ASSAILS PRESIDENT

Ex-Governor Odell Describes Campaign as Asinine.

$80,000.00 SAYS IT LEAVES PARTY IN BAD SHAPE

Roosevelt's Intervention in New York State Politics Was m Mintake.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.- Reujamin B. Odell, former governor and former state chairman of his party, declared in an Interview here that the Republican campaign management in the fight just ended was as nine and that it had left the party in deplorable

He said the intervention of President Roosevelt to aid the ticket headed by Charles E. Hughes was a mistake and that defeat had merely made Hearst a stronger, more formidable political factor than he had been before.

"What do you think of the result of the election?" he was asked.

"I would hardly call it satisfactory from a Republican standpoint. It leaves our party in bad shape, very bad shape, with an important national campaign coming on. I'm greatly conerned over the future. The Republican party isn't united as it ought to

"What do you think of the manageneut of the Republican campaign?" "It was most asinine. There was the most asimine policy I ever knew.

As a result we have only elected the bead of our ticket. As things stand it looks pretty much like a Democratic

"Why, the Republicans made no campaign at all and no canvass. The bulk of the work was put on Mr. Hughes' shoulders.

"My advice was never asked once. Many of my friends all over the state ad the same experience.

"The Republicans should get in shape o win the next campaign in this state; iso we must recognize the existence of those things which Hearst represents and typides and meet them in a onservative and sane way."
"Do you think Hughes should recogaire some of the departments in Al-

"Well," he replied, "there is this to e said, "If the people who are in harge of the various departments in Albany would pay more attention to their business and less to politics they would do better. "That was one of my own mistakes.

When I was governor I should not ave become chairman of the state ommittee."

"What was the effect of President oosevelt's interest in the campaign?" "It was unfortunate. Such a result always follows federal interference. Attorneys and Counselors The history of this state shows that interference by a president has always been followed by disastrous re-

"Do you think that Hearst is weaker or stronger since his defeat?"

"Stronger. He made a remarkable ampaign. Almost every newspaper in he state except his own opposed him. The great run he made under those dreumstances demonstrates beyond a foubt that he has unusual political force. Mr. Hearst has also demonstrated that he can think and speak for himself. I do not like him any etter than does any other Republican out this does not prevent me from ecognizing his force and ability"

Good Pay For Corn Huskers. WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 .- Secretary f Agriculture Wilson has returned from Iowa, where he took an active part in the campaign and visited for s week after election. He said that lows and other corn states furnish no exception to the rule in regard to seeding farmhands for the harvesting of crops. The corn crop is enormous, and farmers are offering 4 cents a bushel for huskers. This enables good men to make from $8 to $4 a day and

Many Protest Discharge of Negrous. WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.- The war department mails are heavy with letters protesting against the discharge without honor of the three companies of the Twenty-fifth infantry, colored. Most of these originate in Massachusetts, but nearly every section of the country is represented. TRAIN HIT WAGON.

Pittsburg and Lake Erie Wreck o NEWCASTLE, Pa., Nov. 14 .- One nan was killed and three others were seriously (probably fatally) injured when a fast eastbound passenger train on the Pittsburg and Lake Erie railroad ran into a wagon heavily loaded with logs at a grade crossing at Edensourg. As it reached the grade crossing leading to the Edensburg highway bridge it struck a wagon loaded with ogs. The engine became uncoupled rom the train and ran 150 feet along the ties and then crashed into a grist mill, partially wrecking the building. Fireman Carnes remained at his post, and when the engine overturned be three day coaches were thrown to the side of the tracks, but fortunately re-

Governor Elect In Adirondacka Hunt Wears Red Cap.

CAMP KILKARE, N. Y., Nov. 14 -- 1f here are any deer in the Adirondacks they do not hang around Camp Kilkare. "We have got on lots of tracks," said M. Linn Bruce apologetically, but they were like some of those we struck just before election. They turned out to be wrong ones."

Mr. Hughes takes his exercise on the main road leading from Raquette Lake to the camp, which he traverses halfway and back. In view of the fact that there are so many persons scouting around who are more conversant with knives and forks than guns, precaution is taken by Mr. Hughes to wear a bright red cap as a danger signal. Mr. Hughes does not care for hunting, which has proved to him so far that it is purely a waste of time.

Noted Western Lawyer Will Defend Harry K. Thaw.

WIFE'S STORY SURE TO SWAY JURY

Trial That Holds Fate of Young Pittaburger Who Shot, and Killed Stanford White Fixed by Jerome For Dec. 3.

NEW YORK, Nov. 14.-Evelyn Nes. bit Thaw holds the life of her husband at her command, or at least this is said to be the belief of Delphin M. Delmas of California, the eminent lawyer who has been retained for $100,-000 to conduct the defense of Harry Thaw in his trial for killing Stauford White Thaw and his counsel, according to nformation in the hands of the district attorney, believe that she holds the key of the situation and that by was crushed. The baggage car and going on the stand and giving testimony to prove that her husband was justified in shooting White she will be tained an upright position. The wagon able to sway the jury to acquit him. Mr. Delmas, who has won fame as the crossing, and through carelessness, the "Napoleon of the Pacific coast it is said, no warning was given the bar," said he was sure Thaw would be saved by pleading the "higher" or unwritten" law.

> District Attorney Jerome has fixed Dec. 3 as the date for the trial before Recorder Goff or Judge Greenbaum in be supreme court.

Judge Delmas called on his client in the Tombs and for the first time heard from the lips of Harry Thaw the story of the killing of Stanford White as Thaw looks at the tragedy and as he desires the jury to look at it.

This was the second meeting beween Judge Delmas and Thaw. The first occurred in September, when the great California lawyer was first con- decided that it was illegal for the offer suited about taking up the case. On to be tendered or accepted. that occasion the crime was discussed in outline. It may be said as the result of the conference that the work of preparing the defense of Harry Thaw is really under way for the first time since he was locked up in the Combs.

It is reported in circles in which Har ry Thaw moved before the tragedy that outside of Evelyn Nesbit Thaw not more than half a dozen witnesses will be called for the defense. They will testify that Thaw was driven to the verge of insanity by revelations concerning the relations existing between Stauford White and Evelyn Thaw. In cases similar to Thaw's, in which be has been engaged by Mrs. William

Thaw, Judge Delmas has successfully invoked the "unwritten law." That will be the Thaw defense. The killing of Stanford White, according to the information of the prosecution, will be justified by Judge Delmas upon the sary car was slightly hurt, and five Nesbit Thaw to the judge and jury that her relations with Stauford White ild not cease after she married Thaw. Under the skilled stage management of a lawyer of the experience of Judge Delmas the dramatic possibilities of such a defense may be imagined. It will be necessary to ask the wife of Harry Thaw but one question, and this might be so framed as to balk any extended cross examination. The confession of a beautiful woman that the man her husband killed had dishonored her or tried to dishonor her has gone a long way with juries in the
