MAGOON FOR CUBA Ex-Governor of Panama Canal Zone Taft's Successor. MOODY AND SHAW TO LEAVE CABINET

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—President Roosevelt discussed freely with his cabinet and with individual callers, among whom were Senators Knox and Foraker, the present situation in Cuba and its temporary occupation by the American forces.

The president reiterated to the cabinet and to the other callers with whom he talked that the action taken by the American government was destined solely for the benefit of the people of the island with a view to the complete restoration of order there and the protection of all interests.

He declared that he had no such motive in view as the possible annexation of the government of the island by the United States. What he wanted now was that the Cubans should be given another chance at self government.

Unless extraordinary conditions arise no extra session of congress will be called to deal with the Cuban situation, as the president considers he has ample authority to proceed in the matter.

It seems to be well settled that former Governor Charles E. Magoon of the Panama canal zone, who has just returned from Panama, will be appointed governor of the provisional government of Cuba in succession to Secretary Taft.

Both the president and Secretary Taft had in view the designation of Governor Beakman Winthrop of Porto Rico for this office.

The president, however, has expressed the belief that he can better spare Governor Magoon from his duties in the Philippine Islands than he can the services of Governor Winthrop in Porto Rico for the several months during which he expects the provisional government of Cuba will continue.

president's military aids, accompanied the family to his estate at Matanzas. Beside these not more than a dozen of Mr. Palma's most intimate friends bade him a hasty farewell in his private apartments.

Fort McRae was swept almost of the earth. Five men were drowned there and five others underwent such a harrowing experience that they are now chained in the army hospital, raving maniacs.

Along the coast forty-four light-houses were either swept into the sea and lost or the structures were so badly damaged that no lights can be shown for a long time to come.

Snyder was a notorious character in Kansas City. Several years ago he assisted in a robbery on one of the principal residence streets of that city by which a well known jeweler and his wife were robbed of diamonds and other jewels valued at $10,000.

Two indictments from the president's cabinet are slated for the coming winter, it is said. They are those of Attorney General Moody, whose resignation will become effective about the 1st of December, and that of Secretary of the Treasury Shaw, who, according to present intentions, will retire in February.

Secretary Taft has cabled to the war department requesting that Brigadier General Frederick Funston be designated to command the American troops in Cuba, and the military secretary immediately issued an order to that effect. Formal orders were also issued to Brigadier General T. J. Wint, commander of the department of Missouri, who is to be in charge of the embarkation of the expedition from Newport News.

UNITED IRISHMEN League of America Assembles at Philadelphia. STIRRING WORDS FROM REDMOND.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 3.—The address of Colonel John F. Finney of Chicago, president of the United Irish League of America, at the opening session here of that organization's convention was the important feature of the assembly's business.

The resolutions committee has formulated what John O'Callaghan, the national secretary, terms "the message that will express to England the sentiment not only of Irish-Americans, but of the entire Irish race."

The convention sent the following telegram to Mr. Redmond: "United Irish League of America, assembled in convention in Philadelphia, sends heartfelt greetings to kindred in Ireland and to leaders of Irish parliamentary party. We pledge united and hearty support of this organization to the pledge bond and united party working under John E. Redmond's leadership for Irish national self government."

PLATT'S WIFE DENIES Is Not Seeking Divorce From New York Senator. OLD MAN WANTED A BEAUTIFUL WIFE

HIGHLAND MILLS, N. Y., Oct. 3.—After denying that she had filed or intended to file a suit for separation or divorce against her aged husband, Mrs. Thomas C. Platt gave an interview to reporters at her home in Toga Lodge in which she charged the family of Senator Platt with conspiring to ruin her good name and threatened a war of reprisal.

"I am one of the most abused women alive," she burst forth. "I have been humiliated, scorned, sneered at and insulted ever since my marriage to Senator Platt. His relatives have never given me a moment's rest from their persecutions."

"This story that has been printed bringing my name and that of Hedges, my coachman, together is nothing more than a cunning plot to ruin me. They point out the fact that Mr. Hedges was a guest on the San Francisco trip. Well, what of it? It was Senator Platt that wanted him."

"I am not making up this story. I can prove everything. There are lots of 'Mae Woods' in this affair—dozens of them."

"I have not been asleep, let me tell you. I knew that something would happen some day, and I am well prepared. You have heard that saying about a woman scorned? Well, that climax has arrived. Only once did I come very near to making a serious mistake. That was when I tried to shoot myself at the dinner table that night. But I was nearly insane from the persecutions of these persons. I was not well and my nerves were unstrung. They are a whole lot of people who would have been glad if I had pulled the trigger, but I didn't and I am glad I didn't."

"Now, I don't think it is necessary to say much more, except that I blame Senator Platt's relatives more than himself. He is a feeble old man, physically very infirm, but his head is all right."

He knew perfectly well what he was doing when he married me, and he told me nothing about it but that I must be his wife. He said that other senators had beautiful wives, and he wanted one.

"But I am not a weakling. Everybody who has had a hand in persecuting me will suffer for this. Not content with hounding me they tried to ruin my daughter's reputation, but I was not caught napping, and soon Mr. Carnody and his friends will learn that they have contrived to set themselves against a tigress, not a lamb, as they thought."
