Look us over; look elsewhere, then this ad will be more appreciated.

TRUSTEE MEETING

Waverly-The village trustees met last night and held a short meeting. Very little business was transacted and the board adjourned early. Notice was served on the Erie to repair and place on grade all walks crossing their tracks. A resolution was also passed that any individual, firm or corporation building crosswalks for the village be required to give a bond for the faithful performance of the work, to protect the village from damages resulting from such work, the amount of the bond to be fixed and the security to be approved by the president.

STAGE-DECKER

Waverly-George M. Stage of Auburn, N.Y., and Miss Lida Elva Decker of Maine, N.Y., were mary ried at the Baptist parsonage las evening by Rev. G. A. Briggs.

BECAME OFFICIOUS

Waverly-Jerome Bennett was arrested this morning for an assault on a man named Decker, and when brought before Judge Hoagland he plead guilty to the charge and was fined $4, which he paid. Bennett works for S. C. Smith and in the absence of Mr. Smith he sometimes acts as boss of the gang that is engaged in putting down cement walks. Yesterday afternoon he was acting in that capacity, when he told Decker to do a certain piece of work which he refused to do. Bennett, exercising his authority as boss, slapped him, whereupon Mrs. Susan Hedges of Liberty Decker procured his arrest.

CROWD TOO LARCE

Waverly-The harvest supper at the Baptist church last night was a great success in every way with the exception that there was not sufficient provision to feed all who wished to attend. The place was crowded from the opening of the doors, and those in charge were kept busy until the supply of provision was exhausted, when it was necessary to discontinue. A large sum was realized
