MUCH WANTED MAN COMMITTED TO JAIL

Bullard Deserted His Wife and Is Arrested at Athens Yesterday

Lewis M. Bullard, a former Lehigh Valley employe, but who has been spending the past year in New York city, was committed to the Bradford county jail yesterday afternoon in default of $300 bail. Bullard is under indictment in this county on a charge of wife beating, but the offense for which he was committed yesterday is wife desertion and non-support.

Bullard was arrested at Athens yesterday afternoon by Constable Brougham on a warrant issued by Justice Carey, the complainant in the case being Mrs. Catharine Bullard, wife of the defendant. The Bullards have been married about 12 years and have a little daughter about 11 years old. About a year ago Mrs. Bullard complained to the authorities that she had been beaten by her husband. District Attorney Mills took the matter in hand and presented it to the grand jury which convened in December last. An indictment was returned, but Bullard was unable to be found when wanted. He had gone to New York in the meantime. It is alleged by his wife that he accompanied another woman to the city. Some time ago, however, the woman returned to this section, going to Athens. A week or so ago Bullard came here, presumably to see the woman. He went to Athens yesterday and when arrested by Constable Brougham was found in the woman's company.

Saturday a warrant was issued by Justice Carey on complaint of County Detective McGovern, charging Bullard with wife beating, and it was on this warrant that he was arrested yesterday. He was discharged on this charge as there was no evidence to hold him, but was immediately rearrested on the charge of non-support. After an examination on the latter charge, in which he admitted the offense, Bullard was held to court in the sum of $300 bail. He was unsuccessful in securing a bondsman and was taken to the county jail on the evening train.

Bullard is wanted by several other parties on various charges, among them being one of obtaining goods under false pretenses.

LEHIGH'S NEW ORDER

On and after November 1, the Lehigh Valley will issue 2,000 mile mileage books for $25. Of this amount $5 will be refunded to the purchaser when the book is used up. Under the present regulations the purchaser is compelled to pay $30 for the book, with $10 to be refunded when the book is used. While the new order will be duly appreciated, the traveling public will feel better when a 2 cent flat rate is given to everybody. The poor man will then be permitted to ride upon the same conditions as the man with his pockets lined with wealth.

MUST ANSWER ANOTHER CHARGE

Bryant is Alleged to Have Retained Money Which He Secured From the Sale of L. V. R. R. Tickets

Special Officers T. B. Shaffer and J. J. Johnson were at Ithaca yesterday endeavoring to induce Bert Bryant, the operator who slept at his post while the Ithaca station was being robbed of $1,200 to settle with the company for failing to turn over the proceeds of the sale of a quantity of tickets. The officials of the company admit that Bryant was not concerned in the robbery of the station, but they claim that he has been selling company tickets and putting the cash therefor into his pocket. It is claimed that the sum of $146 has been embezzled by Bryant, and that thus far he has refused to make it good. He was interviewed on the subject yesterday, but refused to have much to say to the officers other than to deny that he had retained any of the company's funds. The officials will hold another conference this afternoon and Bryant, who is out on bail, has promised to be present. He will then be confronted with indisputable evidence of his having sold tickets to the amount claimed and not turning over the money to the company.

MILK BOTTLE THIEVES ARE AT WORK

Residents of S. Elmer Ave. are Making Preparations to Exterminate Them

The citizens residing along the middle section of South Elmer avenue are polishing up their shotguns and making other preparations to exterminate milk thieves that have been operating along that thoroughfare recently. In several instances money has been taken from the bottles and the latter have been thrown on the lawns. Tickets are also destroyed and the bottles containing milk are emptied of their contents. Those who have suffered from these depredations have determined to resort to strenuous measures. A watch will be set and those who are caught in the act will need the services of a physician.

TEMPORARILY INSANE

Temporary insanity is given as the cause for the attempt at self-destruction made by B. W. Jennings at Jenningsville, Md., on Sunday last. Mr. Jennings has been in ill health recently due to overwork and worry, but his friends had no intimation that he contemplated ending his life. Mr. Jennings did not succeed in killing himself, but inflicted injuries which will probably prove fatal. He has been removed to the hospital at Ellinas, Va., and a Philadelphia specialist was sent for. The specialist says that he may possibly recover but does not hold out much hope.

CONCERNING MR. KIPP'S VISIT HERE

Disreputable Attack Made on Congressional Nominee By the Sayre Times Not Warranted By the Facts.

George W. Kipp, the Democratic nominee for Congress, visited Sayre on Saturday evening last. The Record did not mention the fact for the reason that Mr. Kipp's visit here was purely of a private nature, and had no political significance whatever. The unreliable and disgruntled Sayre Times, however, in its issue of last evening, tells its handful of readers that the reception given to Mr. Kipp was chilly. "Chilly" is a favorite term with the mental athlete which handles the helm of the Sayre Times, a paper which has long since passed into innocuous desuetude so far as anything that would even savor of reliability is concerned. The Times unblushingly says that Mr. Kipp "made his visits to several saloons and hotels accompanied by 'some' of the sore-headed Republicans known as 'boozie comedians,' and a very small following of Democrats." As a matter of fact, however, while he was in Sayre several prominent business men, among them being men who are members of Sayre's churches, and who stand high in social circles, met Mr. Kipp and gave him a hearty handshake, but at no time was he in the company of "boozie artists" or other undesirable citizens, with whom the genius of the Sayre Times appears to be so familiar. The gentlemen who have been referred to as "barroom comedians" will probably resent the insult when the proper time arrives. The insult was gratuitous, and entirely worthy of its source.

RATHER UNLOOKED FOR

Radically departing from its usual custom, the Sayre Times in its yesterday's issue admits that there is an honest sentiment in favor of reform in this district. This is indeed an admission which was wholly unlooked for, and when the source from which it emanated is taken into consideration there are those who will begin to look for the dawn of the Millennium, for an admission on the part of the Sayre Daily Times is something that should be made a matter of record and preserved in a secure place, where the moths can not destroy nor thieves break in and steal. This is the first instance on record where the Daily Times was ever known to admit anything, once it had taken a stand on a question in which the public is interested. But now that it is conceded that there is a sentiment in favor of reform, what is going to be done about it? Will those who believe that politics should be purified and reformed continue to vote for Lilley and the gang, or will they cast their ballots for Kipp? The answer is easy. Kipp will receive the unqualified support of every citizen who is in favor of clearing up the political atmosphere. A vote for Lilley is a vote for the gang.
