LOCAL BREVITIES

Furnace fires were more or less in evidence last night.

Train No. 8 was an hour late at the local station this morning.

Justice of the Peace W. T. Carey is now located in the M.P.A. block, room No. 5.

The Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church will give a 15 cent supper in the church basement Wednesday evening, from 5 to 8 o'clock.

Hon. John H. Sellreg, formerly editor and publisher of the Ithaca Daily Journal, and probably the oldest newspaper man in the state of New York, is dead at his home in Ithaca.

Thirty-three teachers in the Sayre public schools left this morning for Towanda. They will attend the institute which began there today. In the meantime the pupils of the borough schools will enjoy a week's vacation.

Albert Freeman of Burlington, mail carrier on R. F. D. route No. 50, running from Burlington to Troy, was found dead in his carriage on Saturday afternoon. Heart disease was given as the cause of death.

ESCAPED INSANE PATIENT CAPTURED

Left State Hospital Last Week and Was Located in Sayre by Chief Walsh

Charles Singleton, years ago connected with the Binghamton Republican as its manager, was apprehended here on Saturday afternoon by Chief of Police Walsh, and in the evening was returned to the State Hospital at Binghamton, from which institution he had made his escape one day last week. Singleton came into Sayre on a south-bound train. He went to the ticket window and wanted to purchase a ticket for Baltimore, but when he sized up his money he failed to have enough to pay for it. At the time his actions were of a strange nature, but as he molested no one nothing was thought of it. Later in the day he was recognized by a cigarmaker who formerly worked in Binghamton. Knowing that Singleton had been an inmate of the hospital, the cigarmaker notified Chief Walsh. The latter found Singleton and placed him in the custody of the cigarmaker until evening, when he took the man to Binghamton over the Erie. Singleton made some trouble in getting aboard the train at Waverly, but during the remainder of the journey was quiet.

Some months ago Singleton attempted to end his life. He placed the muzzle of a revolver in his mouth and fired. The ball tore the roof of his mouth away, but the injury did not prove fatal. He is reputed to be a man of considerable means, but within the past year has developed a suicidal mania, which has made it necessary to confine him.

DIPHTHERIA CASE ON HAYDEN STREET

Four-Year-Old Daughter of Mrs. George Hill Is Afflicted With the Disease

Marjorie, the five-year-old daughter of Mrs. George Hill of Hayden street is suffering from diphtheria. The child was taken ill on Saturday and yesterday Dr. Holcomb of Athens was called. He diagnosed the case as diphtheria and ordered that the case be quarantined. Health Officer Brougham quarantined the house yesterday afternoon. This is the first case of diphtheria to appear in Sayre in some time. A year ago last summer an epidemic of the disease appeared and several deaths resulted. The health authorities took prompt action and the disease was blotted out for a time. But at intervals it reappears, a fact which the measures adopted by the health board seem powerless to prevent.

GEORGE W. KIPP

George W. Kipp, the Democratic nominee for congress, who will receive the unqualified support of all interested in reform, is a self-made man and is known all over Bradford county, and in fact this section of the state, as possessing sterling integrity, common honesty and a reputation for keeping his promises. Mr. Kipp was born in Pike county, this state, in the year 1847. During his early youth, while living with his parents, he worked upon a farm and also engaged in manufacturing lumber in the old-fashioned way. Soon after he became of age he removed to Luzerne county, settling in a locality which is now known as Lackawanna. There he formed a partnership with his brother and they engaged in the lumber business. From Luzerne county he went to Wayne, and after residing there for a period of three years his fellow citizens recognized his worth and elected him a county commissioner. Later he acquired the ownership of timber lands in Bradford and Sullivan counties. He formed a partnership with S. E. Kizer and the firm has since been extensively engaged in lumbering.

Those who are best acquainted with Mr. Kipp know him to be a man above approach. He is an every-day man in every sense of the word, and his election to congress would give to this district an admirable representative.

PERSONAL MENTION

Henry Streeter, Esq., was in Sayre this afternoon on business of a legal nature.

Miss Lena Wright, who has been absent for the past four weeks visiting friends at Cleveland and Buffalo, returned home yesterday.

Henry Gates, formerly a member of the firm of Gates & Biddle, who at one time conducted a shoe business in Sayre, is the guest of friends in town.

EMERY AT TOWANDA

There will be a rousing political meeting at Towanda on Saturday next, which will be addressed by the Hon. Lewis Emery, Jr., reform candidate for governor, and other prominent speakers. The meeting promises to be a most enthusiastic one and will doubtless be attended by a large number from Sayre and Athens.

BALLS AND CHAINS ARRIVED SATURDAY

Wandering Willies Are Notified to Give Sayre a Wide Berth

Wandering Willies, panhandlers, plain drunks, and petty criminals are advised hereafter to give Sayre a wide berth. On Saturday morning two large iron balls, with chains attached, were received by the borough authorities, and they will be used to insure the safe keeping of persons convicted of drunkenness and disorderly conduct while the aforesaid convicts saw wood for the borough. Tramps will also be ornamented with the ball and chain, and compelled to work. The balls weigh 20 pounds each and after they have been securely attached to a man's leg there will be no trouble in finding him when he is wanted.

At the present time there is an ordinance on the borough books empowering a borough magistrate to sentence drunks, tramps, etc., to saw wood for a limited number of days in lieu of a fine. Magistrates, however, have been slow to impose the wood-sawing part of the sentence as there was no place in which to confine prisoners while the job was being done. Now it will be different. A ball and chain will be attached to the prisoner. He will be provided with a sharp saw and buck, and there will be no doubt about his staying on the job until he has served out his sentence.

THE PROUD PRINCE

The various episodes in the life of Robert the Bad, King of Sicily, have often been used by dramatists; but we feel safe in saying that Mr. Justin Huntley McCarthy has succeeded in making the best play the world has ever seen which has used this character as its central figure. Robert was an exceedingly wicked man and his downfall and subsequent reformation is one of those stories which have a touch of the mythological about them. "The Proud Prince" will be seen here at an early date.

Cyril Scott made an admirable start as a star in "The Prince Chap." The New York critics question if there is another artist in the country so admirably adapted for the role. Manager W. N. Lawrence certainly scored in his choice of both star and play, judging from the opinions of the New York critics. No play of its class since "Little Lord Fauntleroy" has won such popularity. Cyril Scott and "The Prince Chap" pay us a visit shortly.

LOCAL NEWS

Mr. and Mrs. William Mott spent Saturday and Sunday at Butter-milk Falls visiting friends and relatives.

Frank Harden and George Hoff man of Towanda, who have been doing a job of plumbing in Sayre, have returned to their homes.

Lilly's cry to stick by the party and the organization is simply an echo of the slogan which has been sent out from the headquarters of the state machine. The state organization realizes its hopeless condition. The bosses have instructed candidates to beseech the voters to stand by the party at all events. It is the same old cry that has been used for years, and in times gone by it has been successful in deceiving the voters, but this year the intelligent voter will turn a deaf ear to the entreaties of the machine and will vote for the reform candidates. The movement for reform in Pennsylvania politics is widespread. The days of the boss are numbered. Lilly knows this and in a last desperate effort to rally support he is screeching "stick to the party."
