SOUTH TO HONOR HER

Burial of Mrs. Jefferson Davis to Be National Event.

RICHMOND WILL HALT ALL WORK.

Body Will Lie in State in St. Paul's Church From Early Morning Until Hour of Funeral Tomorrow at Hollywood Cemetery.

RICHMOND, Va., Oct. 18.—At a conference of state and city officials, including Governor Swanson, Lieutenant Governor Elyson, Adjutant General Anderson and others, it was arranged that the funeral of Mrs. Jefferson Davis shall take place in St. Paul's church, this city, at 3 p. m. tomorrow. General Stephen D. Lee of Mississippi, commander in chief of the United Confederate Veterans, will be chief marshal. He is now on the way to Richmond. He has issued an order requesting that all the living Confederate generals meet him here. Governor Swanson has issued a proclamation calling for a general suspension of business on the occasion of the funeral. The governors of all the states that made up the Confederacy are expected to be present at the obsequies, and all the Confederate and military organizations of Virginia besides those of other southern states will take part in the ceremonies.

The body will lie in state in St. Paul's church from its arrival here tomorrow morning until the hour for the funeral. It was St. Paul's church that Mr. Davis attended while president of the Confederacy. Mrs. Davis will be buried in Hollywood cemetery, where her husband's body lies.

It is a coincidence that the body of Miss Winnie Davis, the "daughter of the Confederacy," arrived here for burial on Friday morning, Sept. 23, 1898, and that the body of her mother will also arrive for sepulchre here on a Friday morning. The immediate arrangements for the funeral are in the hands of J. Taylor Elyson, the lieutenant governor of Virginia.

Reports show that flags are at half mast in many cities of the south on account of the death of Mrs. Jefferson Davis. The Daughters of the Confederacy will hold memorial services in many places.

The following will be pallbearers at the funeral of Mrs. Davis: General Stephen D. Lee, Mississippi; A. P. Stewart, Tennessee; S. B. Buckner, Kentucky; L. L. Lomax, Virginia; R. F. Hoke, North Carolina; W. L. Cabell, Texas; James H. Lane, Alabama; Marcus J. Wright, Washington; C. Irvine Walker, South Carolina; Clement A. Evans, Georgia; W. P. Roberts, North Carolina.

It was stated that a message of sympathy had been received from President Roosevelt, but as in the case of all other messages and telegrams the relatives held it to be strictly private and declined to make known its contents.

It is expected that a military funeral will be held, as in the case of Miss Winnie Davis. The funeral will be held at St. Paul's Episcopal church in Richmond.

Hundreds of telegrams received by the family included messages from the following: Mayor J. E. Woodward of Atlanta, Ga.; D. C. Heyward, governor of South Carolina; Mrs. G. S. Pickett, widow of the famous Confederate general; the United Confederate Veterans of the northwest division; the Louisiana division, of Beauvoir, Miss.; of Columbus, Ga.; of the state of Florida; of the city of Montgomery, Ala.; of the Savannah (Ga.) camp, Camp Beauregard, Camp Loma, United Confederate Veterans, and the Soldiers' Home of the United Confederate Veterans of Richmond, Va.

Governor Heyward's Sympathy.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Oct. 18.—Governor Heyward sent the following telegram of condolence to Mrs. J. Addison Hayes, daughter of Mrs. Jefferson Davis: "Please allow me in behalf of our state to tender your our deepest sympathy in the death of your venerable and venerated mother. We share with all who loved her in the sorrow and elsewhere your sorrow, which brings memories of your distinguished father and of other days."

Confederate Veterans to Honor Her.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 18.—Thomas M. Owen, of Montgomery, commander in chief of the United Sons of Confederate Veterans, has issued a general order to the United Sons of Confederate Veterans calling upon the camps to hold memorial exercises in honor of Mrs. Jefferson Davis.

Thirty-five Professors Get More Pay.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 18.—Announcement is made at Yale that the senior officers in each undergraduate department and some others have had their salaries fixed at $4,000 in conformity to the plan outlined by President Hadley at the last commencement. About thirty-five professors who are doing "full work" are benefited by the change.

Goluchowski Resigns.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—In a dispatch from Vienna the correspondent of the Standard says that Count Goluchowski, the Austro-Hungarian minister of foreign affairs, tendered his resignation at an audience of Emperor Francis Joseph which lasted two hours.

Four Years For Trasson to Germany.

LEIPSIG, Oct. 18.—A man named Scheve, who tried to sell to the French government the secret of the manufacture of the German nickel coated cartridge, has been sentenced by the imperial supreme court to four years in the penitentiary for treason.

IN THE NORTH COUNTRY.

W. R. Hearst Continues His Stumping Trip in New York State.

PLATTSBURG, N. Y., Oct. 18.—W. R. Hearst's dash into the Republican north country began at Watertown and extended in a long sweep around the northern edge of the Adirondacks through Jefferson, St. Lawrence, Franklin and Clinton counties to Plattsburg.

The first meeting of the day was held in the railroad yard at Watertown, where from the car platform Mr. Hearst addressed a packed from the factories to work the Democratic candidate. The crowd consisted almost exclusively of men, whereas most of the indoor meetings hitherto have included many, sometimes a preponderance of women and boys. Mr. Hearst was enthusiastically cheered.

Later he spoke at Norwood, where the audience had been waiting an hour and a half. The meeting at Norwood was held in the opera house, which was comfortably filled. Mr. Hearst was cordially received and was given a hearty send-off at the depot as the train pulled out.

At Malone the station platform was crowded, the throng extending back into the street, and Mr. Hearst was given a notable welcome. Mr. Hearst spoke in the opera house, and his audience appeared to be in full sympathy with his utterances, which were cheered almost continuously.

CENTRAL FOUND GUILTY.

Railroad and Manager Pomeroy Convicted of Repeating.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—After being out only half an hour the jury in the case of the New York Central brought in a verdict of guilty against both the railroad company and Frederick L. Pomeroy, general traffic manager.

According to the provisions of the "act to regulate interstate commerce"—the "Elkins' act," under which the convictions were secured—the maximum penalty is a fine of $20,000.

As both the Central and the personal defendant, Frederick L. Pomeroy, are convicted by the decision of the jury on all of the six counts charged in the indictment, each may be mulcted to the extent of $120,000.

The question was asked of counsel immediately as to whether Frederick L. Pomeroy could stand any such fine. The query was received with wise nods.

No evidence was put in by the accused, and after argument by counsel the case was submitted to the jury.

When United States District Attorney Stinson requested the government's case against G. Fox announced that the railroad would offer no defense and appealed directly to the jury.

"If we are going to have a square deal in this land," he said, "it's got to be a square deal for corporations as well as for individuals."

SENeca IN ASHES.

Negroes Burn Southern Town to Get Revenge For Dynamite Outrage.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 18.—A special from Greenville, S. C., says that as a result of race trouble Seneca, S. C., is in ashes. The work is claimed to be that of incendiary negroes seeking revenge for the dynamiting of the negro college here last Friday night.

The fire burned rapidly, consuming the entire business section of the town, which has a population of about 2,000. No fire fighting apparatus was available, and citizens were powerless to stop the flames. As a last hope dynamite was resorted to.

The superintendent of the Seneca cotton mills, who was an eyewitness, brought the first news to Greenville. He says it is a matter of common belief that the town was fired by negroes. Among the buildings burned are two hotels and a hardware store. The fire was under control in about three hours. Everything is quiet this afternoon, although some feeling is still shown by the negroes. No arrests have been made. The loss is estimated at $150,000, with insurance of $50,000.

Big Fight Over Illinois Central.

CHICAGO, Oct. 18.—The fight for the control of the Illinois Central Railroad company waxes hot here. Stuyvesant Fish, president of the road, and William Nelson Cromwell, representing E. H. Harriman, president of the Southern Pacific, clashed openly before 250 stockholders who had come from various parts of the country to attend the meeting. On the face of the record Mr. Fish appears to have been the victor, but that the victory is not a final one is intimated by Mr. Cromwell.

Mrs. Wister Not Drowned.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 18.—The decision of Mrs. Wister to continue her fight for a portion of the $90,000,000 estate left by her father-in-law, William Weightman, only tends to deepen the mystery surrounding the celebrated case, which came to an abrupt close on Monday with the introduction of the much talked of piece of faded note paper.

BROUWER GOES FREE

Toms River Physician Acquitted of Murder Charge.

MASTERY DEFENSE PLEA BY WILSON

Foreman, Two Members of Jury and Many Others Wept Openly in the Court When Verdict Was Announced.

TOMS RIVER, N. J., Oct. 18.—Dr. Frank Brouwer was adjudged not guilty of the murder of his wife by a jury here, which was out only thirty-five minutes.

The scenes following the verdict have seldom been witnessed in this city as the prisoner jumped to his feet and cried out in loud tones:

"Thank God! Now I can go home."

The first person to press his hand in congratulation was Miss Della McClenahan, who has figured prominently throughout the case.

The dramatic feature of the defense of the trial was the plea for the defense by Mr. Wilson to the jury urging them to do their duty and "send this man home to his aged mother and motherless children."

The foreman and two other members of the jury wept openly and wiped their eyes with their handkerchiefs. The Rev. Dr. Rowland and ex-Sheriff Holman, who sat just behind the jury, broke down and sobbed. Many of the spectators were in tears. Dr. Brouwer himself had broken down and sobbed as his counsel had referred to the happy Christmas before Mrs. Brouwer died.

It was a mastery closing to a mastery plea, in which the case of the state had been ripped into tatters until there was left but the suspicious of two nurses and the evidence of a single medical expert, who never saw Mrs. Brouwer alive and never treated a living case of arsenical poisoning, that arsenic killed her.

At his home the two children and the aged mother of Dr. Brouwer planned to welcome him home.

The children do not know their father has been in jail for six months and that for ten days he has been on trial charged with the murder of their mother.

They have been led to believe he is far away in a big hospital treating many patients. But now they have been told by their grandmother, Mrs. Calvery, that their father will arrive home, and the two children are planning a race down the street to meet him.

After the taking of testimony Dr. Brouwer from his cell in the county jail made this statement:

"I shall probably be a free man to-night. God knows I have been made to suffer indescribable tortures because of no fault of my own. This prosecution I have been a political persecution. I have no doubt that it was brought about by one of the editors in this section who has been an enemy of mine and who used the local official by promises of political advancement.

"As soon as I am free I shall commence the legal prosecution of the man who has made me suffer. You may state positively that I shall not move away from Toms River, but that I shall remain right here to face those who have accused me."

Dr. Brouwer on returning home hung out the sign that had been removed from his office door, indicating his intention of staying in town instead of leaving, as he had said he would do if public opinion was against him.

TALKS TO BUSINESS MEN.

C. E. Hughes at New York Denounced Self Seekers.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—One of the most remarkable political demonstrations and, it is said, the largest political meeting ever held in midday in the heart of the business district marked the appearance of Charles E. Hughes, the Republican candidate for governor, before the Commercial Travelers' association at 577 Broadway. More than 2,000 business men, who had left their offices and stores in the vicinity, crowded the big store room near Prince street, where the Commercial Travelers hold their daily rallies.

Mr. Hughes made a practical talk to the business men and dwelt on the attempts made by his opponent to create discontent and class prejudice in this country. He said the country was all right and must be kept so and denounced any one who would seek personal advantage by trying to convince the people that everything is all wrong. He promised if elected governor to ferret out all wrongdoing and to punish the wrongdoer, no matter who he might be.

Great enthusiasm greeted Mr. Hughes and his speech was fairly punctuated with applause. Once he mentioned President Roosevelt indirectly by referring to the "man in the White House," and instantly three cheers were given.

ANOTHER WORLD'S RECORD.

By Voorhees Winning First Event at Belmont Park.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—Another world's record was broken at Belmont park when Voorhees, a 29 to 1 shot, won the first race, running the six and a half furlongs straightaway in 1:17.15, which is three-fifths of a second faster than Mandarin's time, made this year, and that of Van Ness, made in 1903.

Voorhees was played for a good thing. He opened at 50 to 1 in the betting, and immediately the money began to show, and his price gradually dropped to 29 to 1 at the close.

Voorhees and Frank Lord had the race between them all the way, and in the final furlong and under a hard drive Voorhees won by a head in world's record time.

Wes, a 30 to 1 shot, won the New Rochelle selling stakes in the fast time of 1:37.35 for a mile. This time is one-fifth of a second slower than the world's record for a circular track.

Woodman, a long shot, broke the track record on one and a half miles when he stepped the distance in 2:33.35. Kentucky Beau won the Champagne stakes. The form players had the worst day of the year, when the six races were all won by long shots. After two record breaking performances horsesmen here claim that the Belmont park track is without doubt the fastest in America. Summaries:

CORBETT-MCGOVERN FIGHT.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 18.—Young Corbett and Terry McGovern fought a six round mill here last night.

No decision was given, but Corbett had the best of the fight in the second and third rounds and McGovern in the fourth. The other three rounds were adjudged even.

In the second round Corbett drove right to heart and floored McGovern with right swing on jaw. McGovern looked over the eye of nine and then hit Corbett over the eye and split it open.

At the finish Corbett hooked left to chin, and they exchanged rights to clinch. McGovern swung two rights to head and left to body. Corbett hooked two hard lefts to jaw and swung right to mouth. Corbett uppercut right to chin and McGovern to body.

Corbett drove two lefts to face and uppercut right to chest. McGovern swung right to wind, and they clinched. McGovern swung rights to body and jaw, and they exchanged rights to head. McGovern crossed two rights to head, and Corbett put light left in wind. Corbett jabbed two lefts to face, and they exchanged rights to wind. When the gong announced the close of the battle there was little to choose between the fighters. The fight was one of the bloodiest ever witnessed in this city.
