THOROUGHNESS

The store isn't perfect but it's easily the best store for a radius of 20 miles, because of its thoroughness. We are young, vigorous and enthusiastic in our endeavor to keep pace with modern conditions, but along with it all, old time honor and principle goes with every sale. Most people shop here and daily put us to the test. We invite you to accord us a chance to serve. There is a difference in store and store methods. Ours is a place of business that thrives best on comparison.

Exquisite Suits and Coats
Bearing fashion's stamp of approval Suits that are plainly the creation of artistic tailoring. They show plainly the triumph of our ready-to-wear apparel. And as for variety, a visit to this department will best please you. We are "WOOLTEX" exclusive agents for Sayre, Waverly and Athens, and show with pleasure these and other approved styles.

Blankets, Comfortables and Bedspreads
We ordered our present stock nearly a year ago and we give you the benefit of these early purchases. They are priced from 49c to $8. Every day stows goodly sales, but ample stocks and big values should bring you here.

Any Juvenile Suit in Our Stocks
Not an indefinite offer, but for this week only. The styles are new and fabrics first class. This offer includes boys' reefer and overcoats. Wire buyers will buy now.

Broad cloth and Voile Skirts
Also the new greys and shadow and moonlight plaids at $3 up to $10. Plenty of sorts between. Heatherbloom skirts in black at $2.69 and $2.98. They need no exploiting on our part. Their merits are known to wide-awake buyers.

A Splendid Display of New Furs
All Day and Evening Nov. 3. While we have amply prepared ourselves with a big stock, regularly carried, we will have a manufacturer's entire sample line of Coats, Jackets, Muffs and Neck Pieces and a far expert from the Northwest, Saturday, Nov. 3, when special orders will be taken and pieces sold at an average of 1/2 under the usual selling price. It will be such a fur show as given you earlier in the season, when coats were sold at $20 to $35 under the prices asked by city dealers (as our customers told us) and smaller pieces in proportion. We invite you all to attend whether you buy or not. It will be of value to learn the thoroughness of this offer and the magnitude of stock shown. The date is SATURDAY, NOV. 3.

BROTHERS REUNITED

Last May when Tom Hudson was serving on the Jury at court in Towanda one of the jurors asked him if he knew H. J. Hudson. He said "Yes, he was my brother, but he had been dead a great many years." The man said, "No, that can not be for I met him in a Grand Army Post in New Jersey within a year." Tom then inquired more fully about him and found that he lived in Vineland, N. J., and soon after got in correspondence with him, and last evening the brother came to Athens and will visit around here for some time, looking up the friends of his youth. He served in the Civil War in the 141st Pa. regiment and has not been heard from in 40 years and all of his friends supposed him dead. Tom has taken a vacation now and he and his brother will spend it together going over the scenes of their childhood.

HALLOWE'EN SOCIAL

Mrs. Joseph Hines gave a Halloween social to her friends last evening and to-day those who were fortunate enough to have been there are all under the spell of witchery that enchanted them in their evening's frolic. Mrs. Hines must have studied all of the fabled magicians from the days of Marcus Agrippa up to the wizards of the present time to have been able to represent the different divinities that she had in attendance on this occasion. As you entered her rooms by the golden stairway you were greeted at every step with fairy spirits whose welcome gave a charm to the occasion. The hat rack at the head of the stairs was under the guardianship of a sponsor of Jupiter, the avenger fabricated out of a Hubbard squash and osage orange. The mantel in the dining room was garnered with faded autumn leaves and protected by skulls and pumpkin deities. The table was elaborately decked with candles and goblins in most fantastic style. The rooms were lighted with Japanese lanterns and the rainbow colors filled the air with fairy visions of enchantment. There were twenty-two guests in attendance and as they marched around this table each one was presented with a souvenir of the occasion. Refreshments were served and as the party took their leave they could hardly summon words to fitly express their delight for the evening's entertainment.

Some of the persons who attended the Halloween party last evening were surprised at the ghost in the corner that suddenly came to life as they approached it and tried to greet them with a grip.

ENTERTAINED MUSICALE

The Fransohian Musicale were entertained at the home of Mrs. O. L. Haverly, yesterday afternoon, and in attendance and interest the meeting surpassed all others they have held this year. The program opened with a vocal duet, "Hark to the Mandolin," by Mrs. Haverly and Mrs. von Tobel. Mrs. Shauf of Sayre played a piano solo from Greig and Miss Mabel Baldwin of Waverly, sang a beautiful solo. Miss Maragaret Stiles played two violin solos that were greatly appreciated. Miss Elsie Jordan gave a piano solo and the program ended with a duet by Mrs. Huff and Miss Teed. The questions and study department was in charge of Mrs. Andrew Sawtelle. All of the numbers were of a high order and the meeting was a great success.
