"THE LABOR WORLD"
A GANG ORGANETTE

Another Lilley Trick to Deceive The Intelligent Voter.

ATTEMPTS TO DUPE THE LABORING MAN

Fake Labor Paper, a Puppet of the Machine, is Being Liberally Circulated in Sayre Today in the Interests of Congressman Mial Lilley.

The expected has happened. A few days ago The Record told its readers that a publication purporting to be a labor paper would be circulated in Sayre, and that it would contain matter supporting Boss Lilley. The Record told its readers that the "labor" paper would declare that Lilley was fair to labor and laboring men. The Record's prophecy was correct. Today the sheet referred to was distributed in Sayre, and it tells the voters that Mial is the laboring man's friend, and by the time The Record is ready for distribution it is presumed, that a copy of the "labor" publication will be in the hands of every voter in this district. In order, however, that the voter shall not be deceived The Record desires to call their express attention to one or two matters that may escape the unobserving: The sheet is published at No. 208 and 210 Third avenue, Pittsburg, by the Industrial Printing Company, which advertises that they will do job work with or without the union label. Lewis McCrue is the manager, and a man by the name of John D. Pringle is the editor. There is absolutely no information published in the sheet that it represents any sort of a labor organization. There is absolutely nothing in it to show that it represents anything except the corrupt and criminal Republican machine. There is plenty of evidence to this effect, however, as a glance at the complexion of its pages will indicate.

Every gangster and rascal on the ticket is lauded to the skies and in this particular issue extra space is devoted to telling its readers that Mial Lilley is a great champion of labor. In order to give the issue color a picture of President Roosevelt appears on the second page, while a portrait of Boss Lilley is conspicuously displayed on the first page. Just think of President Roosevelt playing second fiddle to a man like Lilley! Every ear-mark on the sheet shows conclusively that it is published in the interests of the gang. Search its pages from the first page to the last and absolutely nothing can be found to show that it is anything else. There is not one syllable to even cause a suspicion that it is any way connected with the laboring man or the labor movement, notwithstanding that it has been given the high sounding name, "The Labor World." It is published in a job office where you can get your work done, with or without the label, and yet it screeches "scab" and professes to be what it is not, a representative of the horny-headed sons of toil. This is the character of the publication that has rallied to the support of Boss Lilley, and upon which he depends to controvert the statement made by Samuel Gompers that he (Lilley) is DECIDEDLY UNFAIR to labor. The scheme is worthy of its originator. It is only one of the many transparent blunders that Mial has made since he first saw himself going down to inevitable defeat. Knowing that the American Federation of Labor has branded him as unfair to the laborer, he resorts to one of his usual tricky methods to deceive the voters. As usual he is caught at his own game. But the scheme will not work. The laboring men, the union men, the friends of organized labor, are altogether too intelligent to be hoodwinked in this manner. They are altogether too wise not to know the difference between an official labor publication and an organette of the gang.

"The Labor World" is evidently owned body and soul by the machine, and the attempt to foist it on the working men of this section as representing anything else is a flagrant insult to their intelligence. It is an insult which they will resent at the polls on Tuesday next.

As a matter of fact "The Labor World" has no mission to fill in this world except to support every ringster and gangster on the Republican ticket, and its support of Mr. Lilley is therefore entirely in keeping with its policy.

Verily "The Labor World" is the biggest piece of imposition yet perpetrated on the public by Mr. Lilley and his campaign managers. It will not be taken seriously in Sayre.

LOCAL NEWS

Justice of the Peace W. T. Carrey has moved his office to room No. 5, M. P. A. block. Telephone 246-y.

At the Loomis Opera House this evening, the best farce comedy ever written, "Are You A Mason?" will be presented. This will afford a great treat to the laughter lovers of this vicinity. The large advance sale indicates one of the biggest houses of the season.

The attraction at the Loomis Opera House tonight will be "Are You a Mason?" This will be good news to all of the theatre-goers of this city for everybody loves to laugh and there are more laughs per hour in this comedy than in any ever put upon the stage.

The Record has received several communications, the subject matter of which is devoted to the political situation, which have been thrown into the waste basket because the writers have failed to attach their signatures. If you desire that your communications appear in public print, you must send along your signature. This rule cannot be broken.

The grafters are working for Stuart because they fear Emery. They know that if Emery is elected he will prosecute relentlessly every ring thief in the state. Stuart says he will do this. But will he prosecute the men who are attempting to elect him. It would be an ungrateful cur that bites the hand that feeds it.

There is only one company presenting "Are You A Mason?" so no one need be afraid of seeing an inferior number two company. The best actors associated with this delightful comedy in the past have been engaged for the old roles and the play is funnier than ever. What more could anyone ask? It is really the funniest play ever presented on the American stage and it will live longer than Rip Van Winkle. This charming comedy will be the attraction at the Loomis Opera House this evening.

WOMAN KILLED ON THE LEHIGH

Was Struck by a Fast Freight at Reeders Yesterday

Mrs. Mary Reeders, 59 years old, a resident of Reeders, N. Y., was instantly killed by extra Lehigh Valley fast freight No. 2455, while crossing the tracks near that place yesterday afternoon. The woman was returning to her home and drove on the tracks just ahead of the train, apparently not hearing the warning whistle of the engineer. Her body was thrown high in the air and death ensued instantly. The wagon was smashed to kindling wood, and the horse was badly injured.

OVER NIAGARA FALLS

Numerous attempts have been made by Quixotically inclined people to make the descent of Niagara Falls, but all without success until the feat was lately successfully accomplished by Anna Edison Taylor, a Michigan school m'am. She had built at Bay City, Michigan, a large conical shaped barrel, some five feet high. This was weighted with a huge blacksmith's anvil, and she was strapped inside. The barrel was then supplied with air by a common bicycle pump, and thus equipped, the descent of the falls was successfully made. Miss Taylor suffered but slightly from her perilous feat. Her performance inspired the well known playwright, Joseph LeBrant, with the idea for the big mechanical effect in "Over Niagara Falls" which will be presented by Rosa bele Leslie at the Loomis opera house next Monday evening.

The gold watch now on exhibition in Walter Ware's window will be given away free at the Herald Square Moving Picture entertainment next Tuesday evening in the Loomis Opera House. During the performance complete election returns will be thrown on the canvas.
