Expensive Job.

It is proposed to widen the bed of the Klet canal, in Germany, by 22 yards, and the water surface by 50 yards at an estimated cost of $20,000,000.

Just Ordinary Hogs.

When the market reporter speaks of an "easier tone in hogs" he wishes it understood that he has no reference to the incorrigible street car hog.

Heartiest Monarch.

Don Carlos, of Portugal, is considered the heartiest and most frequent eater of all the crowned heads of Europe.

Lowest Expenditure.

India's national expenditure, in proportion to its population, is the lowest in the world—only eight shillings a head.

The Mean Man.

Nov. 1, where he will be employed in future.

On the morning of the fire Fred Smith was on his way home from Waverly with his best Sunday suit on, and when he reached No. 3 hose house there was a man in the tower ringing the bell. Fred is an old fireman and he at once dragged the hose cart out and two of them ran it down the street and were finally joined by others who got it to the scene of action. Fred was pipeman and stood at his post all through the fire, and as a consequence ruined his best Sunday suit of clothes. He ought to have the credit of putting out that fire.

LADIES' LIBRARY CLUB

Athens—The meeting of the Ladies' Library Club yesterday afternoon was well attended and of more than usual interest. Mrs. E. H. Shipman presided, but Mrs. J. B. Knapp had charge of the program. The program opened with an instrumental duet by the Misses Williams and Barron. Mrs. Louise Snow followed with an account of Indian traditions which most lucidly explained many of the superstitions of the red men of the forest. Mrs. Shipman then recited Whit-tier's "Song of Indian Women." Mrs. George D. Bonfoey then gave some humorous readings. Then followed a paper by Mrs. J. S. Thurston on the white settlers of Pennsylvania. This was of peculiar interest to persons of this locality who have so many traditions of patriotic interest in Tioga Point. The exercises concluded with a piano solo by the Misses Flory Weaver. The meetings will hereafter be held every Tuesday afternoon.
