DID NOT HITCH THE HORSE

Athens—One of our young men hired a horse and buggy from Fitzgerald last evening and drove to Sayre. He left the horse standing unhitched and in a little time the animal started for home. While running at a pretty good gait the horse suddenly brought up against a telephone pole and broke the cross bar out of the thills. The young man, overtaking the animal, patched things up and proceeded homeward. Everything went well until they began the descent of Mile hill, when, owing to there being no holdback straps, the wagon ran against the horse, and he started off at an uncontrollable speed, stopping only when he reached the livery stable. The result is a badly used up wagon.
