William Tillman and Alexander Craft, the two men who were arrested on Monday by Officer Spencer Brougham, charged with taking coal and wood from the property of the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company, were arraigned before Justice Carey last night. After a hearing both men were discharged.

The Whitney production of "My Wife's Family," which will be seen at the Loomis Opera House on Wednesday, Oct. 31, is just the kind of an attraction to go to if you want to be divorced from dull care and worry, and to spend an evening in laughter and enjoyment. Everything goes with dash and sparkle. The comedy abounds with clever specialties. New music and speciality featured have been written and arranged by Messrs. Hal Stephens & Harry Linton, for this season. The scenery and effects are all new and the costumes are beautiful.

"HIGH TOP SAMMY" NOW UNDER ARREST

He Was Wanted on a Charge of Stealing Brass and Copper from the Lehigh Valley

On Monday night a Lehigh Valley freight car standing in the Sayre yards was broken open and robbed of 10 pairs of shoes and to suits of men's clothing. The amount of plunder secured is valued at $150. The thieves broke the seal on the car door and have so successfully covered up their tracks that no trace of them has been found by the officers who at once went to work on the case. Last night, however, Sam Vanderpool, better known as "High Top Sammy," was rounded up at the Cove on suspicion of having been connected with the robbery of the car. He was arrested by Chief Mulligan of Athens and taken before Justice H. F. Johnson. There was no evidence forthcoming connecting him with the robbery of the car, but as there was plenty of it to convict him of stealing brass and lead from the company's property he was sent to Towanda until the grand jury meets.

Recently the Lehigh officials have had their hands full in taking care of petty thieves. Nearly every day someone has been arrested charged with pilfering coal and wood from the company's property.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mrs. Frank Mead is visiting her brother at Scranton.

Mrs. Mary Pearsall, of Towanda, is the guest of her niece, Mrs. Paul Maynard.

Jerry Hogan of Pittston is the guest of his sister Mrs. James Burke of Stevenson street.

Mrs. Peter Troutman and child went to Wilkes-Barre this morning to visit friends for a day or two.

Mrs. E. M. Dunham and Mrs. O. L. Haverly went to Towanda this morning where they attended the Towanda Musical club entertainment which was held in that place this afternoon.

MIAL IS ON THE RUN

"Boss" Lilley is on the run. He is met with a frost, "aye, a killing frost," wherever he goes. Mial is receiving the frozen heart and it is jarring his nerves. He has lost his usual equilibrium and self poise, and is getting irritated. That expansive smile, which heretofore has been highly successful in securing votes has changed to a look of chagrin. Mial sees the handwriting on the wall and he shows it. With Mr. Kipp, the Democratic candidate, things are different. He is being accorded a hearty welcome wherever he goes. The voters realize that they are talking to a man who can be relied upon to support the interests of the people instead of a corrupt political machine. He is winning votes every day, and Mial is getting ruffled. It is well 'tis so.

THE JOB IS STILL OPEN

The promoters of the Stuart meeting which is to be held in the Packer hose rooms tomorrow night are still looking for a man to act as master of ceremonies. All day yesterday the members of the gang searched high and low for a man who would agree to take the job. Last night at 8 o'clock they had not been able to find any one who would even listen to the proposition. In sheer desperation a meeting was held in the late hours of the evening and the situation was discussed. The conference lasted until midnight, and resulted, it is understood, in adopting a resolution to allow Mr. Stuart to take the job himself.

NOTICE TO CONSUMERS

All water rents are now due and payable at the office of the Company. Ten per cent discount allowed on current flat rate bills if paid on or before October 31st. Metered bills and flat rate bills for the past quarter will be treated as delinquent after October 20th.

SHOULD BE CAUTIOUS

Now that many persons will engage in the occupation of burning leaves in their back yards or in front of their premises, caution should be used in not allowing the flames to communicate with out-buildings. By exercising carefulness perhaps a serious conflagration will be averted.

THE HEEMAN'S FAMILY RECORD

The Majority of them Spend the Greater Part of the Time in Jail

Speaking of the arrest of Fred and Harry Heeman, charged with burglarizing Lockwood Brothers' store at Lockwood, N.Y., the Bradford Argus has compiled an interesting bit of history concerning the family of which the two Heeman brothers are members. For instance: Lyman has one son and one grandson at present in the house of refuge; one son, Reuben, in Auburn prison for burglary; one son, Francis, a fugitive from justice; one son, Fred, in the Towanda jail, wanted in two states and three counties for larceny and burglary; one son, Lyman, Jr., same; one son, Henry, same; and one daughter in law in the Towanda jail, charge, larceny. Lyman's family has indeed been fleeing from justice and serving sentences in the penitentiaries of New York and Pennsylvania for the past 25 years. Yet it is said that there are men and women among the Heeman family who are good, industrious citizens.

MIRACULOUS ESCAPE

While walking through the Lehigh Valley yards at Packe ton on Monday evening an unknown individual was struck by an engine and hurled twenty feet in the air. He struck the ground with a dull sickening thud, but when several men rushed to his assistance he was found to be uninjured. He walked away as unconcerned as if the incident were an every day occurrence. When asked to describe the sensation of being hurled in the air he simply said that he remembered being struck in the head by the pilot of the engine. Those who witnessed the accident say that it was a miraculous escape from instant death.

WHERE IS "KING" KELLY'S FORTUNE?

He Was Not Carrying Any of It With Him at Athens Yesterday

What has become of "King Kelly's" seventeen thousand dollar fortune that was left to him recently? Kelly was in the jug at Athens yesterday. He had been drunk as usual and when he was arraigned before the cadi he was asked to contribute the sum of three dollars to the treasury of that borough. The borough needs the money but despite this fact Kelly failed to liquidate. He begged the mercy of the court, and promised to migrate from Athens immediately if he were given the opportunity. He was given the opportunity, and he came toward Sayre. It is said that Kelly's money is so invested that he cannot spend it as he wishes.

Kelly was arrested here this morning by Constable Broughm. He was on the Lehigh Valley tracks and in a wretched condition. The constable dragged him from the tracks just in time for him to escape being struck by a train. Kelly was too drunk to navigate so the officer secured a wagon and took him to the lockup. He will not be given a hearing until tomorrow morning.

CHILDISH DOUBTS

Cocaine in India

A bill has been introduced in the Indian council proposing the curtailment of the sale of cocaine in India, on the ground that at present the cocaine habit constitutes a serious danger to the country.

Costly Singing Birds.

The most costly living creature, in proportion to its weight, is doubtless a highly-trained song bird, a bullfinch or canary that can whistle two or three airs from operas. Such cage pets sometimes sell at the rate of $1,000 a pound or more, a price which would make a race horse worth about $1,000,000 and a setter dog $50,000 or upwards.

"You're a Goat"

Where did they ever get the idea that man sprang from monkey? If from the goat, there would be some sense in the theory. They have wiseness a good deal alike and both love to butt in. Besides, so far as known, the goat is the only animal aside from man that will chew tobacco.—Highland Vidette.
