Those Girls. Stella—My face is my fortune. Bella—What aristocratic, dear! We haven't had money in our family any where near as long as that.—N. Y. Sun.

COUNCIL MEETING

The regular meeting of the Borough Council was held last evening with all of the members present.

Mr. Tripp reported that the furnace was out of order in the Third Ward hose house so that it would be impossible to heat the rooms for the election to be held to-day.

At this point S. R. Matteson appeared as a committee from No. 3 company and stated that whereas they had been to great expense in furnishing the rooms and had run in debt for the same, they therefore requested that next year's appropriation be paid to the company now.

Mr. J. C. Reynolds then presented the plea for the proposed opening of Pennsylvania avenue south to connect with Main street, saying that the petition had been submitted to them some time ago and no action had been taken.

Mr. Stevens stated that he had taken the blue print diagram of the parties at interest and that its course was marked out in a different direction from what they had given consent to and he found that the matter could not be adjusted in an amicable way.

Mr. Weiss stated that they had purchased that land for a purpose and they proposed to retain it, Borough Attorney Mills stated that any attempt to force their way across the railroad lands would open up a long and costly litigation.

Mr. C. A. Haynes then appeared before the Council asking that the sewer be built at the foot of Chestnut street to take care of the surplus water. Referred to the sewer committee. Adjourned.
