WILD WEST IN CENTRAL PARK.

North Dakota Man With Lasso Pulls Autotrol From His Car.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—In a merry mixup of bronchos, automobilists, theatrical people and a broker, Jack Joyce, who comes from North Dakota, covered himself with glory in Central park, near the circle entrance.

With a companion, both mounted on bronchos and attired in picturesque style which savored of the plains, Joyce cantered into the park when an automobile in which was John Shevlin, a wealthy broker, grazed the side of the broncho on which Joyce was mounted.

There was an immediate rapid fire delivery of choice epithets from Joyce, says Shevlin, as he wheeled his pony in front of the automobile so as to stop its advance. Shevlin ordered his chauffeur to press along, and Joyce's pony was frightened at the look of the auto horn.

Mounted Policeman George J. Frick had been a spectator of the encounter and saw Joyce whip out a lasso from his saddle and settle his coils around Shevlin's shoulders with such dexterity that the broker was nipped out of his seat.

Then the mounted policeman interfered, and Shevlin, almost speechless with rage, demanded that Joyce be arrested. "This man abused me shamefully," declared Shevlin, still rubbing his neck and shoulders. "This isn't the wild west, and these fellows ought to be taught their places. He lassoed me out of my car."

When Joyce was arraigned in the West Side court Shevlin said that it was true that he had lost his head, and he decided not to press the complaint.

Providence Has Three Fires. PROVIDENCE, R. I., Nov. 13.—Three fires, one believed to have been the work of an incendiary, kept the fire department in this city busy. The first alarm was for a blaze in the stable of C. S. Mann, the second was for a threatening fire in the lumber yard of Burrows & Kenyon on Washington street and the third in the machine shop of Volney W. Mason, near by. The total loss will exceed $30,000. The lumber yard fire, which started in a shed containing about $15,000 worth of kiln dried lumber, is believed to have been the work of an incendiary. At the Mason machine shop fire a passer-by threw through an open window a lighted match, which fell into a barrel of oil. At that fire half a dozen hose men were overcome by smoke. The loss was about $15,000.

Sultan Nominates Raisuli Governor. TANGIER, Nov. 13.—News of the official nomination of Raisuli, the bandit chief, to be governor of the town of Arzila and neighboring provinces has been received here. This nomination is made by the sultan. The territory under Raisuli's authority extends from Tangier to El-Arakil. Mr. Gummere, the American minister, paid what is believed to be his final visit to the sultan four days ago at Fez, and a report says that Mohammedans at Fez are beginning to display dissatisfaction with the prolonged sojourn there of the mission of which Mr. Gummere is the head.

Were Oldest Twins in United States. AMSTERDAM, N. Y., Nov. 13.—Jacob Steen is dead at the home of his granddaughter here in his ninety-first year. He and his brother, Walter, of Syracuse, who was at his bedside when he passed away, were the oldest twins in the United States. The Steens were born May 19, 1816, in the town of Florida, a few miles north of here. Jacob Steen spent his life there as a farmer. His death resulted from a general physical breakdown. Three years ago he and Mrs. Steen, who survives him, celebrated their sixtieth wedding anniversary.
