FUSION MEETING AT BURLINGTON

The Town Hall at Burlington was comfortably filled last evening on the occasion of the Fusion meeting at that place. As the men filed in and took their seats silently, they gave the impression of being very much in earnest in the desire to hear the facts concerning the political issues in the present campaign.

The meeting organized by electing W. S. Wright, Esq., of Burlington, a life long Republican, as Chairman. The speakers were Hon. Giles M. Coons, of Canton, a Republican member of the Legislature of 1903, and Joseph W. Beaman, Esq., of Athens.
