Wooltex Garments

Just register what you find on a tour of inspection, then critically look us over. It sounds like a challenge; it is one! Because tailors are trying to beat them; other stores are trying to outclass them. But we have heard of no one outclassing the exclusive Wooltex Satin Yoke Black Kersey at $10.00 and $12.50 that we show, but it's Wooltex only a Wooltex when it is so marked. Others up to $29.50. You will be best pleased by looking elsewhere, then here. Three coats were sold yesterday to parties having first looked in New York and Scranton. Our prices were lower.

TO CONTEST FILING OF LEAGUE TICKET

Waverly—After the petition for the Independence League was filed by Simon Zausmer the Owego cohorts of that organization filed a protest against the nomination and a hearing will be given the candidates later by the county clerk, and notice will be served on them to that effect. The petition was made by William N. Sweeney, who sets forth that the faction filing the petition is not the Independence League and has no right to the emblem of the party, a pair of scales, and that the party has already placed a ticket in the field; that Hon. J. L. Taylor is state committeeman of that organization; Hon. David T. Eastman is chairman of the committee and Wm. N. Sweeney is secretary. The petition says that 83 electors who signed the petition were not filed in the body of the affidavit by the notary; that 42 of them failed to write their place of residence, and that many of them could not write their names at all, but made their mark.

George Flickinger and Miss Anna Clayton were united in marriage at the parsonage of the Lutheran church last night at eight o'clock, the Rev. E. M. Beyscher officiating. The groom is a well known machinist in the Sayre shops while his bride is one of Athen's most respected ladies. The happy couple will spend a brief honeymoon in New York City. They will reside in Sayre.

SAYRE ITEMS

"Polly Primrose" at the Loomis this evening.
Election day is two weeks from next Tuesday.
The trees on the hills hereabouts are taking on their fall color.
For Sale—A good work horse. Inquire of Bolich Bros. 139 tf
The largest crowd of the Bunting engagement witnessed "Tracked Around the World" at the Loomis last night.
The Sayre Aerie of Eagles held their regular semi-monthly meeting last night. Only routine business was transacted.
The Sayre hardware men are busy these days, and many experience considerable trouble in securing their services.
A Lehigh Valley train was wrecked at Hudsondale yesterday. The wreck necessitated the moving of trains over the Hazleton branch. There was little damage done.
Ike Samuels, the Lockhart street jeweler, has installed electric lights of new design in his store. The new lights illuminate the store brilliantly and make it a most attractive looking place.
Hon. A. C. Fanning, president judge of Bradford county, who has been in ill health for some time, returned to his home at Towanda this week. He has been at Asbury Park and is much improved.
The fall dancing season in Sayre has opened in full blast. From three to four hops are held in various halls every week, and as practically the same bunch attends them all, it is difficult to understand when they find time to sleep.
There remains only one pier and part of another to finish on the new bridge which is being erected by the Lehigh Valley at Towanda. The work has been pushed rapidly and the work of placing the iron will begin shortly. Contractor Kisner has the foundation for the new station completed. The entire work will be well along toward the finish by the time winter sets in.

ENJOYABLE SURPRISE

A number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hay of Stevenson street gathered at their home last night to tender them a surprise. The evening was spent most delightfully, progressive euchre being one of the principal amusements. Five tables were played. The booby prize was won by D. M. Arthur, Mrs. Lee Worden secured the ladies' first prize, while J. Adams won the gentlemen's first prize. Excellent refreshments were served and the visitors voted Mr. and Mrs. Hay royal entertainers.

"THE PROUD PRINCE"

Appropriate music has much to do with the success of a play, and in the case of "The Proud Prince" to be seen here next Monday evening, that important adjunct has been given ample attention. The incidental music of this powerful play was written by Manuel Klein, one of New York's best known composers. The present score is the same as that used by Mr. E. H. Southern when he first produced the piece.

FLICKINGER-CLAYTON.

George Flickinger and Miss Anna Clayton were united in marriage at the parsonage of the Lutheran church last night at eight o'clock, the Rev. E. M. Beyscher officiating. The groom is a well known machinist in the Sayre shops while his bride is one of Athen's most respected ladies. The happy couple will spend a brief honeymoon in New York City. They will reside in Sayre.
