LEHIGH FLAGMAN BRUTALLY BEATEN

Set Upon by Tramps in the Sayre Yards Last Night—Tramps Escape.

One of the most brutal outrages that has been perpetrated in this vicinity in years occurred in Sayre yards of the Lehigh Valley Railroad company between five and six o'clock last night, when Albert Hicks, a flagman on BJ3, west-bound, was set upon by three men and frightfully kicked and beaten. Hicks had refused to allow the men, who were trying to beat their way, to ride upon his train. Enraged at the refusal the men who made good their escape, beat Hicks into insensibility. He was taken to the hospital and given medical attention. He was suffering from a score of bruises, his eyes were swollen shut, and it was some time before he revived sufficiently to tell the tale.

The brutal assault occurred while the train was pulling out of the west end of the yards. The three men climbed on to a box car in the middle of the train, and shortly afterward Hicks went to where the men were and told them that they could not ride on the train as it was against the rules of the company. One of the men, a big fellow, knocked Hicks down, and this was the signal for the others to join in. They jumped on Hicks with their feet, and unmercifully beat him. While this was going on an east bound freight train pulled into the yards. A young man standing on one of the freight cars saw the men kicking Hicks and signalled to the engineer of the westbound freight to stop. In the meantime several freight crews gathered, and when the men climbed off the railroads surrounded them. Two of the men drew revolvers and declared that they would shoot the first man who attempted to interfere with their getting away. Flourishing their revolvers right and left they made their way through the railroads and with nothing to prevent them ran away and were soon lost to view. One of the men, whose hair and whiskers were snowy white separated from the other three, and he too succeeded in escaping.

Baffled in their attempt to prevent the escape of the men, the railroads turned their attention to Hicks, and finding that he had been badly used, summoned the hospital ambulance. Chief Walsh and the Lehigh Valley detectives were also notified, and they organized a searching party. The men went in the direction of Milltown, but a search of that district proved futile. In the meantime, however, the posse had divided. Dave Kendrick, the local station agent, and Frank Dawson, yard master, followed the trail of the men to a small shack on the bank of Shepard's creek, but when they saw Kendrick and Dawson, they made another dash for liberty, swimming the creek and again making good their escape. Dawson fired at them once or twice but the bullets went wide of their mark. Last night another posse was organized and the hill near the Lehigh Valley reservoir was searched, but no trace of the men was found. This morning about 3 o'clock it is said that three men went to the Athens bridge works and dried their clothes. They are believed to be the same ones who assaulted Hicks. With the exception of the old man all of them were well-dressed, and one of them is said to have sported a magnificent diamond in his shirt front. Hicks will not be able to resume his duties for several days. He went to his home at Buffalo today.

ENGINE FRAME BROKE HIS LEG

Hugh Hogan Met With a Serious Accident in the Shops Last Night

Hugh Hogan, a resident of Towanda, who has been employed in the Lehigh Valley shops at this place for some time as a machinist, met with a serious accident last night shortly after five o'clock, which will confine him in the hospital for several weeks. Hogan with others was engaged in repairing a locomotive frame, when the chain from which the frame was suspended gave way. The frame fell across two planks and caught Hogan's right leg, between the knee and ankle. Workmen raised the frame from Hogan's legs, but before they could get him out, the frame fell the second time, resulting in a serious compound fracture. The ambulance was summoned and the injured man was taken to the hospital. One of the bones protruded through the flesh, and it was necessary to fasten a metal plate to the bone in order to hold the bone in the proper place.

A WILLING TOOL OF THE MACHINE

Lilley Is for the Gang, First, Last and All the Time.

No man has served the machine more obediently than Boss Lilley. His repeated trips to Harrisburg when the gang had deal on hand is the best proof of his willingness to stand by the machine. His public utterances in Sayre have removed all doubt. Lilley is a machine man first, last and all the time. For years the machine has plundered the state. The people have been robbed right and left. Under Boss Penrose the state capitol steal was perpetrated. Politically, Lilley has always been ready to assist Penrose and there you have it. A vote for Mial Lilley is an admission on the part of the voter that he desires to tolerate Penrose and his corrupt following. If you desire, however, to overthrow the political machine which is responsible for Pennsylvania being at this moment in disgrace, then cast your vote against every man who is in any way identified with it. Tear down the branches and the trunk, thus stripped, will fall of itself. Vote against Mial Lilley and you will have gone a long way toward exterminating Boies Penrose and his ilk.

ANNIVERSARY PARTY

About fifty friends of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brooks gathered at their home on Miller street last night, it being the occasion of the 14th anniversary of their marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Brooks were the recipients of a large number of useful gifts. The evening was passed in a most enjoyable manner. Excellent refreshments were served and the hour was late when the party broke up and the guests departed for their respective homes.

MR. MASON WILL BE HERE TODAY

He Will "Explain" the Gompers Letter and Tell What a Great Friend Lilley Is to Labor.

Gang leaders fear a landslide. They see the tidal wave coming and are resorting to every trick known to their fertile minds to prevent the impending catastrophe. Mason, the editor of the labor paper, who has suddenly evinced great love for Candidate Lilley, is expected here today to tell the working men that Lilley is a friend to them. Mr. Mason is the fellow who came here several days ago to "investigate" the Gompers letter which appeared in the columns of The Record. The letter which The Record published was signed by Mr. Gompers and was his genuine signature. The letter recited the fact that Lilley was unfair to labor and in this particular locality it was conceded to be an excellent campaign document. Therefore it was up to the followers of Lilley to cast reflections upon the genuineness of the signature. Although none of Lilley's official newspapers have even dared to hint in this direction, the boss has passed the word along the line that the letter was originated by some one in the headquarters of the American Federation of Labor, without the knowledge of Mr. Gompers. In order to give the claim color Mr. Mason was sent for. What they dare not publish, they have however told freely on the curbstone. Mr. Mason is a clever gentleman. He is a suave character who does not express himself very freely, but it is said that he will be here today and will attempt to counteract the effect that the letter has had on the laboring element in Sayre. In the face of the facts it is difficult to understand just how Mr. Mason expects to accomplish his mission. It will be up to him to explain just how he as a representative of organized labor can in any way lend his aid to a candidate for Congress who is listed by the greatest organization on earth as being decidedly unfair to labor. We anxiously await Mr. Mason's explanation.
