STOLEN TRUNK IS FOUND NEAR RIVER

Contents Scattered on the Ground But No Trace of the Money It Contained

The trunk which was stolen from Joe Bennett's home on East street, some time during Friday night, was found late Saturday afternoon along the bank of the Susquehanna river, near the new bridge, by Chief Walsh. The trunk had been broken open, and the clothing which it contained was scattered over the ground. A child's bank, which had contained a small amount of change, was found among the clothing. It had also been broken open and the contents taken. The $675, which Bennett now says was in the trunk, could not be found. The trunk had evidently been carried to the river by parties who were perfectly familiar with the surroundings as the place where it was found is a secluded one. The police are firm in their belief that the trunk was stolen from Bennett's house by persons acquainted with its interior, and the fact that the trunk contained a large amount of money. They are unable, however, to find even a clue that tends to fasten the guilt upon any one.

Saturday night Bennett insisted that his boarders should go before a magistrate and make oath that they had nothing to do with taking the trunk. Chief Walsh accordingly rounded up eight of the boarders, all Hungarians, and took them before Justice Nelson. Each of the foreigners swore that they had nothing to do with the theft and this appeared to appease Bennett who is perfectly satisfied of their honesty.

Several houses in the neighborhood where Bennett resides were searched on Saturday afternoon, but nothing that would shed any light on the mystery was found. Bennett has offered a reward of $100 for the return of the money, and all the officers in the valley are working on the case, with but little hope of success.

BRADFORD COUNTY FAIR

Among the many attractions at the Towanda fair this week will be some fast races. The entries closed Friday with a larger number and a faster lot of horses than previous years. There will be six races in all on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, and the 2:18 and 2:14 classes promise to be unusually good. The Free-for-all on Friday will be worth the while with such horses as Robert D. 2:11 1/4, Edna Ross 2:14 1/4, Black Heart 2:12 1/4, Sundown 2:13 1/4, and others entered. Among the other attractions at the fair this year will be ball games, balloon ascensions, etc. Special trains and special rates on the L. V. R. R.

HER HUSBY WAS DRUNK

One of the carnival fortune tellers, who pries into the past, present and future, at so much per pry, has a husband who indulges frequently in the flowing-bowl. Saturday night he got howling drunk and threatened to tear up the tent where his wife told the fortunes of the multitude. An officer was called and the booze-crazed husband was consigned to the borough bug house, where he was permitted to stay until yesterday morning, when he was released.

DECKER REARRESTED

Fred Decker was again in the toils Saturday night on complaint of his wife, who alleged that he slapped her real hard in the face. As the woman would not stand for this sort of treatment she had her worthy spouse arrested, charging him with assault and battery. A commitment was made out to send him to the county jail, but he managed to dig up security for the costs, and the case against him was withdrawn.

INSTANTLY KILLED IN TOWANDA YARDS

J. Vine Terry Met With Terrible Fate While He Slept on the Tracks

J. Vine Terry, a resident of New Albany, was struck and instantly killed by a Lehigh freight engine in the Towanda yards on Saturday night. The fatality occurred about 10 o'clock near the Meredith bottling works. Terry sat upon the tracks, probably asleep, and did not get up when the engine approached. The forward trucks passed over his body, severing the left foot at the ankle and breaking his neck. The engine was in charge of Engineer John McGovern. DeWitt Benjamin, a brakeman, was also on the engine and both saw Terry sitting on the tracks but supposed that he would get up when he heard the noise of the engine and the bell. As the locomotive drew nearer Benjamin shouted at the man on the track. He attempted to get up but fell back. Benjamin then signaled the engineer to stop, but it was too late.

The unfortunate man was the son of John Terry of New Albany and was 25 years old. The remains were removed to his father's home and the funeral occurred today.

U. S. WARSHIP SINKS OFF COAST OF CHINA

Protected Cruiser Sinks in the Indian Ocean Some Time Sunday—Entire Crew Perished

A telegraph despatch received this morning at the Waverly stock exchange states that cablegrams have been received from Shanghai, China, to the effect that the United States warship Helena sank in the Indian Ocean off the coast of China some time yesterday, and that the entire crew was lost. The despatch did not state what was the cause of the disaster, but it is very probable that it was due to a typhoon. This is the time of year when those terrific storms rage and it was only a few days ago that the shipping in the harbor of Hong Kong, China, was broken up and over 1000 lives lost.

The Helena is a gunboat and was built in 1894 at a cost of $280,000. She is 259 feet long, and her displacement was 1397 tons, the horse power was 1938, and she carried 8 four inch guns in the main battery. The crew, every man of which is said to be lost, consisted of ten officers and 173 men.

"THE CHOIR SINGER"

An elaborate scenic production including the exact reproduction of a Broadway roof garden, is promised with "The Choir Singer" which will furnish the attraction at the Loomis opera house on Friday, September 28, for an engagement of one night. This latest comedy drama success from the pen of Carroll Fleming, author of "Sis Hopkins," has just concluded an engagement in New York, where it was received by the press and the public with great enthusiasm.

A feature of the play which is said to please all classes of theatregoers is the introduction, at appropriate moments, of a number of musical selections, including songs of a varied nature. A large company of carefully selected metropolitan players are engaged in the presentation.

WILL CLEAR $176

Although the official figures are not yet ready to be given out it is estimated that the Packer hose company will clear in the neighborhood of $176 as their share of the proceeds from the street carnival held here last week. Considering the weather and the fact that a street fair had exhibited here earlier in the season, the members of the hose company are entirely satisfied with the results.

ROWDIES ATTACK INOFFENSIVE FARMER

Street Corner Gang Knock His Teeth Out and Otherwise Maltreat Him

Late Saturday night a farmer was set upon by a gang of hoodlums at the corner of Desmond and Lockhart streets, and when he escaped from their clutches he was minus a tooth and had also received a bad cut on the lower lip. The farmer, who failed to tell his name or residence, had been to the street fair. With him were his two little children, one six and the other eight. He was standing near the corner of the streets named waiting for a car when a gang, which may also usually be found near this particular corner, began to jolly him. One of the number finally struck the farmer's hat which caused it to go down over his face. When he attempted to defend himself against further indignities he was struck in the mouth with the result as above stated. Finally he managed to elude his tormentors and succeeded in boarding a car on Elmer avenue. Those who witnessed the attack on the farmer say that it was a most disreputable and uncalled for piece of rowdism, and when he was told to have the gang arrested he appeared to be frightened and glad enough to escape with his life and the lives of children.

BOILERMAKERS WANT MORE WAGES

May Inaugurate a Strike if Their Demands Are Not Granted

The boilermakers employed by the various railroad in this section want an increase in wages, at least this report has been given out by labor leaders at Wilkes-Barre. It is said that the boilermakers will make a demand for an increase in the wage scale, and that unless they get it a strike will be the result. In the event of a strike other crafts will assist them. The local boilermakers have made no demands as yet.

TRANSFORMER BURNED OUT

The carnival grounds were in darkness Saturday night on account of the electric transformer burning out. The transformer is located across the street from the grounds and shortly after the various shows began to do business on Saturday evening it began to burn. F. J. Heffron, chief of the wiremen, was on hand and attempted to shut off the current. While doing this a quantity of hot porcelain fell upon his right hand, burning it severely. The burning of the transformer means a considerable loss to the company as they are expensive affairs.
