ATHENS.

A. R. Brown was in Mansfield yesterday.

Harry Wolcott was in Elmira yesterday.

C. G. Bonney returned from Towanda last evening.

Dr. E. C. Rishel attended the Towanda fair today.

Mrs. W. J. Vargason was visiting Ulster friends today.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Jones attended the Towanda fair yesterday.

Mrs. T. R. Mills and Mrs. F. M. Ackley attended the fair at Towanda today.

Frank Little and A. B. Stone were fishing on the Susquehanna river today.

Mrs. D. C. Kinner was one of the large company that went to the fair this morning.

Layton Benjamin and Clarence Blackmore went to Towanda this morning to attend the fair.

Charles Whalen of Rome came to Athens yesterday to visit his sister who is at the Campbell hotel.

Mrs. Abbie Crandall has been the guest of Mrs. Leslie Crandall and returned to New Albany today.

The large trees on the north side of Bridge street at the old J. G. French residence, were cut down today.

Geo. Tabor, while working in the shops Tuesday, had his eye injured by some emery flying into it and is now off duty.

The following Athenians attended the fair today: Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Jones, Pearl Hemingway, Jay McKean and John D. Fice.

Mrs. James Donovan, Mrs. Tim Donovan and Mrs. Watson went to Burlington yesterday to visit Mrs. Holmes at the county house.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Campbell have been visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. C. E. McKinney, and returned to Lakeville this morning.

A trolley car was thrown from the tracks at the derailing station last evening which interfered with passenger traffic for about a half hour.

Mallory Post held a very interesting meeting last evening. Commander D. L. Fields gave an account of his visit to the National Encampment, and Comrade Druckenmiller gave some of his eloquent remarks upon patriotism. There was a good attendance.

We received a copy of the Atlanta Constitution, Georgia, of Monday Sept. 24, last evening, and the wrapper bore the signature of our Athenian friend, Charles G. Brown. This paper contains the account of the race riots in Atlanta of last Saturday and Sunday, in which 16 negroes and one white man were killed. The large headlines of the paper contain the startling news "Atlanta is swept by a raging mob, due to assaults on white women," in which 10,000 incensed men rule the city for five hours and the police are powerless to restrain them. Charlie Brown seems to have gotten into a hot place.

SAYS BULLOCK

TOUCHED HIM

Athens—Charles Nagle, who goes by the name of "Gypsy Charlie" has been selling truck from the "Chub King" farm, and yesterday took a lot of vegetables to Sayre which he sold and received the money for them. He took Oscar Bullock in his wagon when he drove back and when they reached the eastern end of the Susquehanna bridge at about 6 p. m., Bullock struck him on the head and knocked him out of the wagon, and then proceeded to rifle his pockets of what money he possessed. John Ovenshire drove to the place just as he saw him over his victim going through his pockets, and he at once made a run to capture him. Bullock ran across the fields to the icehouse, and Ovenshire and a man named Hadlock went in pursuit. They caught Bullock in the road near the Corbin farm and brought him to town under a view arrest, where he was placed in the borough lockup. "Squire Johnson was sent for and a warrant was issued charging him with the crime and he was again arrested and held to answer today at 11 o'clock. When arrested Bullock said he had not done anything and did not know Charlie Nagle, but when he was brought in Nagle at once said "That is the man who struck me!" Bullock then owned up that he knew him and explained matters by saying that they had bought some alcohol and got into a dispute as to who was to pay for it. On examining Bullock the officers found $5.61 in money on his person, which is the amount Nagle says he took from him.

At the hearing this morning Bullock was held to appear at court.

John and James Koakley of New York city, former residents of Waverly, are visiting their father, James Koakley, on Pennsylvania avenue.

J. W. Fellows, manager of Arthur Pryor's band, was here today and concluded arrangements with the order of Eastern Star, No. 9, to give a matinee concert under their auspices at the Loomis, October 25. Mr. Pryor, the world's greatest soloist, and his band, are too well known to need any introduction to the people of Waverly.

HIT BROTHER ON HEAD WITH STONE

Waverly—The hearing of Somerville Walker, who was arrested on a warrant sworn out by his brother, Emmet Walker, charging him with assault, engaged the attention of Justice Hoagland for the greater part of the day. The brothers own adjoining farms and it seems have had difficulty before. Yesterday Emmet was sowing grass seed when Somerville came out and told him to get off his land. Emmet protested that he was within the limits of own property. A bag of grass seed was lying in the field, and Somerville started for it. Emmet fearing that he was going to scatter it to the four winds, also started toward the bag of seed in order to prevent its being scattered. They reached it at about the same time, and Somerville hit Emmet on the head with a stone. He also threw several other stones and one of them struck his brother on the hand. Somerville's wife and Emmet's hired man caught Somerville, and Emmet continued sowing grass seed, and later made the complaint on which the warrant was issued.

W. C. T. U. CONVENTION

Waverly—The annual convention of the Tioga county W. C. T. U. at the Baptist church has been very well attended and closed this afternoon. The auditorium was packed last night to hear the address delivered by Miss Belle Kearney of Mississippi. Her subject was "Practical Prohibition," and she handled the subject in a very able manner. She proposed local option as one of the necessary steps leading to ultimate prohibition. At the meeting this morning the following officers were elected: President, Miss Mary A. Brown; vice president, Mrs. Emma A. Hoff; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Mary S. Partridge; recording secretary, Mrs. Mary E. Seely; treasurer, Mrs. Ella C. Elwell; secretary, Miss Anna Campville.

CLOTHING ON CREDIT

WE'RE PROVIDERS

Yes, we are providers of Clothing for those persons who rather pay a little every week than the whole purchase price at once. We found years ago that thousands of very desirable people would buy clothing if they could pay for it in weekly or monthly payments, and we established stores throughout the United States to cater to this class of valued patronage.

In this respect we are public benefactors, as we enable people to dress better, and in consequence give them more enjoyment and comfort in life, and we have stimulated generally the clothing business. Our host of imitators is an evidence of our success.

The SYSTEM is simple. You merely select your clothing from a large and varied assortment, and we open an account for you. It may occur to you that we take big chances. But we don't, as experience has taught us that people generally are honest. We have the LARGEST ASSORTMENT, the LOWEST PRICES and the MOST LIBERAL TERMS.

Suppose you step into our stores and learn more about our way of doing business. In the Ladies' Department you will find Suits and Cloaks in styles and patterns which delight the eye and become the form. Millinery, Shirtwaists, Skirts, etc.

Men's Department is complete in every particular. Suits, Fall and Winter Overcoats and Hats.

In the Children's Department you will find goods and prices to please you. We are giving special attention to this department this season. EVERYTHING SOLD ON CREDIT.
