Hurricane's Rage at Havans Stops Communication.

SWEEPS OVER LITTLE-REPUBLIC.

Storm Crossed to Florida and Tore Down All Wires South of Jacksonville-Miami and St. Augustine Flooded.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19.-The tropcal hurricane which swept over Cuba, breaking cable communication and passing on to the southern and eastern coast of Florids, cutting off communieation south of Jacksonville and flooding various places in its course, is apparently safely away from land and heading toward the Bermuda islands and the ocean beyond.

The storm swept with terrific force, but its path was hardly more than seventy miles in width. It raged in Havana, leveled the inland wires in that neighborhood, passed over the west end of Cuba, and its vortex crossed Sand Key and Key West, with winds blowing at least seventy-two miles an hour, tipped the east coast of the peninsula and swept on northeastward over Soft Wood and Steam Coal. the ocean. The weather bureau an-nounces that the storm has evidently passed northeastward through Florida straits and is now over the Atlantic some distance east of the Georgia

The weather bureau has ordered up hurricane signals at all points on the coast from Miami to Charleston and has warned mariners that the southeastern coast would be dangerous during the next twenty four hours.

At Atlanta, Ga., the Western Union reports all wires gone south of Jacksonville, and there is no means of communication with south Florida.

There has been no communication with Miami since yesterday morning. Just before the wire failed the opera-Planes, Household Goods, Bales for at Miami reported a storm and said there were two feet of water in his office. This report reaches Atlanta from Jacksonville, the latter point working direct with Miami.

Miami is about 800 miles south of Jacksonville on the east coast, and it is supposed the Cuban cyclone has struck the place with full force. All communication was cut off with

FOUND SOCIETY A BORE.

Chicago Belle Takes to Stage In Sheer Desperation. CHICAGO, Oct. 19.—"Society is a bore.

Women should have something worth while to do. Women should think more of work than of the continua round of health breaking entertdinments, where addle pated nenentities get together to be publicly superficial and uninteresting."

Thus denouncing the life that means only an everlasting change of raiment for the next function, Miss Helen Marcella Dickinson, a south side society belle, packed her trunks for her departure for a stage career.

In the face of persistent opposition from her father, W. P. Dickinson, a man of wealth, and against the wishes of her friends, the most popular girl in exclusive Kenwood circles has abandoned her home to become a wandering actress. Work-something serious-that is what I want," she went on, as she League Men Had Asked Cash Conalderation For Withdrawal of Their Candidates.

NEW YORK, Oct. 19.—The most star- Underwear tling development in the present political campaign in this state came when Charles F. Murphy, leader of money had been demanded by repre- family sentatives of the Independence league in consideration of the withdrawal of their candidates in certain districts and the subsequent serving of Mr. Murphy with a subpoena to appear before the grand jury in a "John Doe" proceeding and testify as to his charges. The subpoena was issued by District Attorney Jerome after a conference with Judge Otto A. Rosalsky of the court of general sessions. In his statement Mr. Murphy charged that certain independence league men had demanded money for the withdrawal of their candidates in congressional, senatorial and assembly districts where a third ticket had been put in the field

He added, however, that William R Democratic candidate for governor, knew absolutely nothing of what was going on in this connection. The Independence league headquarters officials have made a positive denial of Mr. Murphy's charges, adding that if any one connected with the organization had attempted to "hold up" candidates they would be giad to know of it.

The Independence league, which was promoted by W. R. Hearst, held its state convention at Carnegie hall in this city on Sept. 11 and named a full state ticket, With Mr. Hearst and Lewis Stuyvesant Chanler heading it as governor and lieutenant governor respectively.

Subsequently the league named a extra heavy with rich lustre. complete judicial ticket for the First judicial district, which comprises New York city and county. At Buffalo on Sept. 26 the Democratic state convention nominated Mr. Hearst and Mr. Chanler for governor and lieutenant governor respectively and indersed John H. Whalen for secretary of state, who had also been named by the Independence league convention.

Mr. Hearst's campaign throughout lime serges, lansdowne, etc. the state has been made under the joint management of the Democratic and the Independence league state committees. William R. Hearst was shown at
